WANT CLEANER POLITICS.

"I believe that we have arrived at a time when the people of Canada want cleaner politics. I have never believed it necessary to be dishonest in public life, while being honest in private life. I believe the people of Canada are looking for better things, and are expecting service from the public men, men who occupy positions of trust in the different. And never in the history of Canada has there been a more opportune season than while this struggle is on. Let us have cleaner politics and more honest business in the conduct of our public affairs."—Premier Norris, of Manitoba, at London, Ont.

MESSAGE TO YOUNG MEN.

"After a long life I shall remind you that already many problems rise before you; problems of race division, problems of creed differences, problems of economic conflict, problems of national duty and national aspiration. Let me tell you that for the solution of these problems you have a safe guide, an unfailing light, if you remember that faith is better than doubt, and love is better than hate.

"Banish doubt and hate from your life. Let your souls be ever open to the strong promptings of faith and the gentle influence of brotherly love. Be adamant against the haughty; be gentle and kind to the weak. Let your aim and your purpose, in good report or in ill, in victory or in defeat, be so to live, so to strive, so to serve as to do your part to raise the standard of life to higher and better spheres."—Sir Wilfrid Laurier at London, Ont.

THE CAMP BORDEN BLUNDER.

Prior to the outbreak of the war, Canada possessed 359,000 acres of military camp grounds, exclusive of Valcartier Camp. The purchase of Valcartier Camp in Quebec, which is approximately 13,000 acres in extent, brought the total up to 372,000 acres. It was considered at the time of its purchase that it would accommodate a large proportion of the Dominion's troops, while at the same time being handy to the point of embarkation at Quebec. Some idea of the number of men which could be accommodated there may be gathered from the fact that the first Canadian contingent of 33,000 men was bivouacked there, and they occupied only a small part of the site purchased.

In May, 1916, the public were informed that Camp Borden, 16,200 acres in extent, had been purchased, despite the fact that the number of Canadian troops being trained in Canada was decreasing daily.

Apart from the fact that Valcartier Camp was capable of accommodating a very large body of men, it may be interesting to enumerate the other military camps of the Dominion, and to thereby indicate how superfluous was the purchase of Camp Borden. The following are the camps of the Dominion with their respective areas:

	Acres.
Aldershot, N. S.	966
Sussex, N. B.	300
Farnham, Quebec	1,318
Three Rivers, Quebec	306
Levis, Quebec	1,248
Petawawa, Ont.	70,400
Barriehead, Ont.	788
Niagara, Ont.	65
Carling Heights, Ont.	80
Camp Hughes, Manitoba	90,000
Moose Jaw, Sask. remount training grounds	69,269
Medicine Hat, Alta., remount depot and training area	124,000
Sarcee Camp, Alta., and Vernon, B. C. (areas not given)
Kamloops, B. C., Tunkwa Lake	5,760

This makes a total area of over 365,000 acres. Valcartier brings that total up to 378,000 acres, and the addition last May of Camp Borden brought the total up to over 394,000 acres. This is an acre of ground for the accommodation of every soldier who enlisted since the war began. These figures do not include large military areas, such as Dorval, Laprairie, Rockcliffe, Connaught Range and scores of others which have been utilized by the Militia Department for the training of soldiers.

Camp Borden has been in operation about four months and is now closed down, perhaps never to be revived. Over two millions of Canada's money wasted for what—to give the egotistical Sir Sam Hughes an opportunity of exhibiting himself reviewing troops before the moving picture man.

In Toronto, where a Federal by-election is pending, Mr. H. H. Dewar, M. P. P., and others have made it so warm for the government on the nickel question that Hon. Arthur Meighen, the hair-splitter of the cabinet, was sent down from Ottawa last week to explain matters. He claimed that the Government of Great Britain was responsible for the gentleman's agreement entered into with the International Nickel Co. The Solicitor General is a past master of the noble art of political claptrap. It is a notorious fact that the Germans have been buying Canadian nickel since the war began, and are still getting it by means of their merchant submarines. If the Borden Government had been good for anything, it would have put a stop to this business long ago.

Now that Sir Sam Hughes is out of the way, the Government is going to avail itself of the services of that brilliant soldier, Major General Lessard. The announcement is made in an Ottawa despatch that he has been appointed Adjutant General of the Canadian Militia. He is easily Canada's foremost professional soldier, and will do credit to his new position. General Lessard's services were available to Canada at the outbreak of the war, but Sir Sam Hughes allowed him to retire to his farm in Ontario, while he gathered up a lot of political colonels and sent them overseas.

Sir Sam Hughes, ex-Minister of Militia, has gone on an automobile trip to the United States. It is announced that on his return he will address a public meeting and explain his position to the public. Pap-fed government organs which formerly sang the praises of Sir Sam have been handing him some hard knocks since he resigned from the cabinet, and it is just possible that he may strike back. Sir Sam recently held a two hours' conference with Sir Lomer Gouin, Premier of Quebec, and there is naturally much speculation in Tory circles as to the nature of the topics discussed.

Hon. B. Franklin Smith, although not asked to express an opinion, has declared that there is no such thing as a potato trust. If a potato trust did exist Hon. B. Franklin would know all about it; therefore he should be in a position to speak with some authority. Still, it might not be a bad plan for the Attorney General to keep an eye on that potato exchange which has its headquarters in Carleton county.

An Ottawa despatch says that the Government's new recruiting policy will eliminate the colonels, majors and captains and send only lieutenants to the front. It also intimates that the two hundred-odd colonels who are enjoying life in England will be allowed to return to civil life. It looks as if common sense was going to prevail again in the Militia Department.

Shipping men have been warned to be on the lookout for German submarines on this side of the Atlantic. Having pulled off one submarine raid on the Atlantic seaboard and got by with it, the Huns are pretty sure of repeating the experiment. It is well that owners and masters of ships should be on the alert.

Evangelist Billy Sunday is some recruiting officer. A his meetings in the Boston tabernacle on Sunday he enlisted no less than 3,702 in the army of the King of Kings.

EXCEEDED HIS JURISDICTION

Winnipeg, Nov. 27.—The Court of Appeal gave judgment that Mr. Justice Haggart went beyond his jurisdiction when he made an order quashing the committal of Edward Breck to jail for alleged contempt of court after having previously ordered his release on habeas corpus proceedings.

Mr. Breck, managing editor of the Winnipeg Telegram, and three other Winnipeg newspaper men, were committed to jail by Mr. Justice Galt, sitting as a royal commissioner, for alleged contempt of that tribunal.

More people would be led astray if they listened to their own talk seriously.

Was Troubled With Shortness of Breath

When the heart becomes affected, there ensues a feeling of a choking sensation, a shortness of breath, palpitation, throbbing, irregular beating, smothering sensation, dizziness, and a weak, sinking, all gone feeling of oppression and anxiety.

The nerves become unstrung, you dread to be alone, have a horror of society, start at the least noise and are generally fatigued.

On the first sign of the heart becoming weakened or the nerves unstrung, Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills should be taken. They are just what you require at this time. They regulate and stimulate the heart, and strengthen and restore the whole nerve system.

Mrs. C. M. Cormier, Buctouche, N. B., writes: "Since two years ago I was troubled with a shortness of breath, and sometimes I could hardly breathe. I went to see several doctors and they said it was from my heart and nerves, but they did not seem to do me any good. One day I got one of your B. B. B. Almanacs and read of a case similar to mine.

"I bought a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and after taking it I noticed such a change that I kept on taking them until I had used four more boxes, when I was cured."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c. a box, three boxes for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

SUMMARY OF MORNING'S WAR NEWS

London, Nov. 27.—The entire line of the Alt river in Roumania, running north and south through the country from the Transylvanian Alps to the Danube, is now in the hands of the Teutonic allies. In all directions the invaders are continuing to make progress, with Bucharest their main objective, daily coming nearer.

The southern and eastern drive in the Alt region has brought the Teutonic forces across the Topolog river, while to the south between Ruchi De Vede and Valeni their line has been drawn considerably nearer the Roumanian capital. Alexandria, 47 miles southeast of Bucharest, has been taken by Field Marshal Von Mackensen's troops.

HAD VIOLENT COUGHING FITS

LOOKED LIKE CONSUMPTIVE.

Mrs. Mary Wheten, North Forks, N. S., writes: "Having taken five bottles of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, during the past few weeks, to relieve a chronic cough and general throat trouble, allow me to express my unbounded satisfaction and thanks as to its sterling qualities. A short time ago I became subject to violent coughing fits at night and directly after rising in the morning. I began losing weight and all my friends cheerfully informed me that I was going into consumption.

After taking the "Dr. Wood's" I am pleased to relate that the cough has entirely disappeared and I have since regained the lost weight. I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup."

There are many imitations of "Dr. Wood's" on the market so see that none of these so-called "pine syrups" are handed out to you when you ask for "Dr. Wood's." It has been on the market for twenty-five years, is put up in a yellow wrapper, three pine trees the trade mark, price 25c. and 50c.

Manufactured only by The T. Mulburn Co., Ltd., Toronto, Ont.

Through Our Sieve

Well, who is running things?

What can the city fathers expect, after buying a "scarifier?"

Have our city councillors discovered the "purple faced press?"

Guess by the way the Kiltie officers have to go abroad so much, we'd better also call it the travellers' battalion.

Yes, the filtration plant is somewhere in the vicinity of the pumping station.

"Hen Nearly Starves." Well, most of us would have to starve before we could buy her eggs.

"Advance in Aeroplanes." The only consolation is they aren't something we have to eat.

The quality of an apple dumpling is not strained—it is twice blessed; it blesteth him that bakes and him that doth partake.

We don't kick so much at the farmers asking $3 a barrel for spuds, but they're gettin' it, darn 'em, they're gettin' it.

Sometimes a pretty woman is driven to go about with her husband simply because he is the only man who doesn't try to make love to her.
