HAUGHTON WILL PROTEST AGAINST EASON'S DECISION

President of Boston Nationals Left to Interview Pres. Tener---Claims Umpire Exceeded His Authority In Directing Maranville not to play Close to Batter.

New York, May 29—President Haughton of the Braves, is on the war-path. After seeing Umpire Mal Eason make what he considers an outrageous decision, and then attempt to cover it up by putting Maranville out of the game yesterday, he made up his mind to go to the front and find out, if he could, if such things are to go on indefinitely.

President Haughton was himself upon the spot and saw the whole thing. Immediately after the game, he called President Tener on the long distance telephone and said he wanted to see him in the New York office at nine o'clock tomorrow morning. Haughton then had barely time to catch the 5.34 train out of Boston and he came in light marching order, too, and will meet Tener promptly at nine in the morning.

None of those present at the game as spectators could make out why Maranville had been banished. Eason has of late, gotten to be about as arbitrary as Klem, who may be tamed down considerably for Haughton saw some in the west. While on his way back home he had an interview with the president of the league, which is likely to have quite an effect.

The affair of today, which culminated in the retirement of Maranville, came about in this way:

Fletcher was on second with one out when McKechnie hit a grounder which Rudolph fielded, throwing the ball to Smith to get Fletcher at third. The play was well executed all through and Smith looked to have had Fletcher out by a yard. Eason called the runner safe. Smith, Rudolph and others gave Eason quite a game of talk, but he took no action against them. Then "the Rabbit" said something.

"You get out there into your position," said Eason to Maranville.

"You stay right where you are," said Evers. "We are going to play in close on the next batter and you are in the right position where you are," which was quite the proper play with a runner on third, which they wanted to choke at the plate.

"Get out there into your position," said Eason to "the Rabbit," pointing to the deeper position at short.

"Stay right where you are," ordered Evers.

Maranville stood where he was, looking like a "simp," as he described himself, and saying nary a word.

"All right, get out of the game," said Eason, and "the Rabbit" moved over to the hutch.

Right here is where, it is figured, Mr. Wason overplayed his game. Certainly he had no right to direct the players on a ball team where they shall place themselves in the field to play for a batter.

Haughton proposes that his men shall behave themselves, but he also proposes that the umpire shall not put his club altogether to the bad by their own poor work and seeming persecution. He is over here, therefore, to tell the president of the league what he thinks and why he thinks as he does.

He will take some of his men to President Tener's office in the morning and a lot of things will be threshed out.

President Haughton did not intend to come with the club, having a lot of work to attend to in Boston, but without bag or baggage he hopped the first train out of Boston and will be on hand for the pow-wow this morning.

TRUTH AT LAST.

"Sitting up with your sick friend again, eh?" his wife inquired, sarcastically.

"Exactly, my dear."

Now, tell me the truth, is that friend really sick?"

"He's sick this time, all right. He held an ace-full against my 'sixes."

Afflicted with Lame Back
THREE YEARS AGO
COULD NOT SWEEP THE FLOOR.

Women are coming to understand that weak, lame and aching backs from which they suffer so much excruciating pain and agony are due to wrong action of the kidneys.

The kidneys are overtaxed—given more work than they can do, and when the back aches and pains it is hard for a woman to look after her household duties, for no woman can be strong and well when the kidneys are out of order.

On the first sign of any weakness in the back Doan's Kidney Pills should be taken. They go right to the seat of the trouble, cure the weak, aching back, and prevent any serious kidney trouble liable to follow.

Mrs. L. Gonslow, 683 Manning Ave., Toronto, Ont., writes: "I take great pleasure in writing you, stating the benefit I have received by using Doan's Kidney Pills. About three years ago I was terribly afflicted with lame back, and was so bad I could not even sweep the floor. I was advised to use Doan's Kidney Pills, and before I had used one box there was a great improvement, and my back was completely cured. I highly recommend 'Doan's' for lame back."

Doan's Kidney Pills are 50c per box, 3 boxes for $1.25; at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

RARE IMPUDENCE.

Atropos of the movement towards compulsory evening dress that certain expensive American restaurants have taken up, Simeon Ford, humorist and hotelier, said:

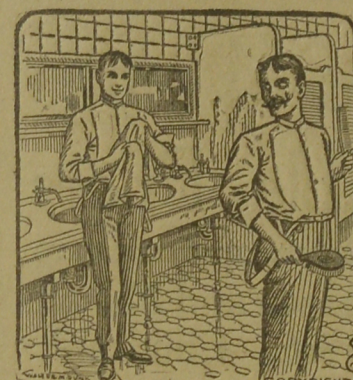

"Compulsory evening dress—being bossed by the people who serve you—this is an impertinence that the free-born American will never stand for."

"Enough impertinences are practised on us in fashionable restaurants as it is. I once saw a farmer seat himself in a smart restaurant and spread his napkin over his chest and tie the ends in a knot at the back of his neck."

"Can I get a lunch here?" he said to the waiter amiably.
The impertinent waiter answered: "Lunch, yes—but not a shampoo."
