

WESTERN MEMBER RENEWS DEMAND FOR FREE WHEAT

Ottawa, Feb. 14—Forlorn hope resolutions featured parliament today. For years the slipshod methods by which divorces are granted by the senate committee and parliament and the tremendous amount of expense involved in the securing of a decree have all combined to create in the bosom of one or more of the legislators a desire for reform of the system.

Perennially there has appeared on the order paper resolutions urging such reform and each year such resolutions have died the death at the hands of the government majority. For the second time, W. B. Northrup of East Hastings, brought the matter to the attention of the house today, and for the second time his resolution was defeated, though he succeeded in bringing it to a vote. The treasury benches voted in the formation against it. For the others, the vote was fairly well divided among the parties, the Roman Catholic members uniformly voting against the motion on religious grounds. The government had the narrowest majority it has ever had, the resolution being defeated by a vote of thirty-nine to twenty-four.

FREE WHEAT RESOLUTION.

Once again the voice of the west was heard through its representatives in the equally perennial demand for free wheat. Once again the irrefutable arguments in favor of permitting the farmer the right to sell his produce wherever he pleases were listened to by a disinterested government. And once again, by all present indications, these arguments will be cast aside and these demands refused. Hitherto the opponents of the agitation have, on all occasions when the subject was brought up in the house, been conspicuous in the corridors of the commons and in the galleries, and have carried on the most strenuous lobby imaginable. But apparently on this occasion they have been assured that they have nothing to fear, for not one of their representatives designed to grace the house with their presence, when J. G. Turritt of Assiniboia, brought the question again before parliament tonight.

"We will keep up this agitation until we get what we are after," declared Mr. Turritt and there was a deal of conviction in his voice. "And if we don't get it from this government, then some other government will come to power which will give it to us," and Mr. Turritt called attention to the fact that sixteen new members from the prairies would enter the next parliament all pledged to obtain the demands which the present representation could not get.

A STRONG CASE.

In the face of Mr. Turritt's arguments, which dealt with the difference in grades and the spread in prices existing between the two countries, the situation, as it remains today, was shown up as a fantastic incongruity and the influences which determined the government in its refusal to grant the demand appeared clear and well defined. It constituted another phase of the government's protectionist policy by which the interests of the whole farming community of Canada were subserved in order that a small group of Canadian millers might be enabled to pay less for their wheat and charge more for their flour.

The debate on this resolution did not end today and it is expected that it will be continued next Wednesday. There will be a division, when western members on the government side of the house will again be compelled to stand up against their own convictions and against the interests of their constituents at the crack of the party whip.

SOLDIERS' RIOTS.

Ottawa, Feb. 14—At the opening of the house, Sir Wilfrid Laurier asked whether the government had any information in regard to the Calgary soldiers' riots but was informed by Sir Robert Borden that no full report had been received as yet. Hon. Charles Macle asked whether the government was taking any measures to control enlisted men in districts where liquor was served. He stated that he had been informed that some twenty-five soldiers had caused a disturbance in Campbellton N.B., somewhat similar to that in Calgary.

He was informed by the prime minister that he was not aware that the disorders at Calgary had been due to liquor.

Probably there is nothing so meaningless as the kiss one woman bestows upon another, unless it is the large expansive smile of a hotel clerk.

MORE ACTIVITY IN THE BALKANS

(Canadian Press.)

London, Feb. 14—Increasing activity in the Balkans is reported from Athens. An exchange telegraph despatch filed yesterday says that following the arrival of French and British reinforcements at Saloniki, the French are again proceeding up the railway, concentrating troops as far forward as the Bulgarian frontier. The Bulgarians are said to have occupied one-third of Albania.

TWO NEW YORK MEN DEAD FROM EXPOSURE

New York, Feb. 14—A cold wave which sent the mercury down to two degrees above zero caused the death of two men from exposure here today. The rapid drop of the thermometer followed a two days snow storm. Four inches of snow fell and street and elevated traffic was badly hampered.

"I have lived in this city for more than 12 years and am well known. I suffered from Rheumatism, especially in my hands. I spent a lot of money without any good results. I have taken 'Fruit-a-tives' for 18 months now and am pleased to tell you that I am well. All the enlargement has not left my hands, and perhaps never will, but the soreness is all gone and I can do any kind of work. I have gained 35 pounds in eighteen months."

MARYSVILLE NOTES

Marysville, Feb. 14—On Wednesday afternoon, February 9th, the Methodist Parsonage was the scene of a very pretty wedding when Grace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Elder, was united in marriage to Mr. Watson Peterson. The nuptial knot was tied by the Rev. Thomas Hicks, after which the happy young couple drove to the home of the bride, where a sumptuous wedding supper was prepared. The bride and groom are very popular young couple and are followed by the best wishes of a host of friends.

Mrs. Robert Gray of Douglas, is visiting her parents, Major and Mrs. C. G. Pincombe.

Dollar Day bids fair to be a record breaker. Every woman with a dollar in this town is making preparations to be on the spot that day. The clerks will certainly be objects of pity.

The northeast storm which began Saturday night and continued throughout Sunday left the sidewalks in a bad condition but Mr. Melbourne White, who is in charge of the snowplow, soon left the roads in a passable condition and things are normal again.

To all appearance, winter has set in with a vengeance.
