SATURDAY, JULY 22, 1916

But under the circumstances I determined that the Government was right, and I determined to place at its disposal whatever influence I had with my fellow-countrymen. I have loyally supported all the war measures of the Government, have appealed to all classes of my fellow-citizens to rise to the occasion and do their share, not only in contributing money, but in the ranks by doing battle for the great cause. And I am here today for the same purpose and object, to appeal to my fellow-countrymen of all origins to do their duty, and ask all who can go to take their places amongst those who are contending for the cause of civilization on the fields of France and Flanders.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier at Brome.

BOB ROGERS HEARD FROM.

With the approach of dog days we find Hon. Bob Rogers, Premier Borden's minister of elections, doing some talking. He attended a banquet of the Manitoba Conservative Association at Winnipeg this week and delivered a characteristic speech, advance copies of which were sent to the reptile press. It was his annual offering and as usual was directed to the baser element of the party. It was not such a speech as he would dare deliver in Parliament, where somebody could reply to him, but out in Manitoba among his henchmen he feels that any old thing will pass. The Hon. Bob confined his remarks chiefly to coarse abuse of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the Liberal party. He made the rather remarkable statement that the Liberals were hurling poisonous gases at the government and were operating behind a shield of Nationalists. He forgot to say, however, that it was the Nationalists of Quebec who put the present administration into power, and that such leaders as Pelletier, Coderre and Nantel have since been rewarded with fat offices. He also forgot to say that when Premier Borden was forming his cabinet, Mr. Armand Lavergne journeyed to Ottawa by special train in order to advise with the leader in regard to the Quebec representation. We fail to find any reference in his speech to Mr. Lavergne's statement that both he and Bourassa were offered portfolios in the Borden cabinet, and declined the same.

The Honorable Bob is looked upon as the bad man of the government, and his diatribes are not taken seriously even by the men of his own party, more especially since the Manitoba debacle of a year ago. Instead of making speeches condemning the Liberals, he should be spending his spare time in an effort to keep his former colleagues, Roblin, Caldwell and Howden and his dear friend, Senator Kelly, out of the penitentiary.

UNIFORMS NOT IN THE WAR.

The Toronto Star points out that there are many people in khaki these days who are not in the war. It says: "As time goes on people grow more observant. They begin to perceive that quite too many of those who cut a dash in uniforms have no intention of cutting wire entanglements in Flanders. They want to share in the honor, thrills and enthusiasms of these war times, without taking any of the risks and dangers. They do not even go so far as to suffer the inconvenience of being inoculated and vaccinated in their country's service."

"It is necessary to discuss this matter in plain terms. There is a great difference between being a soldier in this war and merely making a pretence at it. A man does not 'do his bit' by wearing khaki while the wearing of it is the height of fashion. As one of our correspondents has put it, those who wear uniforms merely to 'keep up with the Joneses' are not serving King and country at all, but themselves only. They want to 'do their bit' in some pleasant, painless, and profitable way as near Yonge street as possible."

"There are others who claim to be 'doing their bit' making munitions, although if the facts were fairly examined it would be found that they are 'making their bit' too, drawing more money than they ever did before. Some men are essential in the producing of munitions, but as regards most of them, any other man would do as well."

The report of the Duff-Meredith Commission, which investigated the Kite charges, has been made public. While it lets Sir Sam Hughes down rather lightly, it roundly condemns Colonel John Wesley Allison, Sir Sam's guide, philosopher and friend, who saved millions to the empire by turning fuse contracts over to Yankee mushroom concerns in which he had a financial interest. The report is a complete justification of the stand taken in Parliament by Mr. F. B. Carvell, Mr. Kite and other Liberals, and will no doubt result in a large saving to Great Britain and Canada on future war contracts.

Western Town Has Serious Fire

Courtenay, B. C., July 22.—Fire, which originated in the opera house, and caused, it is believed, by defective electric wiring, swept out a large portion of the business section of Courtenay last night.

Early this morning recourse was had to dynamiting buildings to prevent the spread of the flames, and at 1.30 o'clock it was confidently believed the fire was under control and the balance of the town saved.

So far as known, no persons were injured.
