

WOMEN AS BRAVE AS THE MEN

Their Struggle Shows a Remarkable Spirit.

Talk about the bravery of men, but where can you find a finer spirit than among the half-sick women who are fighting and struggling to do their duty against the terrible odds of ill-health, and who will not give up.

One woman in every three is struggling against weakness. Most of them are not exactly sick, but, oh, how miserable!

The burden and misery of it all has its foundation in the blood, which is thin and watery. The red cells are too few. The very stream of life is reduced in vitality. Weakness and inevitable ill-health are the certain result.

Every ailing or weak woman can quickly regain her health in this very simple way. By filling the system with the nutrition that comes from rich red blood, a quick change for the better will result. To accomplish this, take two chocolate-coated Ferrozone tablets after each meal. You'll feel better immediately for the simple reason that Ferrozone renews the blood. It gives you vig, vigor, endurance, restores a tired, worn-out system very quickly.

You'll feel like new all over once you get Ferrozone working through your blood. It puts color into faded cheeks, brightens the eye, quickens the step, brings back that wonderful feeling of youth.

One of the finest things Ferrozone does is to make you eat lots and digest it as well. With keen appetite, sound sleep, strong nerves and lots of nourishing blood, you're bound to regain robust health. Any sickly girl or ailing woman that Ferrozone won't make well must be incurable. There is a secret power in Ferrozone and it is worth a trial at all events. Fifty cents per box, six for $2.50. At all dealers in medicines, or by mail from The Ferrozone Co., Kingston, Ont.

Slants Of Humor

SOLDIERS SARCASM

The cavalry instructor was lecturing severely a particular wooden-headed recruit.

"How many times have I got to tell you," he asked "never to approach horses from the rear without speaking to them? One of these days they will be kicking you on the head, and then we shall have a lot of lame horses on our hands."

Mr Blank is very wealthy and very close. An acquaintance of his met Blank's son the other day and said:

"Your father seems to have lost a good deal of money lately. The last time I saw him he was complaining and saying he must economize."

"Economize eh? Did father say where he was going to begin?"

"Yes on his table, he said."

"Then he must be going to take away the tablecloth," was the reply.

COULDN'T SMAND THEM

A well-known shipbuilder tells the following story.

"Whenever I see a toothpick I think of a dinner that was given in Rome in honor of two Turkish noblemen. I sat near the younger of the noblemen. He glittered with gold embroidery and great diamonds but nevertheless I pitied him sincerely, for he was strange to our table manners and some of his errors were both ludicrous and painful.

"Toward the end of the dinner a servant brought to the young man a plate of toothpicks. He waved the plate away.

"No, thank you," he said "I have already eaten two of the awful things. want no more."

TIME AT LAST

When a certain negro of Mobile Ala. announced his engagement to the dusky one of his choice, the congratulations that were showered upon him included a note of wonder, says the Baltimore Sun.

"Joe," said one of these friends, "I shore is suprised! We-all never thought you'd speak up. It's going on two years since you begun to call on Miss Violet."

"Dat's true," said Joe, but de fact is, old man I didn't lose my job till last night."

FIGHTING ALL ALONG THE BRITISH FRONT

London, July 5.—Reuter's correspondent at the press camp in France points out that not merely twenty miles of the main operations, but the whole ninety miles of the British front are bearing their full share of the fighting.

"So well does the enemy know this," says the correspondent, "that he dare not transfer a single gun or man from any part of the defensive between the Yser and the Somme to try to stem the southern push. From the day the British bombardment began the knell of German initiative was sounded."

An order issued to the German troops and found by British soldiers, continues the correspondent, proves it was known that the British intended to deliver their attack on July 1, and it was thought the attack would be directed between Roye and Lille.

SHOWER OF TEARS

"My wife is crying so over this plat that I guess I'll have to take her home."

"Well?" said the manager.

POPULATION FLEEING FROM LEMBERG

London, July 5.—A Budapest despatch to the Post says: Considerable numbers of the population have been fleeing from Lemberg in the last few days for Hungary and Cracow. So extensive has been the exodus that the commander at Lemberg has issued the assuring statement that Lemberg is not in danger yet. He advises the people not to leave the city.
