MORNING DES- PATCHES IN BRIEF

London, March 24.—In the French and Russian war theatres heavy battles are still in progress, but fighting is continuing in the Austro-Italian zone, in Serbia near the Greek frontier, and in Asiatic Turkey.

The French are keeping up their vigorous bombardment of the woods of Malancourt and Avoncourt, northwest of Verdun, which are held by the Germans, and also are hammering away with their guns at German lines of communication in the eastern fringes of the Argonne forest.

To the north and east of Verdun an intermittent bombardment by the Germans of French second line positions is still going on, with the French replying energetically.

The only infantry encounter along the western front took place in the Argonne forest, where the Germans gained a portion of a French first line trench, but were expelled from it by a counter-attack and lost some thirty men, taken prisoners.

All along the Russian front, from the region of Friedrichstadt to the district around Vilna, the Russians and Germans are hard at grips. Petrograd says that near Widsy, between Dvinsk and Vilna, the Russians forced all the German lines and barricades and repulsed a vigorous German counter-attack. Berlin, however, says that here the Russian attacks failed, and with heavy losses, before their German entanglements.

Bad weather prevails in the Austro-Italian theatre, but despite a blizzard the Italians have attacked and occupied Austrian positions in the Cordevole Valley.

Berlin reports that in the region of Gjevveli, on the Serbo-Greek frontier artillery duels have been in progress.
The statement does not give the nationalities of the contending batteries.

The defeat of a British force which attacked a Turkish position on the right bank of the Tigris River, near near Felahie, is chronicled by Constantinople. The report also says that Turkish airmen have again dropped bombs on Kut-el-Amara, where a British force is under siege.

ACTING PREMIER MURRAY GIVES EVASIVE ANSWERS

Government not Aware That Harry Woods And Dr. Price Interviewed Colby Before He Gave His Now Famous Affidavit-- Says Blair Did Not Ask For a Public Investigation.

Acting Premier Murray's reply to a question by Mr. Dugal in re the now famous Colby affidavit, did not elicit a great deal of information. The question and answer were:

Hon. Mr. Murray, in reply to Mr. Dugal's inquiry:

1. When did the affidavit of E. C.
Colby concerning the official conduct of an official of the Public Works Department first come to the knowledge of the Premier and the Government?

Answer—The affidavit referred to first came to the knowledge of the Premier on or about the 17th day of February last.

2. Did any member of the Legislature supporting the Government have any interviews with Mr. Colby before the affidavit was obtained?

Answer—The Government has no knowledge of any such interviews.

3. Did Mr. Blair ask for a public investigation?

Answer—Mr. Blair made no request to the government for a public investigation.

4. If so, why was it refused him?
Answered by answer to No. 3.

The Account Paid.

Hon. Mr. Morrissy, in reply to Mr.
Dugal's inquiry:

1. Royal Commissioner Chandler having reported that "Louis l'Huillier and a man named Mallet did not work on the Lameque roads at all, but cooked for a number of men who were working on the road and who lived in a shanty while the work was being done, and who paid the foreman, Jean J. Robichaud, 50 cents a day for their board"—is it the intention of the Department of Public Works to pay the amounts set opposite the names of the above persons on the pay sheet while cooking for men who were paying their board to the foreman?

Answer—All accounts for road work under J. J. Robichaud have been paid.

2. Should not these cooks be paid by the foreman and not by the Department of Public Works?

Answered by No. 1.

3. If these amounts have been paid, to whom were the cheques sent or given?

Answer—Have these cheques been returned to the Department as paid, and if so, how were they endorsed?

Answer—In all cases where possible the cheques were delivered to the parties personally, and where not possible to deliver them personally they were sent to J. J. Robichaud, the supervisor, for distribution. The cancelled cheques, which were all payable to order, have not yet been returned to the Department.

No Action Taken.

Hon. Mr. Morrissy, in reply to Mr.
Dugal's inquiry:

1. Royal Commissioner Chandler having reported that "The evidence given before me in connection with the inquiries held shows that so far as Valentine Robichaud, structural superintendent, is concerned, he did not know very much about the work supposed to be done under his superintendence, but relied entirely upon either Mr. A.

J. H. Stewart or Mr. Martin J. Robichaud to practically look after the work for him and make up his returns" —does the Government intend taking any action against these persons above mentioned in connection with the false entries on pay sheets made up by them and sworn to before them as Justices of the Peace?

Answer—The Government does not consider that the evidence taken before or the findings of Commissioner Chandler are sufficiently specific to warrant action being taken thereon.

2. The Department of Public Works having, on the report of Commissioner Chandler, dismissed the above named structural superintendent for incompetency, will the Government proceed against the persons who are named in Commissioner Chandler's report and held by him responsible, as follows:

"All the cases into which I have enquired where Valentine Robichaud was concerned proved him to be inefficient and unsatisfactory, and completely under the control of the county representatives, Messrs. Stewart and Robichaud."

Answered by No. 1.

Money Not Recovered.

Hon. Mr. Morrissy, in reply to Mr.
Dugal's inquiry:

1. Royal Commissioner Chandler having reported that "The work which is credited to Edward D. Chaisson on the Caribou Creek bridge, who at the time was a boy eleven years old, attending school, was all done by Cleophas Chaisson, to the extent of $170, and the money received by Docieth Chaisson, foreman, whose hired farm hand Cleo-phas Chaisson was"—and the evidence of Cleophas Chaisson having disclosed that he only worked on this bridge
"for half the time that is credited on the pay roll to Edward D. Chaisson," what steps does the Department of Public Works intend to take to recover the money thus fraudulently claimed and paid to Docieth F. Chaisson in the name of his son Edward?

Answer—The Royal Commissioner, so far from finding that Cleophas Chaisson only worked on this bridge
"for half the time that is credited on
the pay roll to Edward D. Chaisson," distinctly found that all this work was done by Cleophas Chaisson, using a horse and cart belonging to Docieth F.
Chaisson. The Commissioner further says: "The work was apparently done, but the reason given by Docieth Chaisson for using the name of his son in connection with this work was not a satisfactory explanation of his course."

In view of this finding, the Department of Public Works does not intend taking any steps to recover the money for work which was actually done though not paid for in the name of the person performing the work.

WILLARD-MORAN BOUT TO BE PULLED OFF TONIGHT

The Most Important Fistic Encounter which Has Taken Place Since Willard Defeated Jack Johnson Last April.

(Canadian Press)

New York, March 25.—Thirteen thousand spectators will crowd Madison Square Garden tonight to see Frank Moran of Pittsburg, try to wrest the world's heavyweight championship from Jess Willard of Kansas, although the bout is not announced as for the title and no decision by the referee is possible under the boxing laws. Moran may win the championship either by a knock out, a foul by Willard or Willard's failure to go the full length of the bout.

The fight is the most important fistic encounter which has taken place since Willard won the title from Jack Johnson at Havana last April and is the first Willard has fought since that historic battle.

No matter which way the battle goes, Willard will receive $47,500 and Moran $23,750. Moran today appears as confident as ever that he will be able to land the blow that will give him the title by a knockout.
Willard is equally certain of clinching his grip on the championship. He asserts that if Moran fights the aggressive battle which the Pittsburg fighter is said to have planned, the champion would end the bout with a knockout. No matter what Moran's tactics are, Willard is confident of victory.

The big bout is to start at 9.30 o'clock, if the program is carried out. Several preliminary bouts of other boxers will precede it.

Willard said:

"It is hard for me to say how I will win. That I will be victor is the most positive statement I can make.
Whether it will be by a knockout or by popular decision remains in doubt.
If I can win by one punch I will. If this bout were scheduled to go to a finish, I would not hesitate to say that Moran would be knocked out.
But as it is only for ten rounds, it will be ridiculous to make such a declaration."

"I am going to win as quickly as I can. I feel as well as I have ever felt before any fight of my career, if not better. I am not worrying. If Moran starts to rush the battle, I am satisfied I will knock him out."

Moran says:
"Do not be surprised if the finish of the fight comes in the seventh or eighth round. Then you will see Willard drop. Before the Havana fight, Willard was nothing to be afraid of and I don't think he is now.
I feel confident that I can take Willard's punishment. There never was

THE NEW GIRDLES.

Girdles which used to encircle mi-lady's dainty waist are not to be seen in that region this season. They have moved upward, most of them, to give the new high-waisted effect. From this high position they are apt to wander in and out of draperies, often creeping under the full skirt to tie in a part at the front or back of the hem.

One pretty girdle had three long loops falling directly under each other, and in the end of each loop was caught a full-blown pink rose. Another girdle of sulphur yellow was so completely hidden by the chiffon overwaist that one could only guess at its presence on the dress. Slowly but surely the waist line is curving in and in. The advocates of classic outlines have made a brave fight, and they are not yet beaten. Nevertheless it cannot be denied that the waists of tomorrow will be smaller than those of yesterday.
