LEONARD HAS HAD WONDERFUL BOXING RECORD

Victory Over Kilbane Largely Due to Extra Weight—Now Unapproached in His Class.

New York, July 26. — Benny Leonard, the world's lightweight champion, stands out today a glittering figure, undoubtedly one of the finest champions his class ever saw, as a result of his victory over Johnny Kilbane, king of the featherweights in three rounds at Philadelphia.

No man, lightweight or featherweight has ever been given a higher rating than Kilbane. Champion in his own class, four times he has stepped into a ring against another champion and three times he has come off victorious.

The last time was last night when he failed.

In the sum up it was a repetition of an old story — a good big man can beat a good little man; it was a repetition of the demonstration Kilbane himself staged when he gave Kid Williams, then the bantamweight champion, a beating.

Leonard's superior weight, his superior punching, and a crafty ring generalship carried the fight for him. His terrific crushing blows were too much for the great little man he defeated. Reason would predict that another bout between the two could have but one ending — another defeat for Kilbane.

Kilbane, a master at defense, a merciless punisher when his title has been threatened, was at the mercy of the lightweight king. His ring generalship might as well have been left at home; his defense might just as well have been in Honolulu; his fists were treated as if they had been a baby's blows. It was a tragedy for Kilbane, for he had beaten Welsh, the former lightweight king, and had reached the point where his friends and, doubtless himself, believed he was unbeatable in a no decision bout.

Leonard's victory stamps him with the unmistakable sign of a fighter, a delicious recovery from the lethargy the lightweight class has known for so long. Considering his victory over the featherweight king, it is hard to see where there is a lightweight now in the ring worthy of a championship match with Leonard.

Despite his defeat, Kilbane is still the featherweight champion. He was fighting out of his class, above the featherweight limit, and his place among the featherweights is unshaken. Jimmy Dunn, his manager and friend of long standing, tossed the towel into the ring to save Johnny from unnecessary punishment, when he was staggering blindly to his feet as good as out. It was the first time Dunn had ever been called upon to come to the relief of the featherweight champion.

Sets New Record.

Philadelphia, July 26. — Benny Leonard's defeat of Johnny Kilbane sees a new record for fighters.

In three months Benny has stopped three champions — Ritchie Mitchell, American lightweight title holder; Freddie Welsh, world's lightweight champion, and Johnny Kilbane, featherweight champion.

CHIEF BENDER LIVING PROOF OF OLD ADAGE

After Being Canned by the Big Leagues He Comes Back as Result of Taking Care of Himself.

There is a repetition of the old lesson, "Always mind your teacher," in the return of Chief Bender to the big leagues. The veteran was released last winter from the Phillies when Moran came to the conclusion, that the Chief had seen his best days and was on the downward grade. Bender went in sorrow. He decided that he'd do something with himself and try to "come back." He went into training this spring and pitched for several semi-professional teams in Pennsylvania. He found that he was doing pretty well and decided to apply to his old boss for the return of his job. He convinced Moran that there was still some play in him, and now he's working once more with his old team.

But here's where the lesson comes in. Connie Mack long ago told the Indian to take better care of himself physically or he'd soon be down and out. Mack was right. Bender knows better now.

TY COBB HAS BEEN DRAFTED

Ty Cobb has been notified that his number had been drawn in the military war draft, and, therefore, the king of batsmen may soon be shouldering a rifle instead of a bat. The Detroit fans and Manager Jennings are not feeling greatly perturbed at present, as Cobbs number is a high one, and there are excellent chances of him not being taken in the first draft. Besides Cobb, Heilman, Boland, Yelle, Ehmke, Cunningham and Daley have been notified.
