

WAR VETERAN SAYS:

"I have served in the British Army for 14 years, in South Africa, India and France. In my occupation of shoeing smith I have met with a great many accidents, for which I have used various remedies, but never have I used anything that can begin to compare with Zam-Buk. As a healer and preventive of blood-poisoning Zam-Buk is in a class by itself. Every soldier should carry a box of it in his pocket."

The above is an extract from a letter received from S. McIlwraith, of the 2nd Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders.

For the many injuries incidental to a soldier's life Zam-Buk is certainly invaluable. Nothing so quickly cures pain in a cut, a burn or a sprain, and for chapped hands, cold sores, chilblains and blistered feet it cannot be equalled. All dealers, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. 50c. box, 3 for $1.25.

PRESIDENT WILSON'S MESSAGE TO WORKMEN

Chief Executive Given a Great Ovation by the Delegates to the American Federation of Labor at Buffalo--People Must Stand Together Night and Day Until the War is Over.

Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 12. — President Wilson today delivered a message to the workmen of the United States in an address before the annual convention of the American Federation of Labor. His entrance to the convention hall was the signal for a tremendous ovation and cheers, from six thousand persons assembled to hear him. Samuel Gompers, president of the Federation, introduced Mr. Wilson, referring to him as "this man of destiny, spokesman for freedom, interpreter of the aims and spirit of our time, leader of thoughts and action among the nations of the earth."

Mr. Wilson began by saying he esteemed it a privilege and an honor to be present, as it seemed to him a time above all others for common counsel, "a time for drawing the energies of the nation together." The president referred to the present as a "time for critical than the world has yet known. Principle of Freedom

It was important in "this moment of counsel to remind ourselves how the war came about," he continued. "This is the last decisive issue between the old principle of power and the new principle of freedom. The war was started by Germany. Her authorities deny it, but I am willing to await the verdict of history on the statement just made.

"Germany had a place in the sun. Why was she not satisfied? What more does she want?"

The president described Germany's expansion as a nation.

"You have one answer to the question why she was not satisfied in her methods of competition," he said, telling how the government of Germany had "laid hold on industry," and controlled the competition. He said it was not only industrial control of labor, but political control as well.

The Map of Europe.

The Berlin-Bagdad railway project he said, was designed to run the force of threat down the flanks of half a dozen other nations.

In referring to the Germany's "map of Europe," the president said that "if she can keep that, she can control the world, as long as she keeps it provided the present authorities that control Germany can continue to control.

"Power cannot be used against free peoples when the power is controlled by the people," he added, a statement which the audience loudly applauded. Taking up the labor question in the United States the president said: "If we are true friends of freedom we will see that power and productivity of the country shall be at kept at the maximum. Nobody shall be allowed to stand in the way. The government will not keep them from doing this, but the spirit of the American people will.

"We must stand together night and day until the war is over," said the president, adding that "while we are fighting for freedom we must ensure the freedom of labor."

The president concluded by saying: "I am with you if you are with me," explaining that he did not mean he wanted co-operation with himself personally, but as the representative of the whole United States government.

BRENNAN LET CHANCES PASS

New York, Nov. 12. — Bill Brennan lost a golden opportunity at the Harlem Sporting club by allowing over-anxiety to get the better of sound ring judgment when he had three or four opportunities to floor Jim Coffey in the second round of their 10-round fight, yet allowed Jim to escape. By the most desperate sort of fighting, Coffey held Brennan to a draw.

WILL TRY TO REVIVE MAGEE

Christy Mathewson can't believe that Lee Magee has permanently "gone back," and is very anxious to try his hand in making the former star "come back." He wants him for his Cincinnati club.

The sound life is one that in at least some portion of it has been rebuilt.

Enlist Your Kitchen in the War!

"The kitchen must help as well as the workshop and the trenches"

Mr. Lloyd George has said it!

What does he mean?

He means you must know and practice real thrift—make every dollar you spend on food serve your family and your country. Banish those things which are wasteful and substitute real foods. Lovers of tea and coffee must realize that these beverages are in no sense of the word food, but merely pleasant, slightly stimulating drinks, which, by the way, are soaring in price!

Thrift Suggests Serving Cocoa

It is a scientific fact that a cup of Cowan's Perfection Brand Cocoa contains more actual food value than a cup of beef extract, bouillon, or chicken soup.

Economies like Cowan's Cocoa render the diet more delightful, while saving money. And the saving effected in household expenses will enable you to help win the war another way—by Purchasing War Certificates!

For $21.50 you can buy at your nearest bank or

Post office a War Savings Certificate for which in 3 years' time the Government will refund $25.00.

Remember every food economy you practice helps to defend the brave boys at the front.

Cowan's Perfection Brand Cocoa can be purchased from all good dealers throughout Canada. Economy also suggests your choice of Cowan's Maple Buds, Queen's Dessert, or Milk Chocolate Bars as the ever welcome confections.

Ask for Cowan's ACTIVE SERVICE Chocolate; just what our soldiers in the trenches appreciate. Specially manufactured to meet their needs.

AMATEURS CANNOT ACCEPT JOBS AFTER THIS

Eastern Canada Amateur Hockey Association will Try to Bar Manufacturing Leagues.

Montreal, Nov. 12. — It is said that when the Canada Amateur Hockey Association meets next week, the body that is supposed to control amateur hockey in this district, which includes Ottawa, an attempt will be made to have manufacturing leagues barred.

The hockey managers are up against the same thing that has caused so much trouble in soccer, the robbing of the real amateur clubs of their star players on the part of the manufacturing clubs, by means of the offer of large salaries if they will join certain manufacturing concerns.

Not only that, but these manufacturing clubs which in at least some cases compel every man employed by the firm represented by the club to make a monthly contribution for sporting purposes, control large amounts of money which makes it impossible for any purely amateur clubs of young men with perhaps the exception of such as Laval, McGill and M.A.A.A., which have financially strong organizations to back them, to compete with the others.

RING NOTES.

Stanley Yoakum has evidently recovered from his recent auto accident for he has signed to meet Eddie Moy in South Bethlehem, Pa., Larry Hanson at Allentown Thursday night and Stanley Willis at Reading, Pa., Nov. 21.

Jess Willard is due to return to Chicago in a couple of days, and Tom Jones, his deposed manager, is going to seek an interview with him. Jones claims that Willard owes him something. He is likely to get frosty welcome.

Mike Gibbons and Packey McFarland, who are boxing instructors at government camps, will give a 10-round exhibition on Thanksgiving Day at Waco, Texas, for the benefit of the soldiers' fund.

Johnny Ertle has agreed to meet Kid Williams in Baltimore the latter part of this month.

EDDIE SHEVLIN STILL HOLDS N. E. TITLE

Alger, Who Challenged Him, Lost Twelve Round Bout at Boston—Minor Bouts of Interest.

Boston, Nov. 12. — Eddie Shevlin of the navy is still the welterweight champion of New England. The other night at the Commercial A. C., he defeated George Alger, challenger, in their 12-round bout. It was a hard-fought contest, with Alger the aggressor.

Shevlin used both hands well and did some fine blocking. He drove some stiff right-hand uppercuts to the chin in the clinches. Alger got in several rights and lefts to Shevlin's face and jaw. The decision was approved by the fans.

Billy Meyers met Walter Bartlett on a minute's notice in the semi-final and although he lost the decision he gave Bartlett a tough battle for 10 rounds.

Young Rose, the Gloucester amateur featherweight, made his debut as a pro, meeting Charlie Miller in one of the preliminaries. Miller had a big advantage in weight, but Rose made a good showing, although declared the loser. In the other six-round bout Johnny Buckley bested Young Chodo.

Tommy Robson and Fred Dyer will meet in the feature bout at the club next Friday night. The fans chipped in $159.80 for the war community fund.

MIKE QUINN ON THE N. H. A.

Quebec, Nov. 12. — Mike Quinn, former president of the Quebec Hockey club, had little to say about Saturday's meeting, when questioned yesterday. "Things are in much the same position as ever," he remarked. "There really is nothing much to add to the report from Montreal regarding the quitting of the N.H.A., but in a day or so, possibly later, developments may be looked for."

It is likely that Canadiens, Wanderers, Ottawa and Quebec will reorganize and play out a triple schedule, unless Quebec should back out, though Mr. Quinn would not say anything regarding future plans.

MILE RUNNER IS AVIATOR

Joe Stout, the Chicago University track captain in 1916, who last summer was credited with a mile trial on the Chicago Speedway's near-straight-away board track in 4m. 11 2-5s., with the veteran trainer, Tom Eck, holding one of the watches, is very naturally a "flier." Stout has just enlisted in the United States Aviation Corps, and has gone to San Francisco for his training.
