HON. MR. CARVELL'S MESSAGE.

Hon. Mr. Carvell's manifesto to the electors of Carleton and Victoria counties has the right ring to it. It is the message of a statesman who has laid aside party politics for the time being and is giving the best service that is in him to the state at a time of national crisis. After referring to the events that led up to the formation of a union cabinet, and his acceptance of office in the same, Hon. Mr. Carvell says:

"If elected I will not only give my whole energy to the great object for which this government was constituted, but also, so far as my department is concerned, and so far as my opinion may prevail with my colleagues, the affairs of this country will be run upon a business basis such as never existed heretofore. Patronage committees and appointments to offices and other necessary functions of government will be divided between both political parties in an equitable manner as it is possible. In other words, I intend to practice in office what, for the past six years, I have been preaching in opposition."

New Brunswick is most fortunate in being represented in the union cabinet by a gentleman of Hon. Mr. Carvell's recognized ability and long political experience. He is one of the outstanding figures in Canadian public life, and the electors of Carleton and Victoria should appreciate the great honor that has been conferred upon their constituency. They should also be glad to have their affairs in such capable hands.

A REAL CANADIAN.

The London Times pays a graceful tribute to the late Major Talbot Papieneau, the French-Canadian officer recently killed in action. It says:

"His loss will be severely felt in England, where he had many friends, but most of all in Canada, where he was widely known and beloved. Although he had not at the outbreak of the war entered a regular political career, he had acquired considerable reputation as a man of sincere and independent views, destined to take a leading part in the political development of the Dominion. Major Papieneau was not an Imperialist in the ordinary sense. He was first and foremost a Canadian, but utterly opposed to Little Canadianism, as represented by his uncle, Bourassa. While jealous of any policy which would fetter in formal bonds the free development of Canada, he had the imagination to feel the magic of the Imperial idea, and see Canada, in her place in the larger scheme."

W. F. O'Connor, general returning officer, has sent the following telegram to all returning officers in the Dominion: "The Prime Minister has directed me to communicate to you the government's earnest desire that, in appointing enumerators, deputy returning officers and poll clerks, persons commanding the confidence of the community should be selected; that just representation should be given to all political parties, including Labor, and that women should be recognized by appointment to such election offices as, considering the nature of the duties to be performed, are likely to be acceptable to them and unlikely to subject them to unpleasantness."

Political changes have certainly come thick and fast in New Brunswick during the past few weeks. He would have been a bold man who a few weeks ago would have predicted that Hon. Dr. Pugsley would today be Lieutenant-Governor of the province, Hon. J. D. Hazen Chief Justice and Hon. F. B. Carvell Minister of Public Works. Just here it might be said that it is doubtful if any province in Canada can, on the spur of the moment, trot out three men who have given more efficient service to the country.

Within forty-eight hours an official announcement can be expected of the placing of American orders in Canada for shells to the value of $50,000,000. Prominent Canadian manufacturers and members of the Imperial Munitions Board, including Sir Joseph Flavelle, have returned from Washington, where they completed the necessary arrangements.

AT HOME HERE.

Lieutenant Governor Pugsley, who arrived last evening to be sworn in and attend a meeting of the government, is being warmly congratulated on his appointment. His Honor received his university training here, and his professional and political career extending over a period of forty years, brought him into close contact with this city. "It is like home to me," was the remark he made last evening to friends in response to their congratulations.

Mr. J. B. Hachey, ex-M. P. P., nominated two years ago as the Conservative candidate in Gloucester for the House of Commons, has thrown up the sponge. He announces himself a supporter of the union government, and believes that politics should be eliminated from the coming contest.

One feature of union government which should commend itself to all patriotic citizens is that the has, in a time of national peril, placed the responsibility of administering the affairs of the country on the shoulders of men of both of the great political parties.

Those who "togged up" to see the new Governor sworn in must have had the wind taken out of their sails when they found His Honor wearing a plain business suit.

It might be said in passing that the new Lieutenant-Governor and the new Chief Justice are both graduates of old U. N. B.

The Tammany Tiger is still quite an active old chap.

Through Our Sieve

Victory bonds vs. German bondage.

Often the something we get for nothing costs a lot.

People who find a hobby beneficial might try collecting Victory bonds.

What we want is food conservation along with food conversation.

For men must trench and women retrench—so runs the war along.

Along about this time you'll meet the pessimist who expects the river to freeze tomorrow night.

In courting a woman, an ounce of audacity is worth a pound of discretion.

The hand that rocked a cradle now often rocks a flivver down a country road.

If you can't serve, at least you can conserve. In times of war a necessity is a luxury and a luxury is a crime.

Among the war-time extravagances, says Ivorydome, is keeping a gill of molasses in the gallon jug and a quarter-lb. of sugar in a barrel.

When a man boasts that his wife agrees with him, it is sometimes because he has a clever little way of finding out what she thinks first.

It is strange how many ornaments a woman puts around her neck that would amuse the baby if she held one, but the woman who wears the most interesting never holds one.

AWFUL ATTACKS OF HEART TROUBLE

Eased by Second Dose of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

One of the first danger signals announcing something wrong with the heart is the irregular beat or violent throb. Often there is only a fluttering sensation, or an "all-gone" sinking feeling, or again you may experience a smothering sensation, gasp for breath and feel as though about to die. In such cases the action of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills in quieting the heart, restoring its normal beat and imparting tone to the nerve centres, is, beyond question, marvelous.

Mrs. Frank Areseneau, Newcastle, N. B., writes: "I had awful attacks of heart trouble for the past five or six years, and as I had tried many kinds of medicine without getting any better, I decided to give Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills a trial, and to my surprise I found ease from the second dose. I continued taking them until I had used six boxes, and now I feel as well as can be."

At present my sister is taking them for nervousness, and finds great comfort by their use."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

HON. W. PUGSLEY SWORN IN AS LIEUT. GOV.

Impressive Ceremony in the Assembly Chamber—Chief Justice McKeown Administered Oath.

In the Assembly Chamber of the Legislative buildings in which for many years he sat as a member of the Legislature, attorney general and premier, Hon. William Pugsley of Rothesay last night was sworn in as lieutenant governor of the province. The ceremony although simple was very impressive and was attended by a large number. An informal reception followed.

Shortly after nine o'clock His Honor entered from the Speaker's room, attended by Lieut. Col. J. L. McAvity, A. D. C., and Mr. R. S. Barker, private secretary. The assemblage arose to its feet and remained standing until the ceremony was completed. His Honor stood in front of the table at the foot of the thorne, his staff, Hon. Robert Murray, provincial secretary, and Mr. R. W. L. Tibbits, deputy provincial secretary, standing beside him. Mr. Rodolphe L. Boudreau, secretary of the privy council, Ottawa, who arrived here yesterday afternoon, at once proceeded to read the commission of the date of November 6th appointing Hon. Mr. Pugsley to office. The new governor then in a clear voice swore allegiance to His Majesty. The oath of office was then administered by Chief Justice H. A. McKeown and the record of Secretary Boudreau was signed by the new chief officer of New Brunswick.

Members of Government.

All members of the provincial government with the exception of Hon. J. P. Tweeddale, minister of agriculture, who is out of the province, were present at the ceremony. Hon. Wm. Currie, Speaker, also was present. Deputy heads of departments and other officials also attended. A military touch was given by the presence of Major W. J. Osborne and the other officers of "K" Unit, M.H.C.C.

Mrs. Pugsley was not present at the ceremony.

Informal Reception.

The formalities of the administration of the oath were followed by an informal reception, those present being presented to His Honor. This very pleasant feature of the inauguration of Lieut. Governor Pugsley enabled many to make the acquaintance of the new governor whose urbanity and courtesy especially fit him for the office. Many old friends took the opportunity to heartily congratulate him.

Rowan's orchestra furnished music during the reception. The Assembly Chamber was beautifully decorated with palms. The arrangements connected with the ceremony were made by Mr. G. Y. Dibblee, clerk assistant of the House of Assembly.

Those Present.

Hon. W. E. Foster, Hon. C. W. Robinson, Hon. W. F. Roberts, Hon. P. J. Veniot, Hon. J. P. Byrne, Hon. Robert Murray, Hon. E. A. Smith, and Hon. L. A. Dugal of the provincial government, and Hon. Wm. Currie, Speaker of the House, had positions of honor during the ceremony.

Among those present were the Earl and Countess of Ashburnham, R. B. Wallace, J. W. Spurdun, C. F. Chestnut and Miss Chestnut, Dr. and Mrs. H. V. B. Bridges, Major and Mrs. S. F. A. Wainwright, Rev. G. M. Young, Dr. W. C. Crockett, M. P. P., Hon. O. S. Crockett and Mrs. Crockett, Hon. W. B. Chandler, Hon. J. H. Barry, Very Rev. Dean Neales, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McMullen, Dr. C. C. Jones, J. S. Neill, Lt. Col. T. G. J. Loggie, G. N. C. Hawkins, Wm. Cruikshank, M. G. Teed, K. C., A. R. Wetmore, Herbert Maxwell, Dr. T. C. Allen, K. C., A. A. Sterling, Deputy Mayor Walker, L. C. Macnutt, Peter Hughes, E. S. Carter, John Williams, James Robinson, ex-M. P., Capt. T. R. McNally, C. O. Foss, G. Y. Dibblee, Walter Limerick, Sheriff Hawthorne, Mrs. W. T. Whitehead, J. M. Stevens, K. C., Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hanson, Hon. W. P. Jones, K. C., Mrs. W. E. Foster, Rev. W. D. Wilson, Peter J. Hughes, Mrs. W. C. Crockett.

The mangrove of the south from Florida to the mouth of the Mississippi is a curious plant not closely related to any other genus, but somewhat approaching the myrtle family and is a plant of unusual interest.

Good Bye, Old Time Melodrama!

"Sorry to see you go, but the new melodrama is here—THE FIGHTING TRAIL." Greater Vitaphone's Duncan-Holloway Serial. The motto on the old home hasn't a chance in this, the only kind of melodrama that goes in that of brand new thrills and sensations. And there are dozens of 'em in every episode. William Duncan and Carol Holloway risk their necks two dozen times in THIS serial and THAT'S what we call melodrama! Stunts that amaze and curiosity. Be sure to see it.

"CASCARETS" FOR A COLD, BAD BREATH OR SICK HEADACHE

Best for liver and bowels, for biliousness, sour stomach and constipation.

Get a 10-cent box now.

Furred Tongue, Bad Colds, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret tonight will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then to keep their stomach, liver and bowels regulated, and never know a miserable moment. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.
