MYSTERIOUS GERMAN VESSEL OFF BRAZIL

(Canadian Press direct wire.)

Buenos Aires, Dec. 27. — Brazilian newspapers received here today are filled with accounts of the movements of a German corsair off the Brazilian coast a few weeks ago. The newspapers assert that the mysterious vessel was identified as a German, and that it unloaded an immense cargo of heavy cases at Carqueira and Armacao. Several days later the steamer returned to Armacao with additional cargo, which the newspaper accounts say it is believed she received from a larger ship out of sight of land. From The locked antlers.

IN September and October during the rutting season, the hunter occasionally hears the sounds of terrific combat between those giants of the forest, the bull moose. With their formidable antlers these huge creatures can snap a young birch tree like a piece of matchwood, and although it is only rarely that the bull moose will attack a man, if he does so the man has little chance unless he is quick with his high-powered rifle. The other day on St. Ignace Island, twenty-one miles south of Rossport, on the C. P. R., a pair of locked moose horns was found as the tragic record of a combat. They had evidently been fighting when the antlers became entangled and, unable to extricate each other the two animals died there of starvation, their Armacao the vessel proceeded to Calcutta where another portion of the cargo was unloaded.

These ports are not guarded and it is asserted that the cargoes landed were mysteriously smuggled away. Later the German vessel was sighted close to shore at San Pedro de Aldera, where two persons are now under arrest as a result of their relations with the crew. They were charged with being spies.

The newspapers say she disappeared as mysteriously as she came and that Brazilians believe she brought supplies for a submarine base.
