Slants of Humor

REVISED.

A wet sheet and a flowing sea,
A wind that follows fast,
And fills the white and rustling sail
And bends the gallant mast;
And bends the gallant mast, my boys,
While like the eagle free—
High overhead a Zeppelin
Is buzzing like the d!

"O for a fair and gentle wind!"
I heard a fair one cry;
But give to me the snorting breeze,
And white waves heaving high.
And white waves heaving high, my boys,
Our good ship tight and free—
We found six bombs down in the hold,
And chucked 'em in the sea!

There's tempest in yon horned moon,
And lightning in yon cloud;
But hark the music, mariners,
The wind is piping loud!
The wind is piping loud, my boys,
The lightning flashes free—
Great Scott! Just aft the weather beam
A periscope I see!

ON HIS DIGNITY.

Ben was ten years old and thought it altogether ridiculous to be treated as a baby any longer. His father had a lawyer friend who did not seem to have arrived at this knowledge of Ben's growth and so usually addressed him in the same way in which he had spoken to him five years ago.

"Well, how's my little man today?" he asked.

Ben sat down and looked in the opposite direction, having spoken to the gentleman as he came in. The man repeated his question and then Ben answered:

"Indeed, Mr. Smith, I have not seen your little man and would not know him if I saw him."

"Ben," his father thundered, "why don't you answer Mr. Smith politely when he asks about your health?"

"Oh, I beg your pardon," said Ben in a very dignified voice. "I am very well, thank you."

But Mr. Smith discovered at last that Ben was grown up.

GIRLS! GIRLS! TRY IT! STOP DANDRUFF AND BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR

HAIR STOPS FALLING OUT AND GETS THICK, WAVY, STRONG AND BEAUTIFUL.

Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a "Danderine hair cleanse." Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through it your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt and excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. Besides beautifying the hair at once

Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair. But what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair and lots of it, surely get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug-

A Vote for Laurier is a Vote for Delay

THE final results of this election will not be known until February, because of the time it will take to obtain the soldiers' vote.

Suppose for a minute that enough people support Sir Wilfrid Laurier in his policy to defeat the cause of Union.

It would take a month to get the old administration out and the new one in. That will bring us to March---and our New Brunswick boys still fighting it out alone, still waiting for the promised help.

It would take until June to get the necessary legislation to take a referendum to decide whether we shall send help to our men or desert them. And still the men of our New Brunswick battalions will be fighting and waiting.

And it would take until October to know the result of the referendum. "Delay! delay! delay!" cried out Lloyd George, and awakened Britain.

Vote for Union and Vote to Fight

But a vote for Union means a vote to fight, a vote to send help to your men over there, a vote to maintain your honor.

The issue is clear—will the loyalist people of New Brunswick vote for Laurier's Liberals and fatal delays, or will they vote in ringing tones to fight this thing through and stand by the men in France to a finish.

"Election means just one thing—you are either going to send men to back up the Canadians, or you are not."
