CONFEDERATION A SUCCESS.

The Halifax Morning Chronicle, a paper which in the old days warmly supported Hon. Joseph Howe in his opposition to the union of the Canadian provinces, publishes an interesting editorial on Canada's Jubilee, in which it admits that Confederation has been a success. In summing up, it says:

"So far as Nova Scotia is concerned what have the people of this Province to say in glancing back over fifty years of Confederation? Are they glad or sorry that Nova Scotia was forced into the Union? They know what their fathers thought, how they felt, how they struggled against fate? How many today really feel or are prepared to express regret that the men of 1867 failed in their efforts to keep this province out of Confederation?"

"Speaking for ourselves, and we believe for nearly the whole present population of Nova Scotia, we have no hesitation in saying that, after a half-century's experience we are well satisfied to be Canadians. Confederation has not only given us a country of sufficient extent and resources for our requirements, present and future, of which we are justly proud; but infinitely more important, it has made us a component part of a great and promising nation instead of isolated provincials with no broad outlook on the outer world of men, and none but the most circumscribed prospects at home. Nova Scotia has taken a commanding position in the Dominion, which has taken a commanding position in the Empire, because both have deserved what they have won. There is no limit to our future national and Imperial possibilities, if only we to ourselves and our country are true.

"Happy are they who, being old enough to remember tomorrow, can look forward to comparing it with the close of Canada's first century fifty years hence."

THE SASKATCHEWAN ROUT.

The sweeping Liberal victory in Saskatchewan furnishes fresh evidence of the fact that Toryism is defunct in the great west. The Regina Leader, the principal Liberal newspaper in the province, appraises the overwhelming verdict of the people, as shown by the large majorities secured by the government members, as of far-reaching significance. Not only have the electors endorsed the record of the Liberal government of Saskatchewan; they have, the Leader affirms, "in thunder tones informed Ottawa that they are as determined as ever to fight to the bitter end for lower tariffs, freer trade, wider markets and those other things set forth in Saskatchewan's Bill of Rights."

"At the same time," the Leader significantly adds, "they have served notice on the Conservative party in Saskatchewan that they do not, and never will, countenance such political methods and campaign tactics as have been employed by that party during recent years. If the rank and file of the Conservative party do not take the lesson of yesterday's voting to heart, and rising in their might, eliminate from control of their party organization the men who now are in command, they will find themselves suffering the same crushing defeat in future elections that was inflicted upon them yesterday. Saskatchewan must and will have clean politics, and until the Conservative party recognizes this fact and conducts itself accordingly, it is doomed to remain in the cold shades of opposition, if, indeed, it does not suffer absolute annihilation.

"The Liberals have achieved a great victory. They possess the confidence of the people to an unparalleled extent. It imposes a great responsibility upon them and they must, in order to prove themselves worthy of the great trust reposed in them, exert themselves to the utmost and give Saskatchewan to an even greater extent than in the past, sound, progressive and efficient administration."

Many old friends throughout York County and along the Miramichi will learn with keen regret of the death at the death at the Victoria Hospital last night of ex-Warden John Hinchey, of Parker's Ridge. The deceased was for many years a prominent figure in municipal politics, having represented thing which could be done was to visit the site.

Coun. Alex. Brewer said that he had been waited upon by a delegation of those opposing the proposition to locate the poor farm in the new town and he hoped they would appear before the council.

The motion to visit the site at 1 p. m. was carried.

Report on Legislation.

Coun. Reynolds presented the report of the Special Committee on Legislation to the effect that the appointment of a non-ratepayer as auditor was legalized for 1917, but that after that date a resident must be appointed. Other matters were touched upon in this report which were passed.

Ex-Warden Hinchey.

The following resolution on the death of Ex-Warden Hinchey was passed on the motion of Coun. Douglas, seconded by Coun. Brewer:

"Whereas, we learn with the deepest regret that John Hinchey, Esq., for many years a valued member of this Council and a former Warden of the Municipality, departed this life this morning at the Victoria Public Hospital after a lingering illness;

"Therefore resolved, that this Council place on record an expression of regret at the great loss sustained by the county in the death of Mr. Hinchey and extend to the family its sincere sympathy in their great bereavement. This Council also wishes at the same time to record its appreciation of the valuable public services rendered by Mr. Hinchey as the representative of the large and important Parish of Stanley. His never failing good nature, his practical knowledge of agriculture and lumbering, our foremost industries, made his advice and assistance of great value to those who were his colleagues as well as his municipality as a whole; and

"Resolved that the members of this Council meet at a place to be appointed at 5.30 o'clock this afternoon for the purpose of following the remains to the railway station; and

"Further resolved, that a copy of this resolution be entered upon the minutes of the council, and a copy forwarded by the Secretary to members of the family of the late Mr. Hinchey."

Coun. Alexander Brewer made a brief address in which he referred to the good qualities of the deceased and the appropriateness of the fact that he had passed away in the Victoria Public Hospital of which institution he had been a staunch friend.

Potatoes Plentiful.

It looks as if potatoes would be a drug on the market before many days. A large quantity was brought to the market this morning and were disposed of with difficulty at $4 per barrel. One man had a wagon load which he was unable to sell. Before leaving he offered them to a friend to sell and instructed him to take $2 a barrel for them. The offer was not accepted.

the Parish of Stanley at the Council Board. In his younger days he carried on extensive lumbering operations on the Miramichi, and was widely known and highly respected in that section. By his death the County of York loses a worthy citizen who both in his private capacity and in public life had rendered good service to his fellow men.

EX-WARDEN HINCHEY.

Hinchey fully recovered from the effects of the terrible combat.

The late Mr. Hinchey took a warm interest in public affairs and was several times elected to the County Council by the Parish of Stanley, and for one term held the higher office of warden. He also in his time filled several parish offices in a satisfactory manner. In politics he was a staunch Liberal.

Municipal Home.

The council thereupon unanimously passed the following resolution:

"Whereas, the County Council of York deem it necessary to have a Municipal Home for the caring of its aged and poor, and

"Whereas, a commission has been appointed to look into the matter, and

"Whereas, the sum of six thousand dollars was pledged for this purpose and having carefully investigated the matter they find that it would be more profitable to expend a larger amount so that they might have a more suitable home, they ask for a pledge of support of the different parties concerned; therefore

"Resolved, that we, the town council of Marysville pledge our support and that we have a representation on the board of directors and that we have an allotted share in the said home."
