HON. MR. FIELDING.

The Toronto Globe, a Liberal paper which is supporting union government, pays the following well deserved tribute to Hon. W. S. Fielding, who was yesterday returned by acclamation for Queens-Shelburne, N. S., as a Liberal-Unionist:

"Hon. W. S. Fielding has been nominated by Liberal friends in his old constituency in Nova Scotia as a supporter of Union government and the Military Service Act. Among Liberals everywhere in Canada Mr. Fielding's name inspires respect and carries unusual weight. They are grateful for his services for his party as the faithful parliamentary lieutenant and chief reliance of Sir Wilfrid Laurier during his entire Liberal regime from 1896 to 1911. Canada never had a more devoted and upright public servant. His return to parliament would be a gain to the country, and the government, in its own interest ought to facilitate the election of so powerful a recruit. Like the majority of representative Maritime Liberals, Mr. Fielding cannot follow his old leader in opposition to the policy of immediately replenishing the Canadian infantry reserves. His willingness to re-enter public life as a supporter of Union government is a rebuke to those who cavil at the motives of Liberal members of the administration. No Liberal need apologize for being in Mr. Fielding's political company. The impulses which are moving strong party men to subordinate all other issues to the claims of the war on the honor, the manhood and the strength of the country are among the most hopeful signs of the times. They constitute a moral force which is going to keep Canada true to her obligations and spare her the reproach of history."

NOMINATION DAY.

The nomination of candidates for the Federal Parliament made throughout Canada yesterday indicate that there will be a stiff fight all along the line. Notwithstanding the fact that the Liberal organization was considerably broken up by the formation of a union government, candidates pledged to support Sir Wilfrid Laurier are in the field in almost every constituency. This would not have been possible without the aid of a strong public sentiment. The number of elections by acclamation is less than ten per cent., a much smaller number than was generally expected. In Ontario, which is supposed to be the stronghold of the union government, in only one constituency, Stormont and Glengarry, was a candidate returned unopposed, and he is a Liberal Unionist.

In Quebec nine candidates, all Laurier Liberals, are returned unopposed. The number includes Hon. Dr. Beland, former Postmaster General, who is now a prisoner of war in Germany.

It is generally admitted that many of the Unionist candidates in Quebec have little chance of winning.

In the Maritime Provinces the only candidate to secure an election by acclamation is Hon. W. S. Fielding, who is returned as a unionist in Queens-Shelburne. The Conservatives had planned to oppose Hon. Mr. Fielding, but were persuaded by Premier Borden to allow him to be returned without a contest.

In the province of Saskatchewan four unionist candidates are reported to be returned unopposed. In Alberta, Manitoba and British Columbia, where union sentiment is supposed to be strong, there is a contest in every riding.

Polling takes place on December 17, four weeks from yesterday. This will allow ample time for the candidates to get around and explain the issues to the electors. The contest promises to be one of the bitterest since Confederation.

An eloquent speech delivered by Sir Lomer Gouin, the Liberal Prime Minister of Quebec, to the members of the Victory Loan Committee at the Windsor Hotel, Montreal, a few days ago, has attracted a good deal of attention. Here is what he said, among other things:

"When you are asked to contribute to this loan, I ask you to think of the Princess Patricia and the other magnificent regiments which have brought such renown to Canada, and the 22nd, which has fought so gallantly on many a field, whose names will in future be inscribed in letters of gold on the escutcheon of Canada. When asked to contribute to this loan, think of Ypres, Festubert, Courcellette and those other battles made glorious by the sacrifice of our Canadian sons."

Brockville Recorder: The death of Captain T. M. Papineau is deeply regretted. He was a brilliant son of Canada and a native of the province of Quebec. He was a noted educationist and early in the war enlisted in the Canadian forces to fight the Hun. He was a cousin of Bourassa, of Tory-Nationalist fame. A year ago he wrote a scathing rebuke to the Tory-Nationalist over the propagation of nefarious principles. The late Captain T. M. Papineau was a great admirer of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and a great protagonist of the unholy Borden-Sevigny alliance. He has paid the supreme sacrifice in the support of cherished principles, and has died that humanity might live.

The report of the Royal Commission appointed by the Borden government to investigate the bacon profits, showed that the William Davis Packing Co. and the Matthews-Blackwell Company reaped a profit of 80 per cent on bacon sold to the Imperial government for the use of the army. Sir Joseph Flavelle, who once said "to hell with profits," is the head of the William Davis Company. He is also chairman of the Imperial Munitions Board. No time should be lost in having him removed from the latter position.

The fact that a number of prominent Liberals signed Colonel McLeod's nomination papers, and the absence therefrom of many names of prominent Conservatives, is an indication that there are a good many electors in this section who do not regard the fight in York-Sunbury as a party contest.

Mr. J. K. Pinder, M. P. P., was in the city yesterday, but it seems that he did not make the trip, as some thought, with the object of attaching his signature to Col. McLeod's nomination papers.

Buy a victory bond!

One good bond deserves another.

And when you get a Victory Bond hang on to it like grim death.

Isn't it queer how long some people can talk about nothing?

Things you can't explain are generally none of your business anyway.

The pocket money of most women comes out of some man's pocket.

Mrs. O'Hevens reports that one of the eggs she cooked for breakfast must have been laid by a German hen.

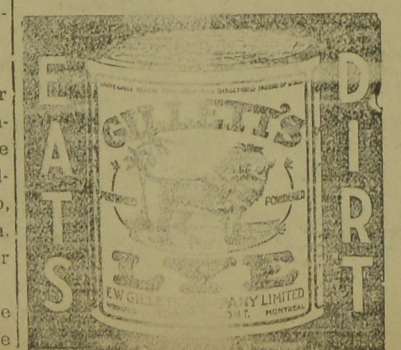

Two new ways to end the war have been proposed. The best way still remains, namely, to wallop the invaders on the western front.

The big revolt came when the simple-minded Russians discovered that a provisional government has nothing to do with provisions.

The Turks are strong for sweets—and they are now paying a dollar a pound for sugar—and there isn't any sugar. Hence those sour phizzes under the fezzes.

Deserter Was Arrested. Archie Jones of this city, was arrested last night by the local police on a charge of drunkenness. He also is wanted as a deserter from the Forestry Unit. He was before the police court this afternoon and pleaded guilty of drunkenness. He was remanded.

Fined Eighteen Dollars. The local man arrested Sunday night for being drunk was fined eighteen dollars yesterday afternoon and paid the fine.

COMPLAINS OF EXEMPTIONS

(Canadian Press direct wire.) Toronto, Nov. 20. — "If the exemption tribunals in the province of Quebec keep on exempting men at the rate they have been exempting them it will be little short of a farce," declared Archdeacon Cody in the course of an address last night to the Irish Protestant Society at the Normal school. "In the interest of Quebec as well as in the interest of the Dominion, I hope and pray that the leaders of Quebec will not do dishonor to the ancient name and fame of those who came of gallant French stock."

Had Liquor on Him. A local man was arrested last night on the charge of drunkenness. Liquor was found in his possession at the time of his arrest. This constitutes an offense under the prohibition measure. This afternoon he was convicted of being drunk and having liquor in his possession. For the first offense the penalty was a fine of eight dollars or thirty days in jail and for the other a fine of fifty dollars or three months in jail.

Evidence Concluded. Evidence was concluded in the case of Mrs. William Belyea yesterday afternoon and she was remanded for judgment.

Skating Has Begun. Skating has begun. Ponds at Wilmet Park and other places are frozen over and the ice is strong enough to permit skating.

SAYS THE DRUG IS AN EITHER COMPOUND

Just a few drops loosens any corn so it lifts out without pain.

You simply say to the drug store man, "Give me a quarter of an ounce of freezone." This will cost very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn from one's feet.

A few drops applied directly upon a tender, aching corn should relieve the soreness instantly, and soon the entire corn, root and all, can be lifted out with the fingers without pain.

This new drug called freezone is an ether compound discovered by a Cincinnati man, who says that while freezone is sticky it dries in a moment, and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin.

Don't let father die of infection or lockjaw from whitening his corns, but cut this out and make him try it.
