THE DAILY MAIL, FREDERICTON, N. B., MONDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1917

Mackinaw Time

Good, Warm, Heavy Mackinaw Coats, the kind that makes the wearer feel like shaking hands with himself when the thermometer slumps away below zero.

Can now be had in the Norfolk style in Grey, Brown, Cardinal, Blue and Green plaids $7.75 to $11.50.

Boy's Mackinaw Coats made of same high grade material. Sizes 28 to 35, $7.75.

Peter Farrell & Co.

AGENTS FOR PROGRESS MADE-TO-MEASURE CLOTHING.

IVORY CREAM

Something you have been looking for. Imparts a beautiful lustre to lvory. Removes discolorations from toilet articles. Will keep all lvory articles in perfect condition.

RYAN'S DRUG STORE THE PENSLAR STORE

For The Man With Moderate Means that desires a modern stove at a modest price. One that will conserve the fuel and produce the best of baking and cooking qualities. Come in and see our line of Cook Stoves

Royal Prince and Diamond M

Made by the Chas. Fawcette Co. Sackville.

Guaranteed by the makers and backed by our own reputation of money back if not satisfactory. We have some exceptionally good bargains in above stoves. Call early before they are all sold.

LAWLOR & CAI USE OUR HARDWARE IT STANDS HARD WEAR

Liberal Chieftain Outlines His Policy and Aims---Takes Objection to the Government's Conscription Policy---Would Allow the People to Pronounce Upon It by Means of Referendum---Would Remove Duties From Agricultural Implements.

Ottawa, Nov. 4. - Sir Wilfrid Lau them against organized ier has issued his manifesto. In a which has heretofore had too much document addressed "to the Canadian control over the government of the people" the opposition leader declares country. In this election sire that the common people shall his policy and outlines his aims. On the all-important question of have opportunity of expression themparticipation in the war, Sir Wilfrid selves in a free and untramelled manclaims that "a fundamental objection ner at the polls, so that their views to the government's policy of conscrip- may obtain in the ne wparliament and ion is that it conscripts human life I trust that in every constituency, canonly and does not attempt to conscript didates, representative of this policy. wealth, resources or the services of may be nominated so that the people any persons other than those who can vote for them. come within the age limit prescribed "These considerations I now place before my fellow countrymen of all office at all times is only a secondary consideration. In this election the which should not exist in a country so by the military service act." The first duty of a Laurier adminis- c. eeds and of all origins for their aptration would be "to find the men. preciation and judgment. I have deemmoney and resources necessary to ed it my duty more than ever perhaps ensure the fullest measure of support in the course of my long public life, etc. to our heroic soldiers at the front and to speak frankly and unequivocally to enable Canada to continue to the upon the problems that now confront very end to do her spendid part to us. The obtaining or the retantion of win the war."

Adheres to Referendum.

To this Sir Wilfrid adds: "As to mendous strugged in which we are enthe present military service act, my Jaged, o maintain the unity of the ER DESIGNS a Specialty. policy will be not to proceed further nation, in avoid the divisions and disunder its provisions until the people cords which, for many years, kept in have an opportunity to pronounce up- check, are now, conortunately, again on it by way of a referendum. I pled- looming up dangice us and threatenged myself forthwith to submit the act ing, to 'esolutely face the echaomic to the people and with my followers to situatic. with a view of avoidin, and carry out the wishes of the majority lesesn'ng privations and safi nings. of the nation as thus expressed."

As remedies for an economic situa- richly endowed by nature as our countio, "which is admittedly critical," try. Whatever may be the verdict at Sir Wilfrid promises: "Tariff reform. the polls, I accept it, neither elated Control of food supplies and prices. by victory nor downhearted by defeat. Stop to profiteering.'

The two increases in the tariff maed since the beginning of the war, he would remove. These are: 71/2 per cent. on all commodities coming into Canada from outside Great Britain and five per cent. on goods coming from Britain. He also "would imme diately remove the duties on agricultural implements and other esesntials as demanded by the western farmers. In connection woth the high cost of living he "would take drastic steps to bring under government control all food producing factories so that food may be sold at a fixed price under the control of the government." If satisfactory arrangements could not be made with the food producing factories Sir Wilfrid declares he would not hesitate to commandeer.

Stop to Profiteering.

CROP OF SES Off Our New Plants.

Richman's American Beauties, Taft,

CARNATIONS IN STOCK as usual. POTTED PLANTS, including a good substances and keeps the skin soft selection of Ferns of the leading va-and healthy at all times. Don't allow

A Fine Lot of PALMS in all sizes. surpence end is to assist in the tre-

> CUT FLOWERS always on hand for the sick.

ADA M. SCHLEVER. FLORIST

326 CHARLOTTE STREET. 'Phone 217.

PAGE FIVE

A GOOD CASTILE SCAP

is the best soap that children can use. It cleanses thoroughly. It is free from disagreeable cils and other harmful your children to use a cheap or inferior soap. Buy Castile Soap and keep WEDDING BOUQUETS and FLOW. a supply of it always on hand. The quality you get here is the best. 10 cents a cake and 20 cents a bar.

-AT-

ALONZO STAPLES, Prop. Cor. King and York Sts., Fredericton. Agency for Miller Standard Rubber Goods.

THE VALUE OF ADVERTISING in all cases must be based on the return for the outlay. No better opportunity in this respect can be found in this locality than

THE DAILY MAIL

This paper has a special value to the local advertiser, as the majority of its readers are in this city and the immediate surrounding country.

Our Advertising Rates will be found decidedly reasonable in view of the results.

THE AD. AND THE MAN.

By James J. Montague.

He saw the ad from day to day And muttered: "I defy it;

The stuff may be just what they

But I'm not going to buy it." As time wore on he made re-

It would not do to mention,

For he was mad because that ad Was forced on his attention.

But in a week, or two, or three, He said: "There's no denying, The way that ad gets hold of me, The stuff may be worth trying" For just about a fortnight more Ha dered mere words to win

He dared mere words to win him, And then the ad completely had

Aroused the spender in him.

Next day he drifted in a store And quietly expended A few big iron dollars for The stuff the ad commended. He found it filled a long-felt need Its excellence surprised him, And now he's glad because the ad So detty hypotized him

So deftly hypnotized him.

marks

PEOPLE READ

OUR

ADVER FISEMENTS

They are trying to buy as wisely as they can. It is necessary they should.

They are eager to know what the local merchants have to offer, and good live advertising is interesting reading to them.

Most of our enterprising business men have already realized this fact and their advertising appears regularly in the Mail.

If you are not a regular advertiser in the DAILY or SEMI-WEEKLY MAIL, you are overlooking an opportunity that no business man in this locality ought to be too busy to appreciate.

ant contributions towards the war to put a stop to profiteering on war supplies. The government has deliberately encouraged profiteering for the benefit of its partisan followers. "A first duty of my administration will be to ensure to the country, which pays for war supplies, the excess of exorbitant profits being realized "by profiteers. If necessary," Sir Wilfrid continues, he "will not hesitate to take control of the factories engaged in the supply of war materials."

Wilfrid believes, should be turned to he production of war materials at

Sir Wilfrid passes in review alike some of the legislaiton of the late gov ernment the program of the present He finds no trace in the manifesto of the union government that its Libera eagues to the adoption of measures hey deemed essential. He refers to most of the articles" in that manifesto as "stale common-places . resurrected for a new election. He passed last session, that it "is a blot BIG OUTPUT upon every instinct of justice" and holds the view that the Canadian Northern Railroad purchase should be adjudicated upon by the new parliament." In concluding his manifesto, Sir Wilfrid says:

"Should I be called upon to form a givernment I would hope to include in it representatives of business, of labor and agriculture, of the men whose sole object in dealing with the affairs of the country will be to devote the whole resources, wealth and energy of the country to the winning of the var. It can only be done by honest agreement amongst all the different lements and interests of the counry. I would hope to have a governhe people, the common people whose guiding principle should be to defend