FREE FOR ALL AT WOODSTOCK WILL BE HUMMER

Woodstock, N. B., Sept. 6—Bert Abbe, 1.59 1/4, the wonder pacer, is returning to Woodstock to meet Jeanette Royal, 2.04 1/4, and Bessie McKlyo, 2.01 1/4, next Thursday during the Woodstock exhibition in what looks like the first real free for all race that has been staged on the eastern end of the Maine & New Brunswick Circuit this season.

Bert Abbe reduced the Woodstock record to 2.05 1/4 in an exhibition mile during the midsummer circuit races here in July and it was only this afternoon that Secretary Henry DeWitt of the Woodstock Driving Club, who has charge of the racing program here during the Fair, got definite word from F. W. Woodman, of Haverhill, Mass., that he would send the handsome pacing son of The Abbe back to New Brunswick to meet Jeannette Royal and Bessie McKlyo, which raced in 2.06 1/4, at the Northern Maine Fair at Presque Isle this week.

A Real Race

Some weeks ago the Boston Globe suggested that Jeanette Royal was the pacer Maine & New Brunswick Circuit fans wanted to give Bert Abbe a real race. The Canadian bred mare had just been timed in 2.03 1/4 when she finished second to Highland Scott in his 2.02 1/4 mile over the half mile track at Goshen, N. Y., and it looked like good advice. But Jeanette Royal suffered in shipping and she is only just now back at her best again; as stated, she won in 2.06 1/4 last week at Presque Isle, where the track record has stood at 2.05 1/4 since Margaret Dillon raced there and she is expected to be better than that here next week. So, with Bessie McKlyo showing her old best form again, the first real free for all Down East followers of racing have seen this year is in prospect.

With the big free for all assured for Thursday, Secretary DeWitt also has a Junior Free for All lined up for Friday with Guy Reaper, 2.09, the Grand Circuit trotter that is a stablemate of Jeanette Royal, scheduled to meet Bob Seymour 2.05 1/4, Harry Putnam and a number of other fast record pacers, while the 2.15 pace with Hedgewood K., the local favorite, starting against Mary Volo, Early Todd and some other Aroostook pacers provides the feature for the opening racing program on Wednesday.

RUTH LEADS RACE FOR HOMER TITLE

The home run goes merrily on, and fans in both major circuits are keenly alive to the battle, though there is an obvious letup in the interest in the race for the two flags, with the Cubs and the Athletics so close to "bringing home the bacon," as it were. The Bambino still leads with 40, though he is closely followed by Charlie "Chuck" Klein of the lowly Phillies, who is playing sensationally enough to be considered the swat find of the season. Charlie has 37 to his credit. Hack Wilson of the Cubs and Mel Ott of the Giants are bunched close behind each with 36 circuit smashes. Then follows the inimitable Hornsby with 33; Foxx of the A's with 31; Gehrig of Yankees with 29; Simmons 28, Bottomley 28.

Coming into the stretch the battle promises to be a royal one and fans are all keyed up as to which of these prodigious hitters will finally win the home run crown for the 1929 season. Ruth of course is the favorite and yours truly has the same idea that the Babe will again top them all. Follows the list of fence busters:

Leaders

Ruth, Yankees	40
Klein, Phillies	37
Wilson, Cubs	36
Ott, Giants	36
Hornsby, Cubs	33
Foxx, Athletics	31

The eleven entrants are as follows: B. Tristes, Donald Burns, Carl Watson, Rodolph Hardley, Rud Steen, N. Jackson, Les Strattan, "Bus" Woods, Juniors, C. Coveney, Johnny Patterson, and Mac Watson. The Maritime track and field contests take place on the Allison grounds.

TOO FAR TO WALK FOR THE SHOPPING

(New York Sun)

New York stenographers have decided ideas about the desirability of office locations, as one business executive recently discovered. His office is in the downtown section of New York and, although he knew there was no scarcity of stenographers, he had considerable difficulty in inducing girls to work for him.

One evening he mentioned this fact to his wife. It may be been feminine intuition but, whatever it was, she could advance one reason.

"The trouble is," she said, "that your office is too far from the department stores. The girls do their shopping after they have eaten luncheon and they want to be near the department stores. And even if they happen to be short they either 'window shop' or walk through the stores, making note of the things they want to buy when they have the money."

"That is why stenographers would rather take less money and work near the department stores than way down town where there are none. I suggest you move your office uptown."

CRICKET

Jack Hobbs, "Babe Ruth" of English Cricket is Now in Best Form Again—Had Been Out Of Game Most Of Summer From Injury

London, Sept. 6—Jack Hobbs, out of the game for a portion of the summer through injury is finishing the English cricket season in his best form. Yesterday playing for C. I. Thornton's eleven at Scarborough against South Africa, he hit up 151. Most of his runs were made in partnership with Pat Hender, who got 114. C. I. Thornton's XI, scored 388. In the match at Folkestone between Kent and the M. C. C., the former scored 206 (Ashdown, 50, Todd, 57, Kennedy, five wickets for 59, Newman, four wickets for 38), and the latter 190 for four wickets (Hearne, 88, not out, Gilligan, 73.)

It is customary for each generation to poke fun at the preceding one, and if this practice continues, what a lot of amusement our children ought to be having 10 or 15 years from now.

RED WINGS ALMOST SURE OF INTER. FLAG

New York, Sept. 6—Rochester's Red Wings have slowed down considerably from the pennant winning pace they set through the greater part of the International League season, but they still are going at a fast enough clip to carry them to the pennant, no matter what happens to their rivals. The probability is that they will have their second successive championship clinched within two weeks.

Rochester now leads its nearest rivals, the Toronto Maple Leafs, by 10 1-2 games, with but 17 contests left on the schedule.

Eight victories, a mere .500 clip for the Red Wings who have been going at a rate of .629 so far, will make the victory certain even though the Leafs win all of their 18 contests. With the same number of Toronto defeats, Rochester could lose its remaining games and still come out on top. And, what is more likely, a combination of the two will do it. The third place rivals, Buffalo and Baltimore, still retain a mathematical chance of winning, but it is no more than that. The Bisons are six games behind Toronto today and 16 1-2 out of the lead. Baltimore is another 1 1-2 games behind.

NO MERCY

I am tolerant and kindly, understanding; Make allowances when people make mistakes, And I smile when I put cash up After my car's in a smash-up Due to some one else's error—plus poor brakes.

I am even tempered, calm, cool and collected, So mild and patient folks call me a boob, But there's one thing, friends that I do—

I just brain the crazy guy who Squeezes tooth paste from the middle of the tube.
