U. N. B. Won First Game From Mount A. by Score of 3 to 0

Huge Crowd of Fans Watch Red and Black Win First Game of Intercollegiate Series By One Try to Nil—Teams Will Play at Sackville in Latter Part of Week—Joe Hurley Scored the Only U. N. B. Try—Pearson and Woods Star For Winners, While Lister, MacBeath and Chown Good For Losers.

A crowd of more than 1,500 watched the University of New Brunswick fifteen score a 3-0 triumph over their always dangerous rivals Mount Allison in the first game of the Provincial Intercollegiate series, yesterday at College Field. In weather, which was ideal, with a warm sun and scarce a breeze to waver the course of the pigskin, the big crowd watched the Red and Black dribble and fight their way to the Mount A. line time after time that first try in the first half, only to see them repulsed and set back by the timely and powerful kicking by the Garnet and Gold backs. In the latter stages of the game, the Mount A. team were entirely on the defense, seeming unable to stop the terrific dribbling of the U. N. B. forward pack, led by that monstrous and deadly efficient gridster, Pearson and his fellow big "Bus" Woods who played one of his best games.

It was Joe Hurley who fell on the ball over the Mount A. line in the early stage—to be exact 11 minutes—of the first half for the only score of the game, and what meant U. N. B.'s ultimate victory. The lithe third line scrum man, who was out of the game last year due to injuries, was right on the ball following one of the local college team's quick dribbles near the line, and before any one was much aware what happened, U. N. B. had scored the first and what proved to be the only try of the game.

It was apparent right from the first whistle that the game would be a hard fought one. Which is usually the case when these two teams meet. Coach Clarence Burden, of U. N. B., and Ray Smith, coach of the Mount Allison team used two opposite types offensive play. The Red and Black, who excel in the dribble play, with the elongated Pearson, who is again with the local University fifteen, in the van of every one, was the chief ground gaining implement of the U. N. B. team, while the Mount A. backfield with powerful kicking opposed this method of warfare with only a fair degree of success. Lister, Captain Miller and MacBeath in the Garnet and Gold backfield used every strategy in kicks and runs to combat this offensive weapon of U. N. B., and what they really accomplished was holding the collegians to a mere three points.

At times when Mount A. on brilliant backfield work at which Bul Lister, prominent New Brunswick athlete, and playing at half for the Sackville team, and MacBeath, one of the fastest big men to be seen here for some time, shone, the local goal line was almost reached. It was then that the efficient feet of the U. N. B. forwards pulled the fat out of the fire, by dribbles which carried the oval to within easy reach of the Mount A. line from their own ten yard line.

Gunn Refereed

Referee R. H. Gunn, MacTiger Cup official, Montreal, who was asked to referee the game, was very strict and allowed nothing to pass. He was particularly strict on offside play, and at picking the ball from the scrum, and handed out a number of penalties. Not a few of these penalties came at a time when either team was right on their opponents' line and might have changed the game all around, had they been allowed to pass unnoticed. As it was the free kicks, which followed, relieved the tension for that team, which was defending its own goal mouth desperately.

Cheer Leaders

The rival cheers of the Mount A. faction, who were placed in the grandstand, and the throng of U. N. B. students in the newly erected bleachers on the opposite side of the field, added to the collegiate atmosphere, and the crowd was a colorful one. Cheers for the players by both cheering sections were given in the course of the play. At times when several of the players were injured temporarily the cheering leaders in front of their respective crowds, called for the old yell, "What's the matter with so-and-so; he's all right."

The first half was the more even with some splendid play on both sides. First one team would have the advantage of territory play and then the other. U. N. B. by dribbling carried the ball down the field time after time, only to have their ground lost, when Lister and Chown, at picking half for Mount A., and MacBeath return the ball by long kicks. Footwork Excelled

Both three quarters lines were good yesterday, but it was mostly the footwork of both teams that counted for all the territory. Richards, Karl Watson, and the light pair of McNally and wee "Bumps" Elgee, played steller games in the backfield. The latter two absorbed much punishment from the heavy serum advances of the Mount A. front line, but took it all and stood up for more. Elgee in particular was good and deserves a lot of credit for the way he struck to it and fed his three quarters, when he was half knocked out from continuous hammering. The youthful Elgee only weighs in the vicinity of 125 pounds, and McNally weighs little more.

Rival Scrum

Bull, Pond, Douglass and Oldham and Hurley were a fighting bunch of forwards throughout, but the real forward here was the veteran Pearson, and but for his opportune and incessant dribbles, it might have been a different game. He was nobly aided in this regard by Bus Woods at ball half. The red headed one was always in the game and his dribble work and entreaties alongside the scrum was a big factor in his team's victory. Watson made several beautiful runs, which only desperate tackling kept from being sure scores.

From a glance at both backfields, it would appear that the visitors had it all over the locals in kicking. Every man in the rear van of the Mount Allison team were excellent kickers. In fact it was this dangerous punting by Bul Lister, Miller, MacBeath, Chown and Reside, that kept the U. N. B. team from plunging ahead more than it did: "Tiny" Matheson, Palfrey, H. Lister and Stewart were big helps in the Mount A. line.

U. N. B. forwards were particularly adept in blocking kicks of the Mount A. backfield. Though the Garnet and Gold flame reached out for the local goal line, they were never able to quite reach it. They were stopped innumerable times, when it seemed they were almost certain to go over, from the law of averages.

Tackle Well

Both squads tackled with deadly efficiency in both halves. In the opening half, it was the Mount Allison front liners to get the ball back to their three quarters, while in the latter half, the Red and Black seemed to have the better of this department of play. So that in each half the rival three quarters had their turn in open field running.

But it would appear that the Mount Allison team had the best of backfield play, and U. N. B. much better in the van of the fight. Such stars as Pearson and Woods, balanced for the local college up front and Lister, Crown and MacBeath shone in the Mount A. backfield. The game finished with the ball on the Mount Allison fifteen yard line and doing everything possible to keep from being scored upon. Boone at full-back for the Red and Black and the fleet Burns at outside three quarters, made some nice relief kicks during the struggle. Harold Chown, who play ed at his old position behind the scrum played one of his best games, and was dangerous at all times, in both kicking and running.

Mount A. Kicked Off

The game started at 2.30 o'clock with Mount A. kicking off. Bus Woods returned to Mount A's 25 yards and Bul Lister sent the pigskin zooming back into U. N. B. territory. A couple of scrum formations netted the University a lot of ground on dribbling. U. N. B. were blocking kicks well. On a dribble to Mount A's 25 yard line, and a quick scrum, the ball was carried across the line on a dribble, Joe Hurley, U. N. B. scrum man, falling on the ball for the first try. Boone failed on the kick, which looked to be an easy one from the side. The half see sawed from then out, with U. N. B. dribbles prominent in ground gaining, and backfield runs and punts helping the Garnet and Gold to gain ground.

Second Half

The second half was featured by several brilliant runs by Karl Watson, Don Adams, Miller, and the kicking of Lister, behind the scrum. In the latter moments of this half, the diminutive Elgee and Adams nearly scored the Red and Black's second try, but were repulsed by hard fighting from the Mount A. team.
