"There is no such thing as laziness," says a magazine writer. Obviously not. A man puts forth his jams? Wh not take up aviation, at most energetic efforts when he is trying to rest.

Advice to very young men: Why Ob-honk your horn futilely in traffic? Wh not take up aviation, at 368 miles an hour? A man is that large, rugged, out-door person who always builds the so live that the arrow in the crime picnic fire to windward of the place where the tablecloth was laid.

WOMEN'S COLUMN

TRUSTY EVERYDAY FROCK

(New York Sun)

Paris has put the stamp of her approval on the smart run-about dress which may be worn for street with a separate fur piece, or used under a fur or cloth topcoat. There are all sorts of smart woollens, light-weight tweeds, novelty patterned and feathered jerseys, as well as silks being shown in these tailored, practical frocks. Canton and satin crepes, printed velvets and silks in tweed and necktie prints are charming, and coverts are very good.

Tailored suits emphasize the snug-fitted hip line which gives a suggestion of a blouse to the jacket. For the very slender, cape jacket suits are being shown. Fur jacket suits are offered by Paris whose name of "skating costumes" seems particularly fit since they are warm and supple. The short coat of fur has a matching band of fur about the lower edge of the tweed skirt or two-piece dress.

THREE AND FOUR-PIECE ENSEMBLES

Three-piece and four-piece ensembles are indications of the new femininity though the former were with us last season. They are made in soft tweeds and novelty woollens often fur trimmed and cut with more than a suggestion of the flare. Suits with three-quarter and seven-eighth length coats trimmed in fur recommend themselves to women who want smart costumes for town or travelling.

Suit jackets have the fitted waistline and in many cases are flared. Blouses are either tucked-in or over-blouse models or crepe satin or wool jersey the latter most effective for sports wear. Tweeds in striped or diagonal patterns, soft finished rough woollens, broadcloth, velvets and flecked woollens are the favored fabrics and lamb or beaver are among the most popular trimmings.

TWEED ENSEMBLES

Ensembles, consisting of a heavy tweed coat, usually fur trimmed and lined with material to match the dress worn beneath, and a one-piece or two-piece frock are very popular this year. The dress may be of georgette, crepe de chine, velvet or any of the new printed woollens or silks. Velvets made to look like tweeds are employed with satin in these successful models. Broadcloth and covert are also smart, and novelty jersey is combined with tweeds in some ensembles. Repps and blue serge are good also.

In suits there is a decided return to the double-breasted jacket with notched collar and revers. Skirts are decidedly longer, three inches below the knees being the accepted length for daytime practical wear. Flares and fullness are low placed. With the daytime frocks, lingerie cuffs and collars are much seen.

Browns, greens, black or black and white are popular colors in tweeds and woollens. Wine red and dahlia shades are new and chic.

In silks, moire and printed velvets are the newest arrivals in the list of very smart fabrics and combine with self-material or some of the softer, heavier materials in rich ensembles for more formal wear.

It is considered likely that the Los Angeles motorist who started his car by building a fire under it got his apprenticeship with mules.

"Don't be silly," a remark that is equivalent to hanging up the receiver.

DEAFNESS

Buzzing Head-Noises

Caused By Catarrh

Nine cases in ten are due to Catarrhal inflammation. Based on the experience of others who have been relieved of troublesome buzzing in the ears, you can count on the effective action of Catarrhzone. No medicine to take—you breathe the healing vapor of Catarrhzone through a small pocket inhaler and derive results quickly. Catarrh of the middle ear is routed out. Hearing improves. Head noises cease. Catarrh in the nose, throat, ears—wherever located, yields to Catarrhzone. You can purchase a two-months' treatment for $1.00, or a smaller size for 60 cents, at any druggist.

SANDALWOOD

What is it softly wafted in
From somewhere out of the golden light
Of the sunset time, some intense rare,
Like the whispered breath of a God's goodnight;
Like the murmured words of one who speaks
In the mystic way of some farther land
Things which we know are wondrous sweet,
Although we can not understand:

Like a magic legend softly told,
Or an angel near, though hid from sight,
Like a dream all steeped in ancient gold,
Some memory of past delight?
Is it some balm for grief and pain
Which unseen hands have sprinkled through
The burnished sunset, or again—
Is it God of Love, or even You?
