

CANADIANS SHOULD UNITE AS ONE MAN TO QUENCH THE FLAMES

"Then none was for a party, but all were for the State."

Every Canadian worthy of the name says "We must win the war," but it is not every Canadian who has a definite policy by which to win the war.

Conscription is a definite policy—the details may not satisfy everyone—but the principle is certainly sound, for voluntary effort has been exhausted—and if anyone says we should have continued to try it, but on a large national scale, then surely the large numbers who are now seeking exemption from national conscription show the absolute futility of such a suggestion. When the house is on fire we must unite to put it out, and if some men in the fire-bracket line have had differences between themselves as to the building of the house, or the furnishing of the house, they would be

ONE DOSE RELIEVES A COLD—NO QUININE

Take "Pape's Cold Compound" every two hours until you have taken three doses, then all gripe misery goes and your cold will be broken. It promptly opens your clogged nostrils and the air passages of the head; stops nasty discharge or nose running; relieves the headache, dullness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

Don't stay stuffed up! Quit blowing and snuffling. Ease your throbbing head—nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only a few cents at any drug store.

guilty of the most supreme folly, or rather of the deepest criminality if they declined to help to save the building. The world is now on fire and Canada, as part of it, is on fire—it is surely the act of elementary patriotism to unite as one man to quench the flames and serve the nation. Let the settlement of other questions be suspended meanwhile, and let us support the National Union Government

Old party ties must meanwhile be broken and thus courage and true patriotism must be, and in fact have been vindicated. It is not the case of the greater, including the less, but it is the greater—that the supreme safety of the people—so preponderates that it extinguishes the less—at least until the war is ended or won, which is the same thing. The great English dramatist has it:

"Now all the youth of England are on fire, And silken dalliance in the wardrobe lies;

Now thrive the armourers, and honour's thought Reigns solely in the breast of every man."

Let this be so with Canada—if not then we are unworthy descendants of noble ancestors. Like some well known table vegetables, the best of us lie underground. To the question at the head of this article the answer is "Fusion of the best."
