BAKING POWDER.

In response to the request for a home made baking powder, I am sending the following:—

1 pound cornstarch, 1-2 pound soda, 1-4 pound cream of tartar. Thoroughly blended.

Boston. Mrs. A. F. M.

Dear Betty Brown: I make a nice baking powder as follows: One pound cream tartar, 1-2 pound soda, 1-2 cornstarch. Sift nine or ten times to mix thoroughly, and use level tablespoonful in measuring. I have used this for years and know that it is good.

Somerville. Mrs. T. C.

Many thanks to both. I have tried neither and so cannot comment on the difference between these ingredients, but have no doubt that both formulas are perfectly good.

EGGLESS CAKE.

Dear Betty Brown: Do you know a good recipe for an eggless cake?

Waltham. Estelle.

This is delicious: One cup sugar, 1 cup butter, 1 cup thick unsweetened apple sauce, 1 cup of raisins, 1 teaspoon cloves, 1-4 teaspoon nutmeg, 1-2 teaspoon cinnamon, 1 teaspoon soda. Mix as an ordinary cake and bake slowly about twenty minutes.

Whenever possible the one-piece cloth gown should be finished with a long velvet coat of the same color.

DECLINE IN WHALE FISHING INDUSTRY

Are Whales Becoming Scarce?—Regulation in Killing May Preserve Declining Industry

Whale fishing, like every other industry, has felt the far-reaching economic effects of the war. Glycerine, which is useful in the manufacture of explosives, is obtainable from the oil of the "humpback," "finback" and "sulphur bottom" whales. As Pacific whale oil averages 6 to 10 per cent. of glycerine content, with a maximum 14 per cent., a rise of 10c to 20c per gallon after the outbreak of war gave a very pronounced impetus to whale fishing in Pacific waters.

War Affected Prices

The pursuit of whales for oil and bone has declined very seriously from the high-water mark reached in the middle of last century. While the "right" whale has become so scarce that the price of baleen or "whale bone" has risen from $1,250 per ton in 1835 to about $12,500 to-day, the price of oil, despite the upward trend caused by the war, has seriously declined from the level of former years.

There is a tendency to scout the idea that whales are becoming scarce but the fact that the whalers are going further and further afield demonstrates that the old grounds are becoming depleted. Although whaling is still a flourishing industry in certain quarters of the globe, these enormous profits spell the doom of the whales unless an international agreement can be arrived at to regulate the killing.

Economic Folly

Of course, an increasing scarcity of whales may make the business unprofitable and, as in New England, the majority of the hunters may be driven from the field. Then the whales may get sufficient respite to enable them to re-establish themselves. But, leaving the conservation of natural resources to the blind play of economic forces is both dangerous and unsatisfactory. Not only may it lead to the utter destruction of an irreplaceable resource—as an animal species—but it builds up a huge industry in the boom days—when the principal as well as the interest is being greedily consumed—only to be followed by a wretched decline when large numbers of men lose their livelihood and expensive plants rot through lack of use.

SOME QUAIN SIGN

Don't Believe All You Read But Go In and See

A notice has been seen in a shop window in Norway which reads: "English spoken here; American understood." In foreign countries where English tourists foregather some very quaint notices have been seen at various times. On most of the large stations in Switzerland for instance one can see, "It is prohibited to traverse the rails unless one is invited to do so by the chief of the station."

In Milan Cathedral there used to be a notice—it may be there now—which read: "Appeal to charity. The Brothers, so-called, of Mercy ask slender arms for the hospital. They harbor all kinds of diseases, and have no respect to religion."

Japan has the most harmonious notices displayed. Nearly every shop in Japan exhibits a placard, printed in English, advertising goods, some of which are very comical. "Horse-shoe maker, instruct by French horse leech," you read; or, "If you want sell watch, I will buy; if you want buy watch, I will sell. Yes sir, we will, all will. Come at my shop. Watchmaker."

A Japanese laundry company announced: "We most carefully and cleanly wash our customers with cheaper prices. Gentlemen, $1.75 a hundred, ladies $2.00 a hundred," while a certain dairy announced that they sold "Extracts of fowls."

An Assurance

"Don't you think a holiday is more cheerful when there is a large family gathered about the festive board?"

"I do," answered the sardonic person. "A large family is a glad assurance that there is not going to be enough turkey left to supply the menu for the next few days."

Indians say the best time to catch a deer is on Christmas night at twelve o'clock, when they believe the deer kneels.

In many countries where they go by the old calendar Christmas is celebrated January 6, the celebration beginning twelve days before.

ACIDS IN STOMACH

SOUR THE FOOD AND CAUSE INDIGESTION

"Pape's Diapepsin" Fixes Sour, Gassy, Upset Stomachs in Five Minutes.

If what you just ate is souring your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food, or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach headache, you can surely get relief in five minutes.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula, plainly printed on these fifty-cent cases of Pape's Diapepsin, then you will understand why dyspeptic troubles of all kinds must go, and why it relieves your out-of-order stomachs or indigestion in five minutes. "Pape's Diapepsin" is harmless; tastes like candy, though each dose will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides, it makes you go to the table with a healthy appetite; but what will please you most is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for biliousness or constipation.

This city will have many "Pape's Diapepsin" cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be enthusiastic about this splendid stomach preparation, too, if you ever take it for indigestion, gases, heartburn, sourness, for dyspepsia, or any stomach misery.

Get some now, this minute, and rid yourself of stomach misery and indigestion in five minutes.

Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand.....

"I was an hungered, and ye gave me meat; I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink..... naked, and ye clothed me....."

Then shall they answer him, saying— "Lord, when saw we thee an hungered, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink?or naked, and clothed thee?"

And the King shall answer.....

"Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me".
