THE OPPOSITION LEADERSHIP

The Moncton Transcript, the leading Liberal organ of the province, does not take kindly to the efforts being put forth to oust Hon. A. A. Dysart from the leadership of the opposition and substitute for him Hon. Wendall P. Jones, K. C., of Woodstock. It plainly tells those who are sponsoring the movement—and this includes Hon. P. J. Veniot, Mr. A. R. Foster, M. P., and Organizer Caldwell—that they speak for no persons but themselves, and further says that if a change in leadership is to be made it must be done by a party convention and not by an individual or two. Here is the way the Transcript puts the case for leader Dysart:—

"From certain quarters during the last month or two have come predictions which have been made public, regarding the leadership of the Liberal party in New Brunswick. Of course these gentlemen speak for no persons but themselves. A permanent leader for the party, whoever he may be, will be chosen by open convention, not by an individual or two.

"Some time ago Mr. Allison Dysart was chosen by the Liberal candidates in the last provincial election who were fortunate enough to be elected to the legislature, as house leader of the party. These duties he has performed faithfully and well, and in such a manner as to inspire confidence not only in his ability in the House and outside of it but in the party generally. In due time a permanent leader will be named—by open convention, and in no other way. Whether the choice will fall upon Mr. Dysart or upon some other worthy Liberal will be decided then.

"Meanwhile, anything approaching positive assertions regarding this man or that man a sleader is so much idle talk."

It might be explained here that the movement to get rid of Mr. Dysart and put Mr. Jones in his place originated with a self styled independent newspaper, to which the Liberal party owes nothing, and the same paper in order to hasten the decapitation of Mr. Dysart set on foot the false alarm that there was to be an early election. It even went so far as to quote Mr. Dysart as being enthusiastically in favor of Mr. Jones leadership "in view of the rapid change in public sentiment and pressing demand for consistent government," and expressing the hope that "Mr. Jones will gladly accept a position that will give him the Premiership and assure the province sound government of which it is at present much in need." Mr. Dysart of course said nothing of the kind.

The Transcript no doubt voices the true sentiments of Mr. Dysart when it says that "he has performed his duties faithfully and well, and in such a manner as to inspire confidence not only in his ability in the House and outside of it but in the party generally."

Looking at it from a disinterested standpoint we are inclined to the view that Mr. Dysart's claims for the party leadership, if political experience and ability to win elections count for anything, are stronger than those of the genial King's Counsel from Woodstock. Mr. Dysart has been a member of the Legislature for eleven years, which means that he has enjoyed the confidence of the people who know him best. He served as Speaker of the House for a term with dignity and impartiality and for a time he held the important portfolio of Lands and Mines. His record in public life has been manly and straightforward. Mr. Jones, on the other hand is undoubtedly a very able and astute lawyer but in public life his career was rather short lived. He sat for Carleton County in the Legislature for one term and was elevated to the post of Solicitor General which office was subsequently abolished.

Upon appealing to his constituent some twenty years ago, he suffered defeat and has not since cut a very wide swath in public life. His name has been mentioned in connection with a judgeship of the Supreme Court a position which he is well qualified to fill, but his friends well know that he has no hankering for political life at the present time and if he becomes opposition leader it will simply mean that the position has been forced upon him. By swapping horses the local opposition would gain nothing in Carleton County, and they would stand a mighty poor chance of holding the County of Kent. Under the circumstances, therefore, they might do themselves a good turn by leaving well enough alone.

MACHINE-MADE MORALS IN SOUTH SEA ISLANDS

From Tahiti comes word that pearl divers are in revolt over concessions lately granted for the use of mechanical diving apparatus. Natives want to explore the ocean floor by means of a rope resent the threat to their skill implied in the machine age invasion. They scorn the safety that modern science and invention would give to a hazardous calling.

Several reasons might be cited to explain their attitude. The psychologist would say that the primitive mind invariably fights progress. The economist would say the South Sea Islander unconsciously realizes that quantity production will inevitably create the surplus which means tragedy. The artist would say that he loves his art for its own sake and despises the loss of individuality in quantity production.

But it is a well known fact that divers often steal pearls. The diving bell makes it possible to have a watchman to prevent this contingency. In other words, the new arrangement has the inconvenience of that other great moral force of the twentieth century—the cash register.

There is general approval from Conservative as well as Liberal sources of the appointment of Mr. Hance J. Logan, of Amherst to the Canadian Senate. The Halifax Herald, Conservative says: "It is a preferment well deserved. Hance Logan has served his party faithfully and since these positions are regarded as providing for political recognition the man who goes to the Red Chamber is entitled to it. The new Senator is a parliamentarian of long experience. He will take with him to the Upper House dignity and capacity for his new duties."

An Ottawa despatch announces the appointment of Mr. H. F. S. Paisley editor of the Sydney Record as public director of the department of fisheries. Mr. Paisley is a native of Sackville and worked on several New Brunswick newspapers including the Daily Mail, before going to Sydney. He is an able writer and will worthily fill the position to which he has been called.

A survey is being made to determine whether the typical collegian wears socks without garters, rumpled shirts and wrinkled suits, and whether he really does drink and neck. While they are about it we wish they would also find out if it's true he wears raccoon coats, too.

Sir Andrew Rae Duncan has been elected a director of the Bank of England which goes to show that the man to whom the Maritime Provinces owe so much stands high in his own country.

NEW HEALTH FOR TIRED-OUT WOMEN

Found in the Rich, Red Blood Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Actually Make.

Anaemia comes on gradually, beginning with languor, indisposition to mental or bodily exertion, irritability and a feeling of fatigue. Later comes the palpitation of the heart, headaches, frequent backaches and often disturbed indigestion and an inability to obtain rest at night. Cases of this kind, if neglected, become more serious, but if taken in time there is no need to worry. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which are free from any harmful or habit-forming drug, are just the tonic needed to remedy this wretched state of health. These pills actually make the rich, red blood that stimulates and strengthens every organ and nerve in the body. Thus strength and activity return, the appetite improves and restful sleep is had. What Dr. Williams' Pink Pills can and will do is shown by the case of Mrs. D. B. Fanning, Seal Harbour, N. S., who says: "I was in a badly run-down condition. I was pale, my appetite was very poor and the least exertion would leave me completely tired out. In fact I was hardly able to do much work about the house. I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and after taking a few boxes can truthfully say I had gained greatly in health and strength and was able to go about my work with no sign of the former weakness. I cheerfully recommend them to all others who may be in a run-down condition."

You can get the pills from your druggist or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Or perhaps a switch, or some little gadget, and a lot of things happen around home that lighten labor and banish trouble.
A Whirling Fan brings a cooling breeze, and a little copper, dish-like affair throws out a sizzling blast that warms the room in no time.

Another button boils coffee, toasts bread and cooks waffles. Another does a better job than a broom. Another makes a happy laundress out of a dismal washwoman. Another one cools the ice-box. Another—but why go on?

Labor and time saving devices have come and are today within the reach of the humblest home.

And one of the chief reasons why they have come and why they are within the reach of the humblest home is the power of advertising.

Advertising has carried the news of these better ways of doing things to every home. It has created a desire to possess them, and countless thousands have purchased them, and live better because of them.

Reading advertising not only tells you about new, helpful mechanical devices for the home, but it is an unfailing guide to reliable products.

READ ADVERTISING REGULARLY. IT POINTS THE WAY TO BETTER LIVING.
