INQUEST IN THOMAS DEATH IS ORDERED

Coroner John Murphy of Blissville Instructed by Attorney General Byrne to Act.

Hon. J. P. Byrne, Attorney General of the province, has ordered another inquest to be held in the matter of the death of Marvin Thomas of Fredericton Junction. Coroner John Murphy of Blissville, has been instructed to hold the inquest. No action can be taken this week but the inquest will be held early next week. Mr. P. J. Hughes of this city, is acting on behalf of the Attorney General's department. Marvin Thomas' body was found on the night of Saturday, May 12th in the cellar of his residence which had been destroyed by fire. All but the trunk had been consumed. Mr. George A. Perley, ex-M. P. P., of Mungerville, acting as coroner, according to the information received from Fredericton Junction, did not conduct a proper investigation, merely taking the statement of the wife of the deceased. An order for the burial of the remains was not issued by the coroner and it was not until the interests of sanitation demanded that the body be interred that residents of the place took action several days later.

Sensational developments may result from the inquest.

Received Promotion.

Mrs. Thomas Harvey, of this city, has received a letter from the front informing her that her two sons, Frederick, serving with a New Brunswick infantry battalion, and Henry, serving with a field battery which was raised in Fredericton in the autumn of 1914, each received one stripe and promotion to the rank of lance corporal and bombardier respectively, upon completing two years of service, with no marks against either.
