No Less Than Twenty-one Occurred Within Eight Hours on Saturday — Populace of Christ Church Walked the Streets During the Night — A Mountain 4,000 Feet High Was Wiped Out.

LONDON, June, 24—Daily Mail dispatches from Christ Church, New Zealand, today stated that twenty one earthquakes shocks occurred there within eight hours on Saturday, two of which were as severe as the initial shock which rocked the countryside last Monday. The reports said the populace walked the streets throughout Saturday night, fearing to enter the buildings.

A Mountain Disappeared

London, June 24—Wellington, N. Z., despatches to the London Daily Telegraph revealed today that as a result of the recent earthquakes Mount Stevens nearly 4,000 feet high, disappeared completely. Slopes have been levelled, trees destroyed and the water supply at Westport cut off. Diphtheria, the report said was making heavy inroads at Karamea.

HONESTY OF CREW IS NOT IMPUGNED

Landing of the Airplane Southern Cross at Glenelg Was Unpremeditated.

(Special Cable to THE DAILY MAIL by the British United Press.)

Sydney, New South Wales, June 24—The report of the inquiring committee made public today states that the landing of the southern Cross near Glenelg early April unpremeditated. There was nothing in the evidence submitted to impugn the crew's honesty.

The committee, however, opines that Captain Kingsford-Smith and his companions did not use sufficient exertion to inform searchers of their position, and states that their failure to utilize the 18 gallons of oil which were in the Southern Cross as smoke signals was "inexplicable."

ADVOCATES TALKIES OF WEDDINGS

Omaha, June 24—Talking pictures of wedding ceremonies were advocated today by District Judge Herbert Rhoades of the Court of Domestic Relations as an antidote for domestic strife.

Two Omaha couples announced motion picture would be taken of their weddings. The Rev. Frank G. Smith, of the First Congregational Church, said: "Talkies as reminders of the marriage vows later in life might help. I make my vows pretty strong, so if they saw and heard themselves taking them again it would be a good reminder of the seriousness of the covenant."

Judge Rhoades said: "They are taking a step in the right direction. I think such a custom would save the institution of marriage. It would free out a lot of wrinkles and make folks take their marriages more seriously. The pictures should be shown when a rift appears in domestic life."

Possibly the most terrifying sign to the motorist with the new car is "Fresh Tar." As for ourselves, we don't like the way it licks as the wheels runs through it.

BELIEVED TO BE WEALTH IN ANTARCTIC

Sydney, Australia, June 24—The claimers of the United States to regions in the Antarctic are, various newspapers asserts here, dictated by the growing belief in Antarctic economic possibilities, so remarkably demonstrated by the financial success of the numerous Norwegian whaling enterprises.

Sir Douglas Mawson, who has been chosen by the Australian government to lead its expedition to Antarctica at the end of this year, has bluntly swept away any illusion that he is going merely in search of scientific honor and glory.

"Antarctica is not like a useless stretch of ice. It is like Alaska, from which the Americans have taken $800,000,000 in gold," he said.

The sudden assess of interest in Antarctica suggests that some authoritative information regarding the economic value of the far south has been received, and since iron and copper and such like metals are of vital importance it is probable that future interest in this vast territory will centre on its economic, rather than its scientific, aspect.

AN ANCIENT TAVERN NOW BUS OFFICE

London, June 23—Chandos Arms England's oldest tavern, is now a motor coach booking office and may soon be made into a garage.

This old inn, which dates from the days of the Norman conquest, recently ended its career as a tavern and upon it were plastered the lurid posters of motor tour organizations. It is situated in Edgeware, near Hyde Park, in London.

It's lovely old gables and quaint stableyard are much admired by lovers of history. It is said to have been the favorite haunt of Dick Turpin, and Handel is said to have met a friend there who inspired him to write one of his best compositions. Like all old inns, it has its ghost.

A car driven by Mrs. Fred Lane of Fredericton collided with a St. John Machine last night on the Oromocto flats although none of the occupants were injured considerable damage was done to both cars.

SUNDAY IN RUSSIA IS ABOLISHED

Leningrad, June 23—Sunday has been "abolished" here by the Pskovsky Pedagogical Technikum, the Ostrovsky school and other institutions, which have adopted Wednesday as the weekly day of rest instead.

A movement to turn Sunday into an ordinary working day was started recently by schools in Tomsk, Siberia, and has spread to other parts of the Soviet Union.

The Bolshevik revolution was accomplished on a Wednesday, which therefore holds first place among the days of the week as a substitute for the former free day.

NEW OUTLOOK PARTY SPENT SUNDAY IN FREDERICTON AND TOOK PART IN CHURCH SERVICES

Party of Two Hundred Ladies and Gentlemen From Ontario and Manitoba, Arrived Here By Special Train—Visited Sheffield Yesterday Afternoon and Attended Service at Oldest Protestant Church in N. B.

The United Church party composed of two hundred ladies and gentlemen mostly from the Provinces of Ontario and Manitoba, spent Sunday in Fredericton and left for Saint John at an early hour this morning. The party was organized of the New Outlook the official organ of the United Church and the object of the tour is to become better acquainted with the Eastern provinces and thus create a common Canadian spirit. Two years ago a tour of western Canada with a similar object was carried out. Unfortunately Dr. Fallis, editor of the New Outlook was unable on account of illness to accompany the party to Fredericton.

By Special Train.

The visitors are travelling through the Maritimes by a special C. N. R. train. They arrived at a late hour on Saturday night and were quartered on their train during their stay here. In the morning they attended services at St. Paul's and Wilmot United Churches and in the afternoon they travelled to Sheffield by autos supplied by citizens of this city, where an open air service was conducted at the former Congregational Church, which has the distinction of being the oldest Protestant edifice in New Brunswick. This church according to an inscription on a Cairn which was erected two years ago, largely through the efforts of Dr. Clarence Webster of Shediac, was founded in the year 1775, and rebuilt in 1840. The Parish of Mauderville was settled by New Englanders in 1762 and is the oldest English settlement in the province.

At Local Churches.

At the morning service at St. Paul's United Church Rev. Dr. A. C. Crews of Toronto, who is connected with the New Outlook was the preacher and spoke to a large congregation. The pastor, Rev. George Telford, spoke a few appropriate words of welcome to the visitors. Rev. Dr. Crews spoke from the words, "For it is Right", taken from Paul's Epistle to the Ephesians, and delivered a very able and scholarly address which was followed with the closest attention. The choir of the church rendered appropriate hymns and was reinforced by one of the lady visitors who rendered a solo, which was greatly appreciated. At the evening service in St. Paul's the preacher was Rev. Mr. Martin of Woodworth, Manitoba.

(Special to THE DAILY MAIL by the British United Press.)

Commander Ramon Franco and his three companions aboard the Spanish hydroplane in which they attempted to fly to the United States via the Azores islands were still missing at 6 a.m. (E.D.T.) today—66 hours after they took off from Cartagena, Spain. In spite of the many conflicting reports that the aviators had landed safely on one of the islands of the Azores group, far grew that they were lost at sea, probably drifting on their seaplane.

The Spanish government has dispatched several squadrons of seaplanes to search the Atlantic between the coast of Spain and the Azores, and four spanish destroyers were detached to aid in the search. A Portuguese gunboat which happened to be at the island when the fliers were expected also went in search for the plane.

ENGLISH LADY HAS LOST HER 4TH FIANCE

Birmingham, England, June 23—Death has four times thwarted Miss Madge Gunner, a governess in this city, of becoming a wife.

After the death of her fourth fiance, just two days before the wedding day, Miss Gunner forever renounced the idea of marriage.

This succession of love tragedies started during the war when Miss Gunner became engaged to a young officer. On the night he was to have wed her, he was killed by a rifle grenade.

"My next fiance," Miss Gunner said in an interview, "was an airman. He was killed in a crash on the Saturday before the Monday on which we were to have been married."

"Four years later I became engaged to an engineer. Two days before our wedding we had lunch together. He left me at the end of the meal to inspect a building under construction. He was killed by a crane."

Additional sorrows have come into Miss Gunner's life during the past year. Her father and mother, both in Australia, died without her having seen them for years. Her only brother was recently drowned at sea.

(Special cable to THE DAILY MAIL by the British United Press.)

Wellington, New Zealand, June 24—The complete evacuation of the entire Murchison District was under way today as the result of renewed earth tremors which have terrorized the populace.

Practically all the inhabitants of the adjoining valleys have flocked into Wellington. Most of them fled in such haste that they left behind them what was not destroyed by "quakes" and had nothing except the clothing they were wearing.

A FLOOD IN INDIA IS LIKE INLAND SEA

Calcutta, June 24—Advises from the flood area in Assam province today revealed the extreme plight of villagers. All are now on famine rations, while many have seen homes and relatives swept away from them.

A vast area stretching like an inland sea from Subadnaper westward was under water, with crops invisible and harvest prospects negligible. Residents took refuge in the highlands.

AUTHORESS'S FAVORITES

An authoress as versatile as Mary Roberts Rinehart must of necessity be interested in many varying fields of activity to provide material for her work. To write a successful mystery play like "The Bat," then to turn her pen to the amusing nonsense of the "Tish" stories, and next to take up the lively adventures of a sub-deb in "Babs," requires a wide understanding of human nature.

Mrs. Rinehart, among all her other interests, has a love for, and an understanding of music. She has selected a list of her favorite numbers which will be played by the artists presenting the Edison Program through the Coast-to-Coast NBC System, on Monday evening, June 24. This program will begin at 9.00 o'clock.

No word has been received from Utopia today, but it is assumed the temperature is about 65 in the shade.
