GOOD FAITH OF THE GERMAN CHANCELLOR CALLED IN QUESTION

Dr. Delbrueck Wants to Know Why Dr. Michaelis Neglects to Answer Inquiry Recently Made by Hon. Mr. Asquith in the British House.

COPENHAGEN, Aug. 29.—Attacks upon Chancellor Michaelis continue and Professor Hans Delbrueck now asks the Chancellor an embarrassing question concerning peace. In the Prussian year book Prof. Delbrueck inquires of Dr. Michaelis why, if he really accepts the Reichstag resolution as a basis of his policy, he neglects to answer the inquiry made on July 26 in the British House of Commons by former Premier Asquith regarding Germany's readiness to evacuate and restore Belgium. Prof. Delbrueck, who openly questions the good faith of the Chancellor in professing to agree with the terms of the resolution, asks whether his silence in the face of Asquith's summons does not show that those are right who insist that Dr. Michaelis take another standpoint from that contained in the resolution.

THE CHANCELLOR IS ASKED TO REPLY TO A RATHER EMBARRASSING QUESTION ON PEACE

If the German government is ready to conclude a peace upon the basis of no annexations and no indemnities," asks the professor, "why all this unprecedented apparatus of a joint committee of the Reichstag and Bundesrath to assist the Chancellor in drawing up a simple answer to the Pope's proposal of peace on that basis?"

"The truth is," says Prof. Delbrueck, "that Dr. Michaelis does not enjoy the confidence of the Reichstag. He cannot possibly do so," the writer adds, "after last week's events in the Reichstag main committee, and his tacit submission to the association that he is in reality opposed to the resolution."

"Neither the German nation nor the world knows what the Chancellor's policy is."

SAYS THE REICHSTAG IS POWERLESS AND THAT THE GERMAN CHANCELLOR IS DOUBLE TONGUED

"The Reichstag resolution," Prof. Delbrueck continues, "would have had a different effect if it was not believed abroad that the Reichstag is powerless and that the Chancellor is double-tongued."

In his speech in the House of Commons on July 26, former Premier Asquith asked if Germany was prepared to evacuate Belgium, to make reparation and to restore absolute independence to Belgium. He said he would like to know the German answer to those questions.

HUNS MAKE FAVORABLE REPLY TO NOTE OF ARGENTINE REPUBLIC

BUENOS AIRES, Aug. 29.—The favorable reply made by the German government to Argentine concerning the submarine campaign relieved a tense and critical situation. The German reply, which Laepoca says is a diplomatic triumph, acquiesces in the demand of the Argentine for the safety of Argentine ships, and indemnification for the torpedoing of the steamer Toro, "in order to maintain friendly relations."

The note also concedes "freedom of the seas to vessels under the Argentine flag carrying food." The Argentine foreign office has made public the entire correspondence with Germany concerning the sinking of the Toro. It shows that Germany's note probably avoided the possibility of Argentina severing diplomatic relations with Germany.

MORE GOOD WORK BY THE BRITISH AIRMEN

London, Aug. 29.—Reuter's correspondent at British headquarters reports that a heavy rain and furious wind is hampering operations. Notwithstanding the rain, the Germans twice last night attacked our line that crosses the Ypres-Menin road, coming in big waves of assault through the Inverness Copse. Both attempts were broken up and the attackers were heavily punished.

"We are getting plenty of evidence of the exhaustion of the enemy's reserves in this area," says the correspondent. "The Wurtemburg division, which has been exposed to continuous fire since the middle of August, has been weakened beyond all fighting effectiveness. The enemy is now forced to employ inadequately rested and re-fitted troops."

"The flying corps during the past week co-operated in attacking over seven hundred batteries, in the destruction of twenty-eight gun pits, and caused three hundred explosions in ammunition dumps; brought down 68 enemy aircraft and drove down 90 out of control."

WAR MINISTER GAVE BUT LITTLE THOUGHT TO WAR

Petrograd, Aug. 29.—General Soukhomlinoff, former minister of war, gave scarcely any thought to the conduct of the war, Gen. A. P. Vernander, former assistant minister of war, declared yesterday at the trial of Gen. Soukhomlinoff for high treason.

The war minister, Gen. Vernander said, paid no heed to the equipment of the army, and gave no contracts to workshops and factories which manufactured munitions. As a result, he testified, the munition production progressed haltingly and after 130 days of war the Russian army was without shells.

General Vernander succeeded Gen. Soukhomlinoff temporarily as minister of war.

Woodstock Press: Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Dunbar and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dunbar of Cabano, were in town this week on account of the illness of Mr. Alex. Dunbar, Sr.

Hon. W. P. Jones, K. C. of Woodstock was in the city yesterday.

Hon. P. J. Veniot went to St. John last evening.

GEORGE STREET BAPTIST Y. P. S.

Elected Officers Last Night—
R. H. Wickett, President—
Annual Business Meeting Held.

The Young People's Society of the George Street Baptist church held their annual business meeting last evening in the church vestry and, although it was a wet night, the attendance was quite large, and a very pleasant and profitable hour was spent. After a short devotional service, conducted by the vice president, Mr. R. H. Wickett, the election of officers and the appointment of committees was taken up with the following results:

Officers — Mr. R. H. Wickett, president; Miss Lenta Hall, vice president; Mrs. William Gregory, secretary; Mr. William Foster, treasurer; Miss Vera Marshall, pianist; Miss Vera Jonah, assistant pianist.

Chairmen of committees — Mr. H. T. Brewer, prayer meeting; Miss Cora Machum, lookout; Mrs. G. E. McCutcheon, social; Mrs. R. H. Wickett, music; Mrs. A. J. Doyle, sick and visiting; Mrs. L. Clark, flower.

EARL GREY DIED THIS MORNING

London, Aug. 29.—Earl Grey, former Governor General of Canada, died at six o'clock this morning at Howick House, Northumberland, after a long illness. The funeral will be held at Howick on Saturday, when a memorial service will be held in London.

BERLIN TORPEDO WORKS BURNED

Copenhagen, Aug. 29.—The foundry of the Schwartzkopf torpedo works in Berlin was destroyed by fire on Sunday. There are rumors that a considerable loss of life attended the conflagration.

AN ITALIAN AVIATOR MAKES WORLD'S RECORD

Made a Flight of Over Nine Hundred Miles Without Stopping--Used New Six Machine With Flat Motor.

PARIS, Aug. 29.—Capt. Giulio Laureami, an aviator in the Italian army, has established a new world's long distance flying more than 900 miles without stopping. According to a despatch to the Temps from Milan, the Italian flew from Turin to Naples and return, a distance of about 920 miles as the crow flies. Capt. Laureami used a new Sia machine with a flat motor. He left Turin at 10.07 a.m., reached Naples at 12.30 p.m., flew over that city, and was back in Turin at 8.40 p.m.

The previous long distance non-stop flight record was held by Second Lieut. Antoine Marchat, a French aviator, in June, 1916, when he flew from Nancy, France, to Chelm, Russian Poland, in a Nieuport machine. The distance covered was about 807 miles. During the flight Lieut. Marchat dropped proclamations on Berlin. He was made prisoner by the Austrians at Chelm and was interned at Salsbuch.

FETE TOMORROW AT BARRACK SQ.

I.O.D.E. stands for Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire. Now when F.B.B. and I.O.D.E. are added, look for the result at the Barrack Square on Thursday afternoon, the last half-holiday of the season. You won't be disappointed and every cent you spend will do double duty. It will help the ever popular band and provide comforts for the well boys at the front and also provide for those in the hospitals. The central committee will have half the proceeds and every one knows the good work that has been going on for three full years for Red Cross and Soldiers' Comforts through that body. That the Ashburnham Branch of the Red Cross Society have chosen the same date is unfortunate, but the band had permission from the military authorities some time ago so could not change its plans.

Remember all we do is as nothing compared to the sacrifices our soldier boys are making for us, so all come, not forgetting the babies.

President's Peace Note Is Generally Applauded

QUIET WEDDING THIS AFTERNOON

Miss Lucille M. MacLenahan
Becomes Bride of Mr. Jas.
H. Horncastle of New Maryland.

A charming home wedding took place at 3.30 this afternoon at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. John MacLenahan, Needham street, when her second daughter, Lucille Mina MacLenahan was united in marriage to Mr. James Hilton Horncastle of New Maryland. Rev. J. S. Sutherland performed the ceremony. Only the immediate relatives were present. The couple were married under a floral arch which supported a large white bell. Little Margaret Bishop was flower girl and was attired in white silk voile and carried a bouquet of sweet peas.

The bride was gowned in ivory duchess-satin and wore a Juliet cap and veil. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. She was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. John MacLenahan, while her cousin Henry of Boston, played the wedding march as the bridal party entered the room.

After the ceremony a dainty supper was served.

The happy young couple will spend their honeymoon travelling through the state of Maine. On their return they will reside at New Maryland. The presents received were both numerous and costly, including several checks.

PERSONAL

Dr. Frank D. Phinney of Philadelphia, is here visiting his mother, Mrs. J. D. Phinney.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. McLellan and family have returned from an auto trip in Eastern Maine.

Cannot Negotiate With the German Rulers Until They are Curbed---Peace With Prussian Autocracy is Not Possible Under Present Circumstances.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—President Wilson's note rejecting the Pope's peace proposal was regarded here today as finally settling the question of dealing with present German rulers unconquered or uncured at home. The President makes it clear that a lasting and durable peace can be negotiated only on a complete understanding with the German people, and not alone on unstable guarantees of the existing government.

The note indicates that the American government does not intend post-bellum reprisals on the German people, but desires in the interests of world peace that they be allowed to share in international economic opportunities "if they will accept equality and not seek domination."

HUNS CANNOT GIVE ANY PLEDGE OR PROMISE THAT THE NATIONS OF THE WORLD WILL ACCEPT

The Washington Post comments: "President Wilson lays bare the inert weakness of any proposal to make peace on any terms with the German government, this weakness being the inability of that government to give any pledge or promise that the nations of the world would accept. The German government having destroyed its reputation for truth and honor, no one else can restore it. It is for Germany to seek peace from within by setting aside the mad murderers who have run her towards ruin."

THE PRESIDENT HAS MADE IT PLAIN THAT THERE CAN BE NO TEMPORIZING WITH EVIL

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—The newspapers generally in their editorial comment this morning, applaud President Wilson's reply to the Pope's peace proposals. "It can be comprised in five words: 'No peace with Prussian autocracy,'" says the New York World.

The New York Herald says: "President Wilson rejects the peace proposals of the Pope, and in language that will ring around the world, gives reasons. There can be no truce with Prussianism, no temporizing with evil. Peace cannot be based upon any such flimsy structure as the word of the present German government. The President has answered from the real heart of the American people. It is an answer to the Pope, and as well to all advocates of a Prussian peace, in this country or any other."

Heartily Approved.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—Telegrams from all parts of the country began to pour into the White House today approving President Wilson's reply to Pope Benedict's peace proposals.

SENTENCE OF DEATH IMPOSED ON BELGIAN BURGOMASTER BY HUNS

AMSTERDAM, Aug. 29.—The Burgomaster of Hamont, province of Limbourg, Belgium, has been sentenced to death by the German authorities on a charge of helping Belgians to escape into Holland. The prior of the Hamont Monastery and Prof. Ballings, of Hamont, have been sentenced to life imprisonment on the same charges, according to the Echo Belge.

Madame Errera, wife of the director of the University of Brussels, the despatch adds, has been arrested by Germans on a charge of espionage. She is also accused of having forged identification cards.

DENY A PEACE OFFER WAS MADE

Berlin, via London, Aug. 29.—The newspapers denounce as wholly false the reference made by Premier Kerensky in addressing the Moscow conference to a recent offer of a separate peace. Nothing is known of such a move in any official circle here.

Premier Kerensky in his speech at Moscow said: "A little time ago we indignantly replied to a proposal to conclude a separate peace." He gave no details.

DUKE TO VISIT CAMP BORDEN

CAMP BORDEN, Ont., Aug. 29.—Owing to the visit of the Duke of Devonshire to the Royal Flying Corps here, the camp will be closed tonight to all visitors for three days, and it will be no use for anyone to apply for passes as they will not be granted.

The Duke is arriving by special train today. He is not making an official visit to Camp Borden, and in consequence no guard of honor will be present, his official programme being limited to the R. F. C. camp.

Miss Florence Chaparral of McAdam is visiting Miss Frances Kennedy of Newmarket.

CAN TAKE HOME CANNED GOODS

Washington, Aug. 29.—Americans returning from Canada may bring free of duty $100 worth of canned goods and other food stuffs under a ruling announced today by the Treasury Department. The ruling was designed especially to meet a situation which had arisen from the summer stay in Canada of numerous Americans, many of whom canned their winter supply of fruits and vegetables while there.

RELIEF VESSEL REPORTED SUNK

London, Aug. 29.—The Norwegian steamer Kongsli, from St. Nazaire, France, to the United States, has been sunk off the Spanish coast, according to a telegram received in Christiania from Santandre and forwarded by the Morning Post's correspondent.

The Maritime Register reports the Norwegian steamer Kongsli as a Belgian relief ship.

Mrs. John A. Fitzmaurice of Winnipeg who has been spending some time at McAdam visiting her sisters Mrs. John A. Kennedy and Mrs. James Sheppard, is now visiting her father Mr. John Foley of Fredericton.
