ENDORSES MR. CARVELL.

Commenting on a speech delivered at Hamilton, Ont., a few days ago by Hon. Mr. Carvell, the Montreal Financial Post says:

"The action which the new Minister of Public Works has taken in shutting down on government activities on public undertakings is just what many of his friends expected of F. B. Carvell. That such action is taken in the face of an approaching election, is typical of a man who would rather serve the public than play politics. It is only to be regretted that such action was not taken long ago. The Financial Post has been advocating the cutting off of all but vitally necessary expenditures ever since the outbreak of the war."

"Mr. Carvell expects that his action will win him unpopularity. If it does it will be of that quality which should not influence men in public positions. And we predict that before Canada has finally solved her problems of war finance the people will be brought to appreciate the wisdom of the course he is taking."

"The progress of the war makes it more and more evident that Canada will not only have to finance her own way to the end, but will have to finance orders placed here by Britain and her allies—orders which we must fill to maintain our own industrial prosperity and to fulfill our duty in the great cause. To do so will mean that every dollar must be used to productive ends and governments and individuals will both have to understand this in a way which as yet they are only beginning to appreciate."

"Let us hope that Mr. Carvell's policy of war-time retrenchment will not stop in the Department of Public Works."

BUSINESS CONDITIONS.

"We cannot tell what the course of prices may be when the war is over," said Mr. William Molson Macpherson in his address as president at the annual meeting of the Molson's Bank shareholders, Montreal, last Monday. "But there is undoubtedly a shortage of foodstuffs at present, and it will be some years after peace is declared before the supply equals the demand. Therefore reasonably high prices for such products may be expected to continue for a considerable time at any rate, and they should be a strong influence in attracting immigrants to the vast number of acres in this country at present uncultivated."

As to the present prosperity through out Canada, Mr. Macpherson emphasized its large dependence on war conditions. "There is bound to be a change when peace comes, and it is the duty of all business men to prepare for such a change by conserving the profits they are now enjoying by avoiding capital expenditure and keeping their resources in such a condition that they can weather a few stormy years, should they come."

In this and other connections, Mr. Macpherson discussed the forthcoming loan of the Dominion government, and made the definite announcement that, as a stimulus to saving, the banks will be glad to help any of their savings bank customers to purchase war bonds, extending payments over a year.

Mr. H. J. Logan, ex-M. P., was nominated by the Liberals of Cumberland, N. S., at a monster convention at Amherst, and accepted the nomination. His opponent will be Speaker Rhodes, who has represented the county since 1908. In a speech Mr. Logan declared himself a supporter of the Military Service Act. He said that he had made a proposal to Mr. Rhodes that a joint convention to be held for the selection of a candidate, and thus avoid a contest, but Mr. Rhodes had declined to entertain the proposal.

The campaign for the Victory loan will start on Monday morning. Organization has been perfected from coast to coast and the success of the loan is assured. An energetic committee under the direction of Mr. J. D. Palmer has been at work here for some days and it is proposed to make a thorough and systematic canvass of York and Sunbury. The Victory bonds offer a very attractive investment, and those who purchase them will be helping in a tangible way to win the war. Such an opportunity may not come again.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier opened his campaign with a great meeting in the city of Quebec last evening. The speech he delivered was along the lines of his recent manifesto, and was well received by the audience. The old chief-tain was tendered a nomination for the constituency of Quebec East, which he has represented for forty years, and accepted the same.

Conditions in Russia seem to be going steadily from bad to worse. Premier Kerensky, who made such a gallant effort to give his country stable government, has been obliged to give way to the Maximilists, and there is no telling what will happen next. There is every ground for believing that the latest coupe was engineered by the Huns.

According to a prominent photographer, who has had extensive opportunities to study the expressions of various people at different ages, after thirty years of wedded life 90 per cent. of married couples begin to bear a marked likeness to each other, and in every case it is the wife who grows like the husband, and not the husband like the wife.

Who will be the first to buy a Victory war bond?

QUEBEC'S WARM WELCOME TO SIR WILFRID LAURIER

The audience burst out with loud cries of "shame."

"It is indeed a great shame," said Sir Wilfrid. "These men have been denounced to the government. And what did it do? It appointed a commission. That commission made its report and the government appointed another commission and then nothing was done. I mean to say that the government has done nothing but to appoint Mr. Hanna."

Here more interruptions took place and for several minutes the crowd jeered the name of Mr. Hanna and broke out in laughter.

"Mr. Hanna says: 'Eat less,'" said Sir Wilfrid.

The crowd again laughed.

"Mr. Hanna says: 'Don't eat meat on certain days,'" he remarked.

Again there was a roar of laughter. "That," Sir Wilfrid declared, "is all that Mr. Hanna has done."

Sir Wilfrid showed how the government had fixed the price of newsprint, and he argued that the price of foodstuffs could be regulated in the same way.

Sir Lomer Gouin followed in a brief speech in which he declared that no government could enforce conscription in Canada against the will of the people.

Through Our Sieve

Remember, remember—the tenth of November.

Ere you sail for the Great Beyond, buy your heirs a Victory bond.

The original tyrant was the first by baby in the first family.

Queer how a kid getting along towards two years old will wash his face with soap and eat soap.

Give Nicholas Romanoff credit for having restrained himself from saying: "I told you so."

Sometimes the movies start a regular innovation by having a scene labelled "that evening" instead of "that night."

One of the most pathetic things in human nature, viewed by and large, is the way almost everybody thinks he can tell a good story.

War bread is all right, but too many of us prefer two war doughnuts, several war pancakes with war syrup and a cup of war coffee for breakfast.

A husband who will sit at home evenings and read aloud to you is a joy and a comfort; but a husband who will sit there and let you read to him is a stained glass hero.

den government had not kept its promises in connection with the abolition of patronage.

Hamilton East: Alderman G. Halterow, Labor.

Hamilton West: Walter Rollo, Labor. A resolution was unanimously endorsed demanding a referendum on conscription of manpower.

North Ontario: Lieut. Col. S. S. Sharpe, Unionist.

Vancouver South: Major R. T. Cooper, Unionist.

Calgary West: T. H. Tweedie; Calgary East: Major Lee Redmond, both Unionists.

SUFFERED GREAT AGONY

From Pain in Stomach for Over 5 Years.

Most of the misery and ill-health that humanity is burdened with arise from disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels. If you are feeling out of sorts, have pains in the stomach, especially after eating, bilious spells, headaches, sour stomach, coated tongue, sallow or muddy complexion, specks floating before the eyes, you should take a few doses of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills and note the change.

Miss Ida Hogan, Dunrobin, Ont., writes: "For over five years I have suffered great agony from pains in the stomach. I tried several remedies, but got no relief until a friend advised me to take Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills. I started with two vials, and before I had one quite used I found much relief. I continued until I used four vials, and they have completely cured me. That was fourteen months ago, and I have have not had the slightest return since. The best praise I can give them is not enough."
