CANADA'S WAR CABINET HAS BEEN ANNOUNCED

Consists of Ten Members With Sir Robert Borden as Chairman---Hon. F. B. Carvell is a Member---Committee Appointed to Deal With Domestic Problems Arising Out of the War---Duties Of the War Cabinet.

Ottawa, Oct. 23. — Writs for a general election, it is expected, will be issued on November 1. This would bring the election in the week of December 17. The exact date for the elections, the Canadian Press, Limited, is officially informed, has not yet been determined, but they will most probably be held on or near the day indicated.

Canada's war cabinet is announced, also the committee of the cabinet, which will have charge of the domestic problems arising out of the war. The war cabinet, technically known as the war committee of the cabinet council, will have the prime minister as its president and Hon. N. W. Rowell as its vice president. The other committee, which will be known as the reconstruction and development committee, will also have the prime minister as its president. Hon. A. K. MacLean, minister without portfolio, will be vice president.

The personnel of the two committees is as follows: War cabinet — Chairman, Sir Robert L. Borden; vice chairman, N. W. Rowell, president of the privy council; Major General Mewburn, minister of militia and defense; Sir Thomas White, minister of finance; Hon. C. C. Ballentyne, minister of marine and fisheries and naval service; Hon. C. J. Doherty, minister of justice; Hon. F. B. Carvell, minister of public works; Hon. A. L. Sifton, minister of customs; Hon. P. E. Blondin, postmaster general, and Sir Edward Kemp, minister of overseas militia forces.

The two latter are expected to be overseas during the progress of the war.

Reconstruction Committee.

Reconstruction and development committee — Chairman, Sir Robert L. Borden; vice chairman, Hon. A. K. MacLean; Sir George Foster, minister of trade and commerce; Sir Thomas White, minister of finance; Hon. J. D. Reid, minister of railways and canals; Hon. J. A. Calder, minister of immigration and colonization; Hon. Arthur Meighen, minister of the interior; Hon. T. A. Crerar, minister of agriculture; Sir James Lougheed, chairman of the military hospital's committee, and Hon. Senator Robertson, minister without portfolio.

Each committee, it will be observed, consists of ten members.

SUCCESS ASSURED.

(Canadian Press direct wire.)

Ottawa, Oct. 24.—"The successful operation of the military service act is assured," E. L. Newcombe, deputy minister of Justice and Chairman of the Military Service council, declared last night.

"I am well pleased with the results of the first week's operations, it would appear that if the rate of progress be maintained the general response to class one by November 10 will be quite satisfactory."

A NEW BUNCO GAME.

Tablets Alleged to Make a Man Unfit for Military Service.

(Canadian Press direct wire.)

Toronto, Oct. 24.—John Herbert Cornish was arrested here last night on a charge of supplying a vial of tablets to a man liable to military service.

According to the police, the promised effect of the tablets was to produce heart weakness and deceive the doctors. It is alleged $25 was paid for one vial.

The duties of the war committee, which will exist during the progress of the war and until after demobilization, are defined in an order-in-council based upon recommendations made by the prime minister.

Sir Robert Borden, in his recommendations, observes that the constitution of such a committee of the cabinet is advisable for the purpose of coordinating the efforts of the several departments of the government for the prosecution of the war, or ensuring the maximum of effort with the minimum of expenditure and generally for the purpose of throwing the full power of Canada into the national endeavor.

The prime minister further recommended that the committee shall inquire into and report upon the status and maintenance of the military, the enforcement of the Military Service Act, the defense of Canadian coasts and the patrolling of territorial and adjacent waters, the arrangements for garrisons and outposts in Canada, the training and equipping of troops, the internment of aliens, the prohibitions and regulation of imports and exports and the granting of licenses therefor, the arrangement with the government of the United Kingdom and with the governments of the allied nations respecting any of these matters and generally speaking all matters relating to the efficient prosecution of the war, so far as Canada is concerned.

THE AD. AND THE MAN.

By James J. Montague.

He saw the ad from day to day And muttered: "I defy it; The stuff may be just what they say,

But I'm not going to buy it," As time wore on he made remarks

It would not do to mention, For he was mad because that ad Was forced on his attention.

But in a week, or two, or three, He said: "There's no denying, The way that ad gets hold of me, The stuff may be worth trying."

For just about a fortnight more He dared mere words to win him,

And then the ad completely had Aroused the spender in him.

Next day he drifted in a store And quietly expended A few big iron dollars for

The stuff the ad commended. He found it filled a long-felt need Its excellence surprised him, And now he's glad because the ad So deftly hypnotized him.
