ALL MUST BE SUPERLATIVE

A Vicious Development of the Negative Quality of the Female Mind.

"You can't guess—" began Mrs. Topper.

"My dear," said Topper in a voice in which criticism was carefully shaded and refined by gentleness, "I wonder whether you realize the habit you are getting into, never telling me anything without first making me guess what it is you have to impart. If I do not feel any inclination to solve riddles or acrostics and show that lack of inclination, you immediately become angry and I must then coax you to tell me the news. Always after I have made a guess or two.

"The whole practice is a vicious development of the negative quality of the female mind. You must not allow it to master completely the positive side of your character.

"Do you think the names of Washington, Lincoln, Bonaparte or any of the others would be emblazoned on the pages of history in characters of gold if they had indulged in cryptic remarks as a prologue, so to speak, to action? Decidedly not! They were of the positive type of mind and they cut out all of the weakening negative qualities until they had but to enter the room to make their personalities felt.

"Now, take me for example—not that I desire to couple my name with those which I have just mentioned. But just take me as an example. How far do you think I would get in the business world if I indulged in a bunch of riddles and jigsaw puzzles before I put my work through? Can you imagine me, for instance, going in to the boss in the morning with a sheaf of papers hid behind my back and saying, 'Good morning sir! I'll bet you can't guess what I have in my hand.' Why, I'd be thrown out on my neck.

"Or, if a customer asked me for the price of a particular article, and I said, 'Guess,' as you do. They'd think I was crazy, and the house would spend no time making up its mind what to do.

"This practice of indulging in mental acrobatics, or, rather, requiring other to do so, is a of a piece with those other expressions so dear to a woman's mind, such as 'I nearly died' or your inability to confine yourselves to descriptive or comparative adjectives.

A Korean lad holds the world's record for rapidity at figures. Recently he added mentally a column of 25 items of four figures each in seven seconds.

Harry B. Nicholson of Crown Point, Ind., has married 18,000 couples since he has been a justice of the peace. His highest record for a single day is 52 marriages.

THERE IS NOTHING FOR THE LIVER

SO GOOD AS

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills.

They will regulate the flow of bile to act properly on the bowels, and will tone, renovate, and purify the liver, removing every result of liver trouble from the temporary, but disagreeable bilious and sick headaches, to the severest forms of liver complaint.

They are small and easy-acting, do not gripe, sicken or weaken like the old fashioned, nauseating, griping purgatives.

Mrs. A. Kirk, 53 Yorkville Ave., Toronto, Ont., writes: "I have tried and tested Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, and have received good results, for which I am very thankful. I took them for liver trouble. I came out of the hospital on May 3rd, last, after having had a serious operation which might have been saved had I taken your remedy sooner. I have given some to my sister for biliousness and sick headache, and she has found great relief. A lady who lives in my house has started to take them. I will do my best to recommend them to all my friends."

lives. I confess that when I hear you tell of the frocks that you have seen downtown and the furs that are displayed on the wax figures in the show windows I begin to think that we live in an elysium of mural and street decorations, a paradise not built by human hands. All must be superlative—lovely, adorable, exquisite."

The telephone rang.

"Hello! Yes, this is Topper speaking. Long distance is calling? All right, I'm ready. Hello? Yes, this is Topper. Well, well, well. Just a minute.

"My dear, you'd never guess in a thousand—"

But the rest of what Topper had meditated saying was lost in a confused mumble into the telephone as he resumed his talk over the wire.
