

THE MEN TO VOTE FOR TOMORROW

MR. P. J. HUGHES

A native of the Parish of Canterbury and one of the best read lawyers in New Brunswick; a graduate of U. N. men; and lecturer in law course; was and is the junior counsel for Mr. Dugal before the Royal Commission.

MR. ELWOOD BURRILL

A native of the Parish of Douglas, one of York's most successful business men; carries on extensive lumbering B., and milling operations; one of the most popular men in York, and will make an ideal representative.

MR. A. B. KITCHEN

A native of the parish of Kingsclear; a sound, independent business man, who will make a splendid representative. Was a member of the City Council for several years. An enthusiastic advocate of good roads.

COUN. W. P. LAWSON

A native of the Parish of Canterbury but now engaged in business at McAdam; has been a county councillor for several years; has given close attention to labor problems; a plain man of the people who deserves support.

GRAFT REVELATIONS A DISGRACE TO PROVINCE

Commenting on the report of the Royal Commission which investigated the Dugal charges, the Quebec Chronicle, a leading Conservative paper, said:

"The terrible revelations of official graft in New Brunswick are a disgrace not only to that Province, but to all Canada. They almost completely destroy public confidence in the honesty of our public men, and unquestionably inspire grave doubts as to the possibility of ever securing anything like an upright administration of public affairs under our present system. Yet no administration ever came into office with more pious professions of high virtue and devotion to the public weal than did the Flemming government of New Brunswick. On the strength of these it literally swept the Province at the last general election in 1912, only two members being returned to support the Opposition.

"There is no longer the shadow of a doubt that loot was the object for which the men now in charge of the government of the Sister Province down by the sea sought office. Their conduct of public affairs was dishonest from the start, and today, under their manipulation, no province in Canada has been so betrayed, so shamed and so degraded as New Brunswick by these same men, who have played in the most heartless manner upon the good faith, the loyalty and the patriotism of their people in order that they might scatter the contents of the treasury among themselves and their heelers."

We have the looters still in power. Turn them out!

COL. McLEOD ACCUSES MR. PINDER OF TREACHERY

The following is the Gleaner's report of a speech delivered at the County Court House on February 12th, 1914, by Colonel H. F. McLeod, then as now, Conservative M. P. for York:

Ever since he was 19 years old he had always been out in the fight at every election in this County, and had always given Mr. Pinder loyal support. On the other hand, MR. PINDER HAD NOT ALWAYS BEEN LOYAL in his support of him (McLeod), AND NO FURTHER EVIDENCE OF THIS FACT WAS NEEDED THAN THE VOTE IN THE LAST GENERAL PROVINCIAL ELECTION AT TEMPERANCE VALE, where Mr. Pinder and his friends had carved his (McLeod's) name off 40 votes.

Regarding the convention at which Mr. Guthrie was nominated, Hon. Mr. McLeod said there was no doubt that the feeling of THE CONVENTION HAD BEEN OVERWHELMINGLY IN FAVOR OF MR. GUTHRIE. The method pursued in conducting the convention had been entirely in accord with the wishes and desires expressed by Mr. Thomas, who had acted as chairman, and it was upon motion of one of Mr. Thomas' supporters, after Mr. Thomas had said that he preferred the selection to be made in that way, that it was decided to make the selection in open convention.

PINDER'S INDEPENDENCE.

Mr. Pinder was trying to praise the Government to an extent and at the same time play the part of an independent man; MR. PINDER'S INDEPENDENCE HAD ALWAYS ASSERTED ITSELF AT A TIME WHEN HE WAS LOOKING TO SERVE SOME PERSONAL ENDS, and felt he could play the "independent" game to make things come his way. It was the first time that Mr. Pinder in his long political career had ever made such an alliance, and it could be construed as nothing more nor less than a desperate man who felt he was making his stand in the last ditch. In this connection he wished to CONTRAST THE STANDS TAKEN BY HIMSELF AND MR. PINDER IN MATTERS IN WHICH THE TEMPERANCE CAUSE WAS AFFECTED, and let the people judge for themselves whether he or Mr. Pinder was the person deserving of the support of the temperance people and of the friends of the cause of temperance.

In 1908, when the Government which had been formed by Hon. Mr. Hazen came into office, one of the first things the members for York were asked to do was to name a police commission to be appointed by the Government for the City of Fredericton, the enforcement of the Scott Act in this city to be one of the functions of the Commission. MR. PINDER NAMED THREE MEN FOR COMMISSIONERS AT THE DICTATES OF THE LIQUOR INTERESTS OF THE CITY; but Hon. Mr. Hazen, who was then Premier, said he would hold up the matter until he (McLeod) came back, being away at the time.

ALD. LEMONT'S OPINION OF PINDER AND YOUNG

Had No Faith in Them as Temperance Men During Election of 1914.

As the temperance question has entered into the present contest, it might be well to reproduce from the Gleaner files the following report of a speech made by Ald. J. M. Lemont at a meeting of temperance workers held in the Y. M. C. A. hall on the eve of the Guthrie-Scott by-election:

"Mr. J. M. Lemont was the next speaker. He referred to Mr. Scott's election card as printed in the public press. There had been no mention of temperance made in that card. 'The card was simply a declaration condemning the Provincial Government for not taking Mr. James K. Pinder into the cabinet. The card might have been written by Mr. Pinder if one were to take its composition for its face value. It stated that 'Mr. Pinder had not been treated properly. This meeting had no feeling towards Mr. Pinder and his misfortunes. We don't feel badly about Mr. Pinder not being taken into the cabinet,' said Mr. Lemont, and there were cries of 'Hear! Hear!' about the room.

"Mr. Lemont stated that the men who had represented York county in the Legislature were not temperance men or in sympathy with the cause. 'They had hoped for Mr. McLeod as one of them, THEN MR. YOUNG, BUT NEITHER HAD SHOWN ANYTHING IN THE WAY OF BEING IN SYMPATHY WITH TEMPERANCE. THE OTHERS (MR. PINDER AND DR. MOREHOUSE) THEY HAD NEVER TAKEN MUCH STOCK IN.'

ROTTEN POLITICS

(St. Andrews Beacon, Conservative.) Provincial politics have been pretty rotten in New Brunswick for a good many years, and if there has been actual improvement in the past two years it has not been conspicuously apparent. The needed awakening of interest in the proper administration of public affairs can only be effected under the leadership of a capable man who will place the public weal before private interests and party exigencies, supported by other men of the same type.
