In 'The Boys of the Bulldog Breed," another sketch arranged by Sergt. Duthie, the work of Major Mersereau, Sergt. Tozer and Sergt. Duthie was heartily applauded. The effectiveness of the sketch was marred, however, by the doors of the auditorium being opened too soon, and many of the audience leaving.

An added number on the programme was that of Miss Winifred Evans, of Toronto, who was heard in two solos. "Remember Nurse Cavell," and "When Your Boy Comes Back to You." This was Miss Evans' first appearance in New Brunswick, although she has appeared frequently in Ontario at military entertainments. Miss Evans was given an encore and very enthusiastically received. She is popularizing Canadian war songs and will appear tonight and Monday night at a local
