Slants of Humor

Two Lancashire men had a fishing match at Scarborough for half a sovereign a side. One of them, fancying he had a bite, was so eager about it that he fell head first into the water. So the other man shouted out:

"That's not fair, Bill! The bet's off. I can beat thee at fair fishing, but I'm not going to stand thee diving in after 'em!"

Two old farmers were seated in the parlor telling of their experiences in life.

"Talkin' o' long feet, I seen some other day that both together made a yard," said the younger of the two.

"Humph!" replied the other. "I once saw a man whose feet were so long that he had to back up to the door to knock at it!"

"See by the paper that coal is soaring," giggled Miss Pert, the pretty sophomore. "Doesn't that contradict the law of gravitation?"

"Not at all, my dear," replied dear old dad. "I do not know of anything which adds more to my gravity."

Judge.

A man won't eat anything that disagrees with him just because it looks enticing, but he'll marry it without a tremor.

Just because a man pleads with you to love him a little, it doesn't signify that he will be happy if you love him a lot.

you send a parcel to your soldier friend in training or at the front, don't forget to put in some Zam-Buk. The soldiers say they cannot get enough of it.

Capt. Brooks, No. 4 Company, 7th Battalion, writing from the front, says: "Tell my friends, if they want to help us, we should be awfully glad of some Zam-Buk. We find it just splendid, and can use all that is sent us."

Nothing takes the place of Zam-Buk amongst the soldiers. They use it for rheumatism, blistered feet, sore hands, cuts, burns and scratches. Being antiseptic, Zam-Buk prevents festering and blood-poisoning. For eczema, or any skin trouble, it is equally good, and for piles there is nothing to compare with Zam-Buk.

All druggists and stores, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. 50c. box, $ for $1.25.
