Better Cake and Biscuits

In all recipes calling for Baking Powder use Royal Baking Powder. You will get better and finer food and insure its healthfulness.

Housewives are sometimes led to use inferior baking powders because of apparent lower cost, but there is very little difference in practical use—about one cent for a whole cake or pan of biscuits—a mere trifle when you consider the vast difference in healthfulness in favor of food made with Royal Baking Powder.

Royal Baking Powder is made from cream of tartar, derived from grapes—a natural food product, as contrasted with alum, derived from mineral sources, and used in the manufacture of some baking powders because it is cheaper.

Was Troubled With Shortness of Breath

Mrs. C. M. Cormier, Buctouche, N. B. When the heart becomes affected, there ensues a feeling of a choking sensation, a shortness of breath, palpitation, throbbing, irregular beating, smothering sensation, dizziness, and a weak, sinking, all gone feeling of oppression and anxiety.

The nerves become unstrung, you dread to be alone, have a horror of society, start at the least noise and are generally fatigued.

On the first sign of the heart becoming weakened or the nerves unstrung, Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills should be taken. They are just what you require at this time. They regulate and stimulate the heart, and strengthen and restore the whole nerve system. writes: "Since two years ago I was troubled with a shortness of breath, and sometimes I could hardly breathe. I went to see several doctors and they said it was from my heart and nerves, but they did not seem to do me any good. One day I got one of your B. B. B. A. Manages and read of a case similar mine.

I bought a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and after taking it I noticed such a change that I kept on taking them until I had used four more boxes, when I was cured." Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c a box, three boxes for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

PREPARING OPIUM IN LONDON'S FILTHY DENS

How the Deadly Drug is Prepared—
Dreams of Blue Butterflies Amid
Sordid Quarters

The interior of an actual opium den in London, Eng., is by no means an exhilarating sight. It is smelly and semi-dark. The odor is of the paraffin lamp and the nauseous smell of the burned drug. Frowzy mattresses upon the floor or low couches are about the room, and the light is from lamps covered with oiled paper shades, generally orange or red. The recumbent figures of coolies, lascars, and others look in their death-like sleep as if they were figures of dirty wax that heat had made to run, and the grin of the imbecile is upon the expressionless features of the figures.

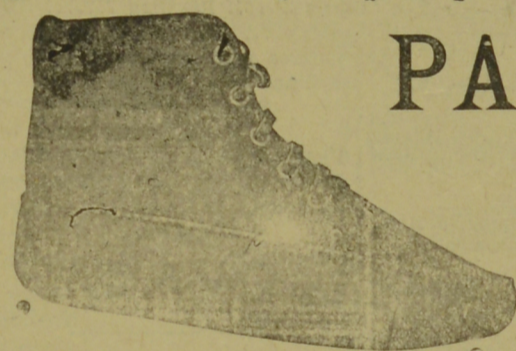

Like Black Honey

The Chinaman who prepares the pipe, which in the East End costs fewer shillings than it does pounds in the West, squats down before a spirit lamp upon a little bamboo table, on which are also the pipes and the little dish of opium. The latter is a thick, sticky substance like honey, blackened. The end of a long thin wire is plunged into this filthy mass and a small portion of it taken up and twirled rapidly round and round until it adheres to the wire in the shape of a ball. This is held in the flame of the spirit lamp and still twirled and twirled while it is roasted, and this is a very necessary and delicate part of the operation and needs the careful watching of the Chinaman.

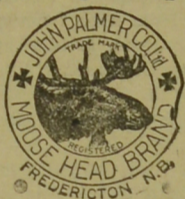

Then the Pipe!

It is soon done to a turn, and then the opium pipe is picked up and loaded with it. The pipe consists of a long reed stem terminating in a small metal bowl, and the roasted ball of opium is pushed well into the latter. It is enough to last but a little while and may need several renewals before the narcotic state of semi-consciousness of utter forgetfulness is reached.

The votary takes slow and deliberate whiffs from the pipe, and as energy evaporates by degrees, his limbs, lethargy supervenes, and at last he lies like a log and dreams of dreams—of paradise. It is said that some that one of the most frequent of the dreams is to see clouds upon clouds of brilliant blue butterflies flitting joyously above blue flowers and under a still bluer sky.
