DRASTIC SLUMP IN STOCKS ON THE NEW YORK MARKET; MANY ISSUES WERE HARD HIT

New York, May 22—Wall street today experienced the most drastic reaction in securities prices since the beginning of the so called "Coolidge bull market" five years ago, as a result of the storm of liquidation set in motion by the Federal Reserve Council's recommendation of an increase from five to six per cent. in rediscount rates. Fifty or more issues on the New York stock exchange broke $5 to $18 a share, many of them to new low records for the year, in a reaction which wiped out more than a billion dollars in quoted values in a single session.

Despite the severity of the decline the selling, which came from all parts of the country, was orderly in character. The day's total sales fell below $5,000,000 shares as contrasted with a series of 5,000,000 to 8,000,000 share sessions in March, when the "money pinch" first began to feel acute.

Stocks Dumped

Execution of last minute selling orders delayed the printing of the final quotations until 33 minutes after the close.

Hundreds of traders, whose marginal accounts had been impaired, dumped their stocks "at the market" rather than put up more collateral.

This was in strange contrast to previous reactions when demand for more margin was readily forthcoming, and undoubtedly reflected the destruction of speculators hopes that the tight money situation could be alleviated without resort to restrict discounts rates.

No Announcements

Directors of the Boston Federal Reserve Bank met today and made no announcement regarding the rate, but widespread rumors were in circulation during the afternoon that a higher rate had been voted. Directors of the New York Federal Reserve Bank met after the close tomorrow, and the Chicago directors on Friday, and both are reported previously to have sought permission of the Federal Reserve Board to raise the rate which until now has been refused.

U. S. COLLECTOR DENIES EULER'S STATEMENTS

Detroit, Mich., May 22—Carey D. Ferguson, United States collector of customs at Detroit, today denied assertions of laxity and insincerity of border patrol officers in their hunting of the liquor smuggling problem as made by Hon. W. D. Euler, Canadian minister of national revenue, in the House of Commons at Ottawa yesterday.

He argued, however, that the thwarting of rum runners is primarily the concern of the United States.

The Detroit River is more dangerous for rum-runners today than it has been for years and landing of liquor at Detroit within sight of the customs house is a "thing of the past," Mr. Ferguson declared. Mr. Euler's assertion of laxity of the border patrol are directed at the organization of the past, he said. "Today, we have men appointed after a civil service examination, men trained in a customs school before coming to Detroit, and men of a much higher calibre than we had in the past," he declared.

WOMAN 68, PLANS SIXTH MARRIAGE

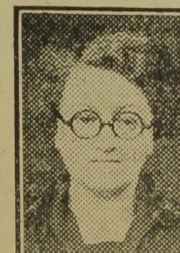

Jersey City, N. J., May 23—Nellie Ellaby Doyle, 68, who was left fairly well off by the death of her fourth husband is to take as her sixth, Fred Fox, 30 a travelling salesman of Miami. Last year she divorced her fifth, Jimmy Doyle, who was a 25 year old soda clerk and boarder at her home when they married.

Mr. Adolphe Eardley, who has been taking a course at an electrical school in New York, returned home yesterday.

"A GREAT TONIC," SAYS MRS. RUSSELL

After Taking Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Fenwick, Ont.—"I am taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound during the change of life for nervous feelings, loss of appetite and to gain strength. It is a great tonic and I have taken a dozen bottles of it. It was recommended to me by a friend and now I recommend it to all women for such troubles as come at this time."
—Mrs. W. V. RUSSELL, R. R. No. 5, Fenwick, Ontario.

EMPIRE DAY PROGRAMS WERE HELD TODAY

given copies of Canada's Coat-of-Arms with description of town in which Sir Leonard Tilley's motto from "sea to sea" is used.

Prof. Adam Cameron, chemistry instructor of the University of New Brunswick was the principal speaker at this school. Mrs. Alex. MacRae, 1st vice-regent with Mrs. A. D. Holyoke represented the chapter.

At the Morrison's Mills school a picture of the late Field Marshal Sir Douglas Haig was presented with a Coat-of-Arms for the two rooms. Mrs. C. McN. Steeves was present representing the Sir Howard Douglas Chapter. Rev. J. G. Berry, pastor of the St. Andrew's church was the speaker. At the Doak Settlement school volumes 7 and 8 of Canadian History Readers were given the school to complete a full school of these books. Scout Commissioner Ald. LeBaron Bull was the speaker. To the Salmon Hurst school in Victoria county, the Coat-of-Arms of Canada was presented.

A flag chart was presented to the school at Lower Hainesville by the chapter. Pins and buttons also were presented to individual students for the reading of at least ten of the I. O. D. E. library books within the year. Similar exercises were carried out in the Minto school, and the Pritchley school at Hampstead, in which presentations of buttons and flags were made.

Other Chapters.

The Governor Carleton Chapter carried out similar Empire Day programs at several of the schools. At the High School an interesting program was conducted. The principal addresses were given by Louise Tibert, winner of the Provincial Oratorical contest held recently, and Howard Douglas, South Devon boy who will attend the Scout Jamboree in Birkenhead, England this summer. The former spoke on the "Mineral Resources of the Province" and the latter on "The Flag". Beverly Leonard was the chairman. The other items on the program were as follows: Chorus, "O Canada" by the school; Selection by orchestra, "Jolly Bandits"; Piano Trio, Ida Patterson, Helen Smith and Beatrice Harvey; Selection by orchestra; Reading, Miss Ruth Atkinson; Vocal Duet, the Misses Erma and Glenith Burt; Selection by orchestra; Chorus, "Come Spring", by the school; Patriotic drill by 16 girls.

The other Chapters, Anagwakade, Picardy and the Victor Hatheway Chapter also carried out programs in the schools and the usual presentations and programs took place. Prizes for best standing in various subjects were given out by the various I. O. D. E. Chapters and the day observed in the annual and patriotic manner.
