A CURE FOR WASTEFULNESS

This thoughtless young woman is an exception in Canada, and not the rule. Her wastage would pay for many bonds. But even economical people, by a little greater economy, can add to their share in the Victory Loan.

HARD TO CALL UP.

"Good mornin' Mrs. O'Flaherty, an' has yer husband been called up yet?" "Not yit, Mrs. McLanagan, thanks be! He's got six months' expension because he's doin' work of rational deportment. They've put him into semitary dooty abroad, but when I thinks of the trouble I has to get him up every mornin' an' off to wurk, it's a fair puzzle to me how the government'll be able to call him up. If his own wife can't call him, who in the wurld can?"

ITALIAN TOWN CAPTURED.

(Canadian Press direct wires.)
Berlin, Nov. 16. — The town of Cismone, on the northern Italian front, has been captured, the war office announces. Near the Adriatic, on the western bank of the Piave, Hungarian troops advanced and captured one thousand Italians.

The Russians must be a great people after all. Think of being able to debate in a language like a steam exhaust!

POLITICS AND THE SOLDIERS

London, Nov. 16.—The Canadian headquarters is reminding camp commanders that the King's regulations for political meetings among the soldiers must be strictly enforced. All civilians entering the camps should hold a pass. It is understood this reminder has been issued after consultation with the scrutineers for both sides.

Electioneering among the troops will seemingly be confined to the distribution of literature.

W. T. R. Preston, the Liberal scrutineer, occupied a page of a Canadian paper published here with an advertisement withan appeal to the soldier voters.

NORTHCLIFFE TELLS WHY HE CANNOT JOIN THE MINISTRY

His Letter to Premier Lloyd George is Made Public--His Lordship Tells of the Good Work Being Accomplished in the United States--Britain Has an Efficient Army Which is Led by a Great General ---A Warning in Regard to the U. S.

(Canadian Press direct wire.)
London, Nov. 16. — Lord Northcliffe's letter to Premier Lloyd George declining a proffered cabinet position follows:

"Dear Prime Minister—

"I have given anxious consideration to your repeated invitations that I should take charge of the new air ministry. The reason which impelled me to decline that great honor and responsibility are in no way concerned with the office which is rightly to be set up. They are roughly as follows:

"Returning after five months spent in the virile atmosphere of the United States and Canada, I find that while these two countries are proceeding with their war preparations with a fervor and enthusiasm little understood on this side of the Atlantic; while the United States instantly put into operation conscription over which we wobbled for two years and is making short work of sedition mongers; while Canada has already given such proofs of thoroughness as the disfranchisement of conscientious objectors and the denaturalization of all aliens naturalized within the last fifteen years; while we, for our part, are asking immense sacrifices from these peoples there still are in office here those who dally with such urgent questions as that of unity of war control, eradication of sedition, mobilization of the whole man and woman power of the country and the introduction of compulsory rations.

Too Much Delay.

"I had personal experience while in America of obstruction and delay in certain departments in London, which for example, postponed sending Lord Reading's vital and most successful mission. I find censorship still misused and that men in various positions of authority who should have been punished have been retained and in some cases elevated. The spirit of the men and women of Great Britain is clearly as eager and splendid as ever. We have, in my belief, the most efficient army in the world, led by one of the greatest generals and I am well aware of the fine achievements of many others of our soldiers, sailors and statesmen, but I feel in the present circumstances that I can do better work if I maintain my independence and am not gagged by a loyalty that I do not feel towards the whole administration.

"I take this opportunity of thanking you and the war cabinet for the handsome message of praise sent to me as representing the five hundred officials of the British war mission to the United States, many of them volunteers and exiles. Their achievements and those of their ten thousand assistants deserve to be better known by their countrymen. The fact that their work is not known is due to the absurd secrecy about the war which still is prevalent. Everything these officials are doing is known to our American friends, and, of course, to the Germans.

"I trust I make no breach of confidence in saying that some of the documents which have passed through my hands as head of the mission are such as if published, would greatly increase our prestige in the United States and hearten our people at home.

A Warning Note.

"May I also take this opportunity of giving warning about our relations with that great people from whom I come. We have had the tragedy of Russia, due partly to lack of Allied propaganda to counteract that of the Germans. We have had the tragedy of Italy, largely due to that same enemy propaganda. We have had the tragedies of Serbia, Rumania and Mon-

RHEUMATISM CURED

In the days of our fathers and grandfathers rheumatism was thought to be the unavoidable penalty of middle life and old age. Almost every elderly person had rheumatism, as well as many young people. Medical science did not understand the trouble—did not know that it was rooted in the blood. It was thought that rheumatism was the mere effect of exposure to cold and damp, and it was treated with liniments and hot applications, which sometimes gave temporary relief, but did not cure the trouble. In those days there were thousands of rheumatic cripples. Now, medical science understands that rheumatism is a disease of the blood and that with good, rich red blood any man or woman of any age can defy rheumatism. It can be cured by killing the poison in the blood which causes it. There are many elderly people who have never felt a twinge of rheumatism, and many who have conquered it by simply keeping their blood rich and pure. The blood making, blood enriching qualities of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is becoming every year more widely known and it is the more general use of these pills that has robbed rheumatism of its terrors. At the first sign of poor blood, which is shown by loss of appetite, palpitations, dull skin, and dim eyes, protect yourself against the further ravages of disease by taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They have cured thousands of people—if you give them a fair trial they will not disappoint you.

You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

A SLUGGISH LIVER CAUSES LOTS OF TROUBLE

When the liver becomes sluggish it is an indication that the bowels are not working roerly and if they do not move regularly many complications are liable to set in.

The symptoms are a feeling of fullness or weight in the right side, and shooting pains in the same region, pains between the shoulders, yellowness of the skin and eyes, floating specks before the eyes, coated tongue, bad taste in the morning, heartburn, waterbrash, etc.

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills gently unlock the secretions, clear away all effete and waste matter from the system, and give tone and vitality to the whole intestinal track, and are by far the safest and quickest remedy for all diseases or disorders of the liver.

Mrs. A. Cummings, Manchester, Ont., writes: "I have used Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills some time, and can faithfully recommend them to anyone suffering from heartburn and liver trouble. I tried a great many other remedies, but they only relieved me for a time. I believe Laxa-Liver Pills to be a valuable remedy for all sufferers from liver troubles."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c. a vial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Mulburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
