COL. McLEOD NOMINATED.

The Conservatives of York-Sunbury in convention yesterday afternoon nominated Col. H. F. McLeod, the late member for York, as their candidate in the approaching elections. A cut-and-dried programme was carried out, and it was made to appear that the nomination was unanimous. There were several other aspirants for the honor—men who have been doing a great deal of talking outside, but when it came to a show-down they were not there with the goods. They were not overly anxious to buck up against the gallant Colonel in open convention, and their ardent no doubt cooled off somewhat with the knowledge that a nomination would not carry with it an election by acclamation. The prospect of a fierce battle at the polls made it much more easy for Colonel McLeod to win out than would otherwise have been the case.

The convention which nominated Mr. McLeod did not carry the "union label"—it was a Tory convention pure and simple—and the selection of a candidate was a mere matter of form. Some old-time political warriors were conspicuous by their absence, the veteran, Mr. J. K. Pinder, being among the number. It was Mr. Pinder who proposed Colonel McLeod's name for nomination at a Tory convention in the same building nearly four years ago, and he has long been imbued with a sort of feeling that the Colonel returned him evil for good. Having been stung once, the old gentleman took no chances yesterday, and remained away. Mr. Pinder, like all loyal Canadians, is anxious to win the war, but probably differs with his brother Tories in some matters of detail and methods.

Col. McLeod, in his speech of acceptance, complained that he had been vilified during his sojourn overseas. He was quite right in this, and if he does not know it already, he has some friends who can tell him that the chief offenders are of his own political complexion. Having been able to secure a unanimous nomination in spite of their efforts to have him thrust aside, he can very well afford to be charitable with them at this stage of the game.

The nomination of Col. McLeod as a candidate will be likely to clear the atmosphere somewhat. The people will now readily understand why the negotiations for a compromise in this constituency resulted in failure.

So far as one can tell, every man, woman and child in this constituency is anxious to win the war, but it is going to be a difficult task to convince them that the issue hangs on the re-election of Col. H. F. McLeod to the Federal Parliament.

FLAVELLE MUST GO.

An Ottawa despatch to the Toronto Daily News says:

"While the Henderson report into the packing houses has not yet been made public, it is understood that it will show that the Wm. Davies Company made eighty per cent. profit in 1916, on the basis not of the original capital, but of all the money working in the business. This totals something like $1,600,000."

As the News derives its information from sources pretty close to the government, it would rather seem that the charge of profiteering made against Sir Joseph Flavelle had been fairly well established.

It now remains to be seen what the Government's attitude is toward those who made this inquiry necessary. As the Victoria Colonist says, "the government has now an opportunity of making an example of profiteering that is both shameful and immoral." Or, to quote another prominent western journal, the Regina Leader, "One of the big problems to which Union government will have to give early attention, and in regard to which it must take drastic action if it is to command and retain the support of the people, is the question of profiteering."

Mr. H. F. Gadsby, the well known political writer, of Ottawa, voices public sentiment very well with respect to Sir Joseph when he says:

"Sir Joseph Flavelle, the philanthropist, had no qualms about making three million and a half dollars out of the soldiers' breakfast. Moreover, he made it in the process. To hell with profits! To hell with any profits that work slower than a million and three-quarters a year! Sir Joseph's motto is service. Work and serve. Quite so. He served—but he served himself first. "If Sir Joseph has no qualms about making three million and a half dollars out of the world's agony, Union government should display a similar lack of nausea in taking perhaps three millions of it away from him, by taxes or any other lawful means, so be it done quickly. Canada needs the money. It needs the money even more than Sir Joseph, who snaps his fingers at royal commissions, and goes on charging what he likes for bacon. Sir Joseph makes the rate. Mostly he makes it more. It is a long time now since he made it less. It's not only bad form to make it less, but as a baronet he cannot afford it. The ancestral hall—Sir Joseph intends to be an ancestor—in Queen's Park, Castle Gammon, a boar's head and two pig's feet over the gate, has to be kept up."

If the Union government has not already done so, it should lose no time in dropping a strong hint to Sir Joseph to the effect that he can save money for the Allies and thus help win the war by promptly quitting his job.

Anti-Union government speakers are today on the hustings twisting the issue before the people from the war to bacon. Union government, even if it wins, and it may not without the sternest sort of a fight, will develop sufficient barnacles without starting out under a handicap. The presence of Sir Joseph Flavelle as the head of a department spending hundreds of millions of Canadian money annually, is, under the circumstances, a dangerous and unnecessary load for any government to undertake to carry, says Toronto Saturday Night.

Through Our Sieve

V-bonds will defeat U-boats.

Buy Victory bonds—yes, you!

A war-time election ain't so different.

To which candidate will you tie the can?

Of course you'll hear from the fellow who'd like to can both.

By the way, one way to conserve light is to go to bed earlier.

Russia's socialistic revolution was also made in Germany.

Germany even makes better revolutions for export than for home consumption.

Local politicians are now helping food conservation by eating crow and swallowing bitter pills.

The extreme joy of the Germans over the Italian affair has a pathetic aspect.

The Kaiser's physicians say he needs a rest. He does—arrest, conviction and sentence.

If those Italians ever start going ahead as fast as they have been going back lately, the Teutons will wish they were at home and in bed.

The workmen and soldiers are now running Petrograd. The workmen will not work and the soldiers will not fight—otherwise business as usual.

A Coming Attraction.

The Women's Institute have booked the Boston Harmony Glee Club for the Opera House, Friday evening, Nov. 23rd.

The Harmony Glee Club is a really great male quartette. As a singing quartette, after five successful seasons, they have no superiors. Their ensemble singing is as nearly perfect as the exquisite blending of splendid voices can make it. Each member is also an accomplished soloist.

But they are more than a great singing quartette. Each man is an entertainer, whether it be the Scotch dialect stories; the pianologues; the character songs; or the uproarious comedy. Each fills its own important place on the program, adding richness and variety to the entertainment.

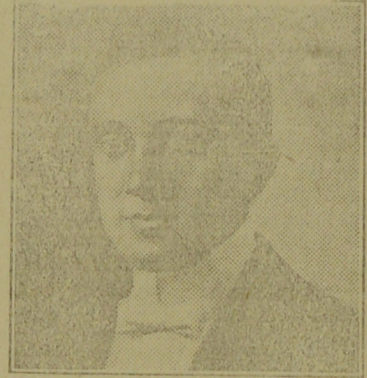

When to the above you add the full mellow music of that wonderful instrument, the organ chimes, played by all four men, you have a combination of grandeur and beauty, of power and sweetness that will never be forgotten.

The proceeds of this entertainment will be devoted to buying yarn for knitting socks for our boys in the trenches. The entertainment should be well patronized. Plan of hall at Ryan's drug store on Monday.

NOTED MUSICIAN OF MONTREAL

Advises The Use Of "FRUIT-A-TIVES", The Famous Fruit Medicine.

MR. ROSENBERG
589 Casgrain St., Montreal.
April 20th, 1915.

"In my opinion, no other medicine in the world is so curative for Constipation and Indigestion as 'Fruit-a-tives'. I was a sufferer from these complaints for five years, and my sedentary occupation, music, brought about a kind of Intestinal Paralysis—with nasty Headaches, belching gas, drowsiness after eating, and Pain in the Back. I tried pills and medicines of physicians, but nothing helped me. Then I was induced to try 'Fruit-a-tives', and now for six months I have been entirely well.

I advise any one who suffers from that horrible trouble—Chronic Constipation with the resultant indigestion, to try 'Fruit-a-tives', and you will be agreeably surprised at the great benefit you will receive". A. ROSENBERG.

THREE CLASS A MEN REFUSED EXEMPTION

Fourteen Exemptions Allowed Yesterday—Two Class D Men Ordered for Re-Examination.

Tribunal No. 54 under the Military Service Act dealt with a large number of cases yesterday. Class A men applying for exemption were refused to the number of three. Exemption was allowed in the following cases: Class B, 1; Class C, 2; Class E, 11. Two men of Class D were ordered to report back to the medical board for re-examination at the expiration of a certain length of time. Ten cases in which the medical category was unknown were adjourned.

"THE FIGHTING TRAIL"

IS A "BEAR" OF A PICTURE.

And the NOVELIZATION is in the same class. To be in the "running" you'll SEE THE PICTURE, and the NOVEL will be a welcome addition to the screen portrayal you have already witnessed.

THE DAILY MAIL HAS SECURED the exclusive right to publish Each Instalment of THIS MARVELOUS SERIAL THE DAY AFTER IT IS SHOWN AT THE GEM THEATRE

Good Bye, Old Time Melodrama!

Sorry to see you go, but the new melodrama is here—"THE FIGHTING TRAIL." Greater Vitaphone's Duncan-Holloway Serial. The mortgage on the old home hasn't a chance in this, the only kind of melodrama that goes in that of brand new thrills and sensations. And there are dozens of 'em in every episode. William Duncan and Carol Holloway risk their necks two dozen times in THIS serial and THAT'S what we call melodrama! Stunts that amaze and mystify. Be sure to see it.

Lemons Beautify!

Strain lemon juice well before mixing and massage face, neck, arms, hands.

What girl or woman hasn't heard of lemon juice to remove complexion blemishes; to bleach the skin and to bring out the roses, the freshness and the hidden beauty? But lemon juice alone is acid, therefore irritating, and should be mixed with orchard white this way. Strain through a fine cloth the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing about three ounces of orchard white, then shake well and you have a whole quarter pint of skin and complexion lotion at about the cost one usually pays for a small jar of ordinary cold cream. Be sure to strain the lemon juice so no pulp gets into the bottle, then this lotion will remain pure and fresh for months. When applied daily to the face, neck, arms and hands it should help to bleach, clear, smoothen and beautify the skin.

Any druggist will supply three ounces of orchard white at very little cost and the grocer has the lemons.

St. John Globe—Mrs. C. H. Ramsey of this city returned home yesterday from Bathurst, where she was visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Ryan.
