

GERMAN SPY WAS ENSIGN IN THE UNITED STATES NAVY

Man Who Gave His Name as William J. Dunbar Now Being Held at Ellis Island --Was in Command of a Submarine Patrol--Was Dropped From the Navy For the Good of the Service.

New York, Oct. 21. — The man arrested and taken to the enemy alien camp on Ellis Island, and who gave the name of "William J. Dunbar," proves to be a German who shortly after the outbreak of the war was able to deceive the examining officers of the Third Naval District as to his nationality and to win for himself an appointment as an ensign in the United States Naval Reserve. Whether or not "Dunbar" is being detained as a spy suspect or as an ordinary enemy alien was a question no federal official in New York would answer.

"Dunbar" was brought to New York from Ellis Island and subjected to a rigid examination by federal officials. It was announced by the government that Dunbar was enrolled in the Naval Reserve last May as an ensign. He is said to have been in command of a submarine patrol vessel employed in the North Atlantic coast patrol.

"Dunbar" it is said, may face a naval court martial and if investigations now under way justify the move he may be tried as a German spy. In his papers which were filed when he applied for a commission in the Naval Reserve, "Dunbar" swore that he was a native-born American and gave St. Paul as the place of his birth. The facts in the possession of the government show that he is a native of Hamburg, Germany. The name "Dunbar" is said to be assumed. His German name has not been disclosed by the authorities.

SAYS A CORN ACTS LIKE ELECTRIC BELL

Tells why a corn is so painful and says cutting makes them grow.

Press an electric button and you form a contact with a live wire which rings the bell. When your shoes press against your corn it pushes its sharp roots down upon the sensitive nerve and you get a shock of pain.

Instead of trimming your corns, which merely makes them grow, just step into any drug store and ask for a quarter of an ounce of freezone. This will cost very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. A few drops applied directly upon a tender, aching corn stops the soreness instantly, and soon the corn shrivels up so it lifts right out, root and all, without pain. This drug never inflames or even irritates the surrounding tissue or skin.

Slants of Humor

TO A YOUNG SINGER.

Expression is the thing, dear heart;
Care not by whom you're heard;
Consider you're the perfect art
Of any bird.
Or mocking bird or guinea fowl,
Canary, goose or coot,
Why, sing the part—if you're an owl
HOOT!

The Lady—And you may say we suspect a discharged butler of the robbery.
Reporter—When was he discharged?
The Lady—Oh, we really never kept a butler; but I think it sounds quite well.

OBVIOUSLY.

"Come on," said the first flea, as he hopped from the brown bear's left foreleg; "come over and join me in a short game of golf."

"Golf," exclaimed the second flea, hastily taking a bite of hyena; "where in the realm of Barnum are we going to play golf?"

"Why," said the first flea, "over on the lynx, of course."

WHOM WE REVERE.

Some time ago a Scotchman was showing an American visitor the sights of Glasgow. Passing a statue, he turned to his guest and said, with reverent emphasis: "That's the statue of the great John Knox."

"Who was he?" asked the American to which the shocked Scot replied: "Hoot, mon, d'ye no read your Bible?"

DISSOLVE IT IN YOUR MOUTH

That's the way to take the Peps treatment. Nothing can equal it for asthma. Mr. Fred Hinz of Saskatchewan Landing, Sask., says: "I suffered with asthma for years, and although I tried many remedies, Peps is the only remedy that has brought me relief from this distressing ailment."

The victory of Peps over asthma is due to the fact that Peps is a breathe-able remedy, and is therefore capable of reaching all the minute air passages which ordinary remedies, that go to the stomach, cannot reach.

This treatment is also the best for coughs, colds, catarrh, bronchitis, laryngitis and all other affections of the throat and lungs. All dealers or Peps Co., Toronto. 50c box, 3 for $1.25.

sought service under the American flag. Who he is and how he came to be in the United States are other phases of the case which have not been disclosed by the authorities.

The case of "Dunbar" has opened the eyes of the authorities to the spy menace as no other arrest has done. It has revealed that a German was able to appear before an examining board of naval officers and convince them that he was a loyal American citizen of other than German ancestry and to be subsequently recommended for a commission in the naval reserve and after that assigned to important sea service. At the Hotel Manhattan, where "Dunbar" stayed when in New York, it was said that he neither looked nor talked like a German.

THE MOVIE HEROINE.

(New York Sun.)

My movie queen! my movie queen!
So sweet and full of virtue,
No matter what they do to you,
They never seem to hurt you!
They tie you to the railroad tracks,
They blow you up with powder;
They pour invective in your ears,
And poison in your chowder.
But still you never come to harm;
You only laugh the louder!

My movie queen! my movie queen!
What is the secret charm?
No matter what they do to you,
You never come to harm!

The scarlet-robed adventuress
Purloins your marriage papers,
The handsome villain always cuts
Ungentlemanly capers.
They drop you from an aeroplane,
They drown you in a river—
I sit and watch the plots they hatch
Until I pale and shiver.

I see them aiming guns at you
Or doctoring your candy.
I see them choking you with ropes,
Or anything that's handy,
And tremble for my movie queen;
The villains get me worried;
But through it all my movie queen
Is smiling and unfurried.

They tie you in the haunted house
And menace you with axes;
They send you into cholera camps,
Devoid of prophylaxis;
They throw you in a sausage mill,
And chortle as they grind it.
My movie queen, my movie queen,
You never seem to mind it!

But in the end, my movie queen,
Your goodness earns its price—
Death comes to them as has done
Wrong,
And wealth to them that's nice!
You weep a glycerine tear or two,
And with the hero chapple
You osculate for thirty feet,
And all is well and happy.

Your secret, girl, is wonderful,
If one could only find it,
For even when he kisses you
You do not seem to mind it!

Women are entering practically every industry in the United States, and what is more, they are "making good" everywhere.

BRITISH ADMIRAL SAYS

ROYAL NAVAL CLUB,

To the Zam-Buk Co. Portsmouth, England.
Dear Sirs,—I have found Zam-Buk most reliable for healing cuts and abrasions; while for the relief of skin irritation it is invaluable.
(Signed) RODNEY M. LLOYD, Admiral.

ENTIRE CREW PRAISES ZAM-BUK

From Admiral to stoker, all grades of service praise Zam-Buk. Stoker Kingsnorth, of H.M.S. "Cochrane," says:—"I slipped and fell on an exhaust steam pipe, which fairly frizzled the skin on my arm. At once the ship's surgeon dressed the burn, but the injury would not heal owing to a lot of dirt from the pipe causing blood-poison. I was in fearful pain and didn't know how to get ease."

"For weeks I remained under treatment, but the ordinary ointments proved no good. Indeed, I got worse. I therefore obtained a supply of Zam-Buk and almost as soon as this was applied I got ease. From the very first application, healing commenced; and a few boxes of Zam-Buk healed my wound completely."

EXEMPTION TRIBUNALS.

Exemption Boards have been chosen in such a way as to make them absolutely independent and removed from all influence. There are over 1,250 boards throughout the country, each composed of two men, one appointed by the county judge in the district concerned and one selected by a joint committee of Parliament. Being familiar with local conditions where they sit, the members are well-fitted to appreciate such reasons for exemption as are put before them by men called up.

Exemption will be granted to those who can establish that it is in the national interest that they remain in civilian life. This is for the Exemption Board to decide after having received full information in each case.

The grounds on which exemption may be claimed (which are similar to the grounds recognized in Great Britain and the United States) are as follows:—

- That it is expedient in the national interest that the man should instead of being employed in Military Service, be engaged in other work in which he is habitually engaged.
- That it is expedient in the national interest that the man should instead of being employed in Military Service, be engaged in other work in which he wishes to be engaged and for which he has special qualifications.
- That it is expedient in the national interest that, instead of being employed in Military Service, he should continue to be educated or trained for any work for which he is then being educated and trained.
- That serious hardship would ensue, if the man were placed on active service, owing to his exceptional financial or business obligations or domestic position.
- Ill health or infirmity.
- That he conscientiously objects to the undertaking of combatant service and is prohibited from doing so by tenets and articles of faith, in effect on the sixth day of July, 1917, of any organized religious denomination existing and well recognized in Canada at such date, and to which he in good faith belongs.
- That he should be exempt because disfranchised under the War Time Election Act.

No Claim for Exemption should be put forward unless one or other of these grounds in fact exists, and no loyal citizen should assist in, or allow himself to be made a party to, any Claim for Exemption unless thoroughly satisfied that it is made in good faith.

Exemption may be applied for by the men selected themselves or by their parents, near relatives or employers. Application for exemption must be made on printed forms to be found at every post office, which are to be filled in and left with the postmaster if exemption is desired. The postmaster will forward the form to a Registrar, who will send it to the appropriate Exemption Board. In due time, then, the Applicant will get notice as to when he must present his case before the Board.
