TRIBUTE TO CANADIANS.

Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, who spoke in Toronto on Monday on behalf of the Victory Loan, seems to have made a big hit with the people of the Queen City. The ex-President is a man of acknowledged ability and has the habit of speaking out plainly.

His address was an inspiring one and will be read with great interest all over the continent. In the course of his remarks he paid a glowing tribute to Canada and Canadians when he said:

"You Canadians have seen mighty days, and you have been equal to the mighty days. You have played your part in such fashion that your children's children for generation after generation shall hold their heads high and look all the world in the face without flinching. You have proved your truth by your endeavor. You have spent your wealth and your blood with wise lavishness that is beyond praise. Your effort in men and in money has been the amplest vindication of the claim of those of us who assert that a free democracy, if its men and women are of the right kind, will rise with proud sufficiency to the level of any crisis. And you are made of that stern stuff which never looks back when once the hand has to be put to the plow. Whatever loans of money, whatever levies of men are needed, you will see that the need is met.

"I speak the literal truth when I say that what has been accomplished by you Canadians and by your brothers of the continents and islands which lie under the Southern Cross, is without a parallel in history. You and they have sent your stalwart sons in hundreds of thousands across the vast oceans, down beyond the rim of the world, to fight on fields of ancient fame which their deeds have rendered still more famous. From the ends of the earth the sons of freedom have gathered to wage the great war against tyranny. This action was the supreme justification of the liberty loving, self-respecting and respectful of the rights of others—which your several commonwealths have enjoyed."

Col. Roosevelt has in more ways than one during the past three years shown himself to be an uncompromising foe of Prussian militarism and all that it implies. As Sir Thomas White well expressed it, "he has been of incalculable service in mobilizing the naval forces of the world against Germany and its iniquities."

SOME GOOD REASONS.

There are nearly half a million reasons for buying Canada's Victory Loan bonds. Here are a few:

1. Money will be spent in Canada.
2. Money thus spent on Britain's behalf offsets Britain's payments to our soldiers overseas.
3. Money raised in Canada does not add to Canada's obligations abroad.
4. Money invested in Victory Bonds encourages the saving habit.
5. By denying themselves luxuries in order to buy Victory Bonds, Canadians will release labor for munitions which is now employed in making luxuries, and will also reduce Canada's importations of luxuries.
6. As a business proposition, the Victory Loan is gilt-edged.
7. It pays 5½ per cent.
8. The bonds can be bought in as low a denomination as $50.
9. They can be purchased on the easy payment plan at par.
10. Those who wish to complete their whole payment in January get a further discount.
11. The bonds can be sold any time; the cash invested is not "tied up" for the five, ten or twenty years which the bonds run.
12. There is no red tape about buying a bond—just your promise to pay.
13. There is no red tape about receiving the interest; take a coupon to the nearest bank, half yearly.
14. Even the $50 bonds can be registered so that in case of fire or loss the owner is protected.
15. Principal and interest are payable in gold.
16. The government is pledged not to tax income from these bonds.
17. The security for payment is the whole of Canada.

Vancouver Sun: Ninety per cent. of the food consumed in Canada passes through the hands of women. A great responsibility therefore rests upon them to conserve supplies needed in Europe and to utilize perishable foods as far as possible. Waste in all its many forms should be regarded not only as shortsighted folly, but as actual disloyalty, in this world crisis. It is important that nourishing food should be provided, suited to the needs of the different members of the family. Arbitrary rules in this case are of little value, but the principle may be generally applied and the women in the households of the nation can do no more important patriotic service than by guarding against waste.

A Detroit despatch states that Henry Ford has subscribed for $500,000 worth of Canada Victory bonds. Mr. Ford is one of the shrewdest business men in the world. His judgment of the value of Victory Bonds should be good enough to follow.

Remember, that Victory bonds will be on the market for two days more. They are a gilt-edged investment.

If you have not yet bought your Victory Bond, get busy at once.

A woman will deny that she goes from one extreme to another—and then button her shoes with a hairpin.

Many a man with an evident aspiration to figure as a footnote to history wakes up to find himself a doormat to the same.

One thing no wife can understand is why her husband thinks the women he used to dance with when they were girls are still good looking.

Our own happens to be the generation upon which falls the burden of fighting the war. But to us will also belong the high privilege of telling about it afterward.

"It is getting to be more and more of a disgrace to be rich," says Old Ivorydome. "Thank goodness I can leave my children in this respect an untarnished name."

MR. PORTER WAS ASKED TO WITHDRAW

Convention of Liberals Held at Andover Endorsed the Minister of Public Works.

Andover, Nov. 27. — Liberal delegates to the number of 77 out of 82, or two for each polling division in Victoria-Carleton, met here today. It was perhaps the most representative gathering that has assembled in either county. R. W. Demmings presided.

He stated that one reason for calling the convention was that at a meeting held in Bath with James E. Porter and his friends, Mr. Porter, who is the Laurierite candidate, requested that a convention be called and that he would accept the views of the convention as to his remaining in the contest.

A resolution was moved and carried that "this convention does not approve of contesting this election and that Mr. Porter be respectfully requested to withdraw from the contest."

Every delegate present in brief speeches supported Union government and disapproved holding an election. Dr. Earle of Perth, Dr. Coffin of Plaster Rock, Donald Fraser, S. S. Miller, Thos. Caldwell, C. L. Smith, ex-Sheriff Hayward, A. D. McCain and George McLeod spoke strongly in favor of Union government.

It was a most impressive scene when Joseph Rolston, a delegate from Northampton, arose and in trembling voice said: "I have five sons in the war. Only a few days ago I received a letter from one saying, send us help and sent it quickly." This was the keynote of the whole meeting.

James E. Porter, who lives here, was invited to the hall and made a long speech in which he dwelt on the misdeeds of the Borden government. He denied that he had offered to withdraw, but Mr. McCain and others who were present bluntly told him he did. In the course of his remarks he said: "A man in the field today is worth more than a man in the trenches." He was patiently listened to during his long speech but when he attacked the honesty of Hon. F. B. Carvell in accepting office in the Union government, the meeting very clearly indicated its strong disapproval of his remarks. He did not say he would withdraw from the fight, and the impression seems to be that he will stay.

The following resolution was passed unanimously by a standing vote amid the greatest enthusiasm:

"That this meeting is in hearty accord with Union government and earnestly supports Hon. F. B. Carvell. The delegates will leave for their homes tomorrow and organization of every parish will commence at once.

There are 2,700 women in the constituency entitled to vote, and women's clubs will be organized to get every name on the list.

CHARLES MOYER DIED IN WOODS NEAR McADAM

C. P. R. Fireman Living at St. Stephen—Went Hunting Friday and was Bogged in a Swamp.

The dead body of Charles Moyer, a C.P.R. fireman, was found buried waist deep in a swamp about five miles from McAdam Junction last Saturday night. Moyer went out hunting Friday morning and it is believed he got astray while tracking a deer. The physician who examined the body believed that Moyer perished from exposure Friday night.

Moyer, who lived at St. Stephen, went into the woods near McAdam about 10 o'clock Friday morning. He did not return within reasonable time, so a search party was organized. All Friday night and during Saturday the woods were scoured. About 11 o'clock at night the searchers struck this swamp. Some distance from the solid ground the body was seen buried to the waist. It was frozen stiff.

It was removed and was sent to St. Stephen, where burial took place Monday. Moyer was an employee of the C. P. R. for some years. He was very popular among the employees and his sad death will be the cause of sincere regret. Much sympathy will be extended to his sadly bereaved wife.

Good Bye, Old Time Melodrama!

Sorry to see you go, but the new melodrama is here—"THE FIGHTING TRAIL." Greater Vitagraph's Duncan-Holloway Serial. The mortgage on the old home hasn't a chance in this, the only kind of melodrama that goes in that of brand new thrills and sensations. And there are dozens of 'em in every episode. William Duncan and Carol Holloway risk their necks two dozen times in THIS serial and THAT'S what we call melodrama! Scouts that amaze and mystify. Be sure to see it.

FINE PLAY HERE ON SATURDAY

Never before has a dramatist taken such material as did J. Hartley Manners for the construction of the play "Out There," which will be presented at the City Opera House, Fredericton, Saturday, December 1st. His leading character, a poor drudge in a London tenement, haunted by the idea that her King and Country need her in the great war, is a distinct type, almost Dickensian. How one poor soul can become an influence for great good and rise superior to her environment almost to heroism, is the theme that must put to shame many a weakling who refuses to make sacrifices. The play is an object lesson in patriotism and a stinging rebuke to slackers. It progresses from a London tenement to a base hospital "somewhere in France," where wounded men are being cared for and then returns to London for two scenes—one in the same tenement and the other at the foot of the Nelson monument in Trafalgar Square. Elsa Ryan, who was the most successful of the many "Peg o' My Hearts" on tour, was selected by Laurette Taylor to appear in "Out There." No other actress will be entrusted with the role. Seats are now selling at Ryan's.
