NEW YORK GIANTS CAME BACK AND BEAT CHICAGO WHITE SOX 2 TO 0 IN THIRD GAME OF SERIES

Robertson the Hero of the Day, and Benton Also Thought Much of by New York Fans—Cicotte Batted Hard by New York—Two Runs in the Fourth Inning Won the Game—Umpire Klem Stopped Cicotte's "Shine Ball."

New York, Oct. 10. — Cheered on by thousands of loyal rooters, the New York Nationals turned desperately upon the Chicago Americans in the third game of the world's series here this afternoon and shut out their inter-league rivals 2 to 0. It was an entirely different appearing team that faced the White Sox at the Polo Grounds. For the first time since the present struggle for baseball honors began, the Giants fought and won both victory and the breaks of the game.

As was the case in the initial contest in Chicago, the struggle developed into a pitchers' battle, but today it was Eddie Cicotte who was forced to bow before the prowess of the opposing hurler and the sweeping bats of the Giants. Pitted against Rube Benton, the star of the White Sox hurling corps found a rival as skillful as he in delivery, as crafty in generalship and who refused to allow Cicotte's teammates a run to ease the strain. Only six of the visitors reached first, five on hits and one on a fielder's choice and of these only two saw second base.

Behind Benton the Giants played with a dash and brilliancy which were completely missed in the two preceding games. Despite Cicotte's fine control and drop-dive curves, they smashed into the delivery of the White Sox pitching star in the fourth inning and hammered out two runs which spelled victory and restored their confidence for the contests to come. After the game the Nationals expressed the belief that they would be able to repeat tomorrow and start westward Thursday night on even terms with their American League opponents for the fifth game of the series set for Saturday in Chicago.

Robertson the Hero.

Among the fans tonight the name of Davis Robertson is praised in equal proportion with that of Rube Benton.

Between them these two diamond combatants brought about the downfall of the Chicago combination when the outlook for a break in the series of defeats was none too bright. For three and a half innings the opposing boxmen had proved invincible and the thirty odd thousand fans present were settling down for a hurling duel.

ALEXANDER REPEATS STUNT

For three years in succession Grover Alexander, the great pitcher of the Philadelphia Nationals, has chalked up thirty victories or more for his club, and for the second time he collected a neat little bonus of $5,000 for his work. Last week he pitched his thirtieth winning game for the Phillies against the New York Giants, winning by a score of 8 to 2 and holding the champions to seven hits.

JACKSON AND KANSAS DRAW

Philadelphia, Oct. 8. — Willie Jackson of New York and Rocky Kansas of Buffalo, boxed six fast rounds to a draw here tonight.

HOOF PRINTS.

Walter Cox is certain to top the winning drivers' list.

James Gilligan's Hallie Rocket now sports a record of 2:16 1/4.

Early Dreams will be the leading money-winning trotter of 1917.

Roan Hal won at York, Pa., last Friday, his fastest heat being 2:07 3/4.

Will Crozier won four races and a like number of second moneys at the Brockton Fair.

Bruce eWtmore is very proud of that silver cup he lifted at Brockton with Jess Y.

Bimworth, 2:09 3/4, is recovering very nicely from the accident that retired him in midseason.

"Monte" Gerow, trainer for P. H. Reed of Fort Fairfield, Me., has won 24 races in 38 starts.

H. L. Handy of Springfield, has something of a trotter in the 2-year-old Tricelitta Watts.

The winnings of Early Dreams, 2:04 3/4, will spot up snug to $25,000 when "taps" is sounded at Atlanta.

Mr. R. N. Burns of Gloucester, Mass., is in the city.

when Robertson sprang into the calcium glare of fame. He ended the White Sox fourth inning attempt to penetrate the pitching of Benton with a great running catch of Gandil's long sizzling drive to right field when he hurled himself against the concrete wall of the grandstand and plucked the ball with one hand just as it was about to strike the wall. Had he missed the catch Gandil's smash would have gone for at least a two base hit.

But Robertson was not done. He doffed his fielder's glove and, stepping into the batter's box, picked one of Cicotte's sharp breaking low balls and drove it high and far into right centre. The sphere sailed upward and onward under the force of the blow until it seemed certain that it would equal Felsch's home run drive of the opening game. Both Jackson and Felsch raced frantically after the ball but it hit the bleacher fence and bounded away from their clutches. Robertson was sliding into third base when the ball was returned to the infield.

Holke followed with a two-base drive to left field, scoring Robertson. Catcher Rariden, playing in place of McCarty, who was injured in the second battle at Chicago, advanced his team-mate to third with a sacrifice. Cicotte to Gandil. Benton could not fathom Cicotte's curves and struck out. As Burns came to bat, Umpire Klem took the ball away from Catcher Schalk and after examining it carefully threw it into the Giants' dugout while the crowd, scenting the "shine ball" boomed vigorously.

When Cicotte hurled up a new white ball Burns hit a puzzling slow grounder toward third which scored Holke who was half way to the plate when bat met ball. Cicotte finally captured the sphere and tired to retire Burns at first but his throw was wild and the batter continued on to second. With Herzog at the bat the crowds were calling strenuously for a continuance of the hitting but Gandil checked the rally with a wonderful running catch of the Giants' field captain's foul which he speared one-handed as the ball was about to disappear among the spectators in one of the ground rows of field boxes.

That was the end of the run-making for the day for after that spectacular inning both Cicotte and Benton pitched well high perfect ball. While both teams got runners on the bases the hits to bring them home were never forthcoming.
