JIMMY FORGOT.

Jimmy's mother had told him to stay near the window and watch for the bride and groom and come and tell her when he sow them coming. When at last he saw them he forgot to run and tell his mother. When they were quite near he suddenly remembered and called out lustily: "Mamsponse to Great Britain's protest against the charge that Belgian relief ships acted as decoys to trap submarines the German foreign office has explained that the accusation was based on the report of a submarine commander who said the aBron Baeyens, relief steamer, turned toward him when sighted. The German statement, forwarded to the British embassy here from London, says that the Baron Baeyens flew the flags and pennants indicating her connection with Belgian relief, and that the submarine commander had to conclude that in making use of the distinctive signs she was acting as a trap for submarines because "the steamer, on coming in sight, turned toward the submarine and when the submarine abstained from attacking and went on, turned back again." The British government stated that the vessel in question had been continually in the service of Belgian relief, and had been furnished with safe conduct for all [] worm Newson Newson
