CANADIAN ARTILLERY
DOING GOOD WORK

Ottawa, Jan. 23.—The following communication has been received from the Canadian war records office, London:

The past week has been one of normal trench warfare. Normal trench warfare of today, however, is very different to the normal trench warfare of a year ago. Everywhere the ascendancy of our troops over the enemy is most marked. The evidence of prisoners is the most eloquent testimony to the ascendancy of our patrols, while bombardments of the enemy's lines, which a year ago would have merited a detailed description as important operations, are today affairs of almost daily occurrence.

This continued activity of our artillery and infantry has undoubtedly weakened the morale of the enemy, and is paving the way for victorious terms.

A great feature in the life of the men at the front is the training which they carry out when in reserve. There is a vigor and purpose about this training which are quite remarkable.

Men who have faced the enemy in battle appear to realize what training will mean to them and by this training—the purpose of which is constantly in the minds of all—the sure seeds of victory are being sown.

STRIKE BREAKS OUT IN SPANISH CITY

Paris, Jan. 23.—A general strike, reported to be accompanied by violence and incendiarism, has broken out in Saragossa, says a Havas despatch today from that Spanish city.

The police are in charge of the factories and workshops, adds the message, and the soldiers are running the street cars.

The newspapers have suspended publication. At a meeting in Barcelona, representatives of 300 trade unions resolved to join the strike.

The average woman can make as much fuss over another woman's baby as though she really and truly meant it.

It's impossible to suppress the man who thinks he can tell a funny story.

If some men had to work in order to earn a living they wouldn't live long.

The journey of life is tiresome—a man is out of breath when he reaches the end of it.

Slants of Humor

INNOCENT BYSTANDERS.

Up yonder is a bird
Whose joyous song
With confidence was stirred—
But not for long.
His caroling is set
To notes of pain
Since recently he met
An Aeroplane.

Down yonder is a fish
That used to swim
With light and careless swish
Through waters dim.
But now he's swimming lame,
No more serene.
Along, one day, there came,
A Submarine.

WHAT ONE WORD CAN DO

Each one of eighteen telephone operators took on the average 10 messages each for one week.

A forest entered a regular order on his books.

Two other forests sent salesmen to a certain office.

One milliner, two dressmakers, one tailor and 14 dry goods emporiums catered up new accounts to be delivered "on or before—"

Eight motor cars were demonstrated.
Four silversmiths rejoiced.

A jeweler's bookkeeper was kept half an hour later.

A railroad, a Steamship line, a taxicab company, a caterer, a clergyman and a real estate dealer charged up certain profits on their books. And all because on a certain evening, between 9 and 10 o'clock, a rather pretty girl with no worldly experience, no business instincts, nothing but a throbbing of the heart, dropped her pretty head and said:

"Yes."—Life.

GOT HIM

Father!" said the youngest Scot. "No," said his sire, if it's any mair of yer stopid questions, wa' ye gang. I've tellt ye a' ready that I dinna ken whether a man who does guid is a guid-dooer or a do-guider, or whether the seat of war is what the standin' army sits doon on. If it's a redeulous question of that kind, awa' ye gang to bed."

"But, paw, it's a serious question."

"Well out wi' it!"

I want to know, paw, what the Dead Sea died of?"

"Awa' to bed wi' ye!"

IT WORKED BOTH WAYS.

The wounded Highlander seemed to make no headway towards recovery. He was forever talking about his "bonnie Scotland," and the idea occurred to the doctor that a Scotch piper might arouse his spirits. Accordingly, he found a piper and arranged that he should pour forth all the gems of scottish music the pipes were capable of interpreting. When the doctor called the next morning he eagerly asked the matron:

"Did the piper turn up?"

"He did," replied the matron.

"And hwa's our Scotch patient?"

"Oh, he's fine I never saw such a change said the matron.

"That's grand. That was a fine idea of mine," said the delighted doctor.

"Yes," replied the matron sadly, but the other 30 patients have all had serious elapses."—Youth's Companion.

GIRLS! GIRLS! TRY IT!
STOP DANDRUFF AND BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR

Hair Stops Falling Out and Gets Thick,
Wavy, Strong and Beautiful.

Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant, and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a "Danderine hair cleanse." Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt and excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair.

Besides beautifying the hair at once, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

But what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair and lots of it, surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any druggist or toilet counter, and just try it.

WORLDLY WISDOM.

Trouble with most handsome women they think it's all they need.

When it takes a young man fifteen minutes to assist a girl to put on her jacket, she is neither his sister by birth or refusal.

Luther Burbank is only another instance of the masculine idea that a woman you can dictate to makes the best sort of wife.

Some ladies are willing to join any kind of an improvement society that plays bridge.

ICONS ARE RUSSIA'S DEVOTIONAL TABLETS

There is not a home in Russia that does not possess its icon, the devotional tablet in the mystic power of which every Russian believes. These icons vary in size, quality, and decoration, many of them being of great value and antiquity. There is an interesting collection of them at the Victoria and Albert Museum. The word "icon" is really the Latinized form of a Greek word signifying portrait.

The portrait may be small enough to carry in the pocket, or it may be life size, and the icons in the Russo-Greek churches are often of wonderful workmanship and costly design. The raised halos of the portrait figures are specially enriched with precious stones, and in the case of the portraits of the Virgin the robes are encrusted with seed pearls and the fingers and neck adorned with jewels.

Some icons take the shape of a square or oblong box, set in metal thickly enamelled and hinged, which when open, reveal figures of religious interest. Some curious examples of icons of finely carved horn are also to be found, the effect being most beautiful when hung in a position which admits of the light falling through the carving. A most exceedingly fine specimen of the horn icon is minutely carved with a series of episodes in connection with the birth of Christ. Its meaning is a silver-gilt, chased in a gold pattern, and the whole hangs from a suspension bead. One may also come across the icon of carved boxwood, fitted for the sake of the protection of its fragile beauty into a case of precious metal, enamelled and studded with precious stones.
