TROOPS PLAY
LEAGUE GAMES
UNDER FIRE

Baseball League of Canadian Army Keeps Up Schedule in Spite of German Artillery Fire.

British Headquarters in France, May 31, via London.—The old adage of "all work and no play" has its application in war as well as in peace.

The baseball season on the western front is in full swing. Under the very shadow of Vimy Ridge a great game was played yesterday afternoon before an all-khaki audience on a bit of the battlefield on which the shell holes had been filled and a rough grandstand erected for the officers and other spectators, including General Horne, commanding the first British army, who has become an enthusiastic fan.

Few Errors Made.

The game was between teams representing two Canadian brigades. As a matter of fact, all the teams in what may be called the world war league are now composed of representatives of the numerous Canadian bodies, and all the players are anxiously awaiting the arrival of the American forces to arrange for an inter-league series.

The Second Canadian Brigade beat the third by the score of 7 to 1. The second brigade had a great left-handed pitcher whose delivery the third brigade batters could not solve at all. The third brigade also had a good boxman who formerly played with Ottawa in the Canadian League.

The catcher was unable to hold his delivery well and this fault accounted for many of the runs scored by the winning side.

The game was remarkably free from errors, considering the battlefield diamond on which it was played. All the equipment had been brought from America, including the base bags.

Shells Drop Near.

As a sideshow it was possible from the grandstand to see an occasional German shell dropping half a mile or so away.

Airplanes were humming overhead, but assuming them to be friendly no one looked their way except when a fly ball happened to be hit.

There was typical rooting by the Canadians and Americans among the khaki-clad spectators, and much wagging on the game. One subaltern bet enough, he said, to pay his expenses on a three weeks' leave in Paris, but he chose the wrong side and his leave was indefinitely postponed.

The games are played twice a week in this strangest of all baseball leagues.

WAGNER HAS STRUCK COAL

Honus Wagner is reported to have struck a rich vein of coal on his property in Carnegie, Penn. It cannot be too rich to please the host of baseball fans who regret the Dutchman's absence from the game of baseball.

TWIN BEDS
OPENS TONIGHT

Sun, moon and stars will all shine bright at the Opera House tonight, when Fredericton's laughing festival begins, and continues tomorrow night, the attraction being the sparkling London and New York success, "Twin Beds," which has been awaited with eager anticipation and judging by the advance sale it is evident that just about everybody in Fredericton is going.

"Twin Beds" may well be termed an international success, for it ran not only for one solid year in New York, but has already reached its second year in London. "Twin Beds" is said to be the funniest play ever written. Mothers cry for it, while women generally are said to laugh themselves young over it; and as for men, they will only have to see Signor Monti, the Italian tenor, to make them roar their heads off.

If you are a tired business man, go and see "Twin Beds" and take your wife with you. It will do her a world of good, and you both will feel five years younger by the end of the evening. It is easy to understand that "Twin Beds" exists merely to cause laughter. It never fails to do that, and those who have enjoyed its sparkling humor are its best advertisers.

The company arrived on this morning's St. John train, and the mechanical staff of the organization has been busy all day transferring the several loads of scenery, properties and effects from the private car to the Opera House and preparing for tonight's performance.

DREYFUSS
IS WILLING TO SELL PIRATES

Weather Has Disgusted the Pittsburg Owner—All He Wants is Syndicate to Purchase.

Pittsburg, May 31.—A report from New York today stated that President Barney Dreyfuss had sold to a syndicate his holdings in the Pirates and would retire from baseball.

"Absolutely no truth in it," commented the Pittsburg magnate, "although every time I think about the weather I wish the report had some foundation. Bring on the syndicate and they'll find me willing to do the selling part. I'll throw in the weather with the franchise, grounds and players."

COBB IS READY TO JOIN ARMY

Ty Cobb's statement of his willingness to do his bit for his country was published by the New York Evening Mail. It was well worth reading. It is direct; it is appealing. Here it is:

"I'd like to do my bit, but I'd like to do it without any noise of advertising. If I go through this war, I'd like to go through without saking a word.

"I admire the man who keeps his mouth shut, smiles, gets into no arguments and fights like sixty.

"The silent man who does not boost his friends nor abuse his foes, but who knows why he is fighting and what he is fighting for, and fights—that man is my idea of a good soldier. Most ball players feel the same way about it.

"As for me, personally I am fit, and I am ready. I'd like to be an aviator. Uncle Sam knows where I live. Ty Cobb, Royston, Ga., will find me. While I am married and have three children, my family is reasonably provided for. If Uncle Sam needs me, I am his."
