MESSAGE TO YOUNG MEN.

"After a long life I shall remind you that already many problems rise before you; problems of race division, problems of creed differences, problems of economic conflict, problems of national duty and national aspiration. Let me tell you that for the solution of these problems you have a safe guide, an unfailing light, if you remember that faith is better than doubt, and love is better than hate.

"Banish doubt and hate from your life. Let your souls be ever open to the strong promptings of faith and the gentle influence of brotherly love. Be adamant against the haughty; be gentle and kind to the weak. Let your aim and your purpose, in good report or in ill, in victory or in defeat, be so to live, so to strive, so to serve as to do your part to raise the standard of life to higher and better spheres."—Sir Wilfrid Laurier at London, Ont.

OUR M. P.'s SHOULD WAKE UP.

The County of York and the city of Fredericton certainly did not get a square deal from the Provincial Government when it apportioned the assessment for the Patriotic Fund a few days ago. Although the apportionment was not made on a per capita basis, it is puzzling to conceive by what process of reasoning the government was able to arrive at the conclusion that the rich county of Westmorland, which, including Moncton, has 44,000 people, should pay only $56,723.11, while the county of York and city of Fredericton, with a total population of 31,000, should be invited to come across with $63,402, a difference of $6,679. The county of York is ready and willing to pay its fair share towards the patriotic fund, and had the amount been fairly apportioned on the assessable property of the various municipalities, there would have been no cause for complaint. This course, however, for some reason or other, was not followed by the Governor-in-Council. The valuation of the assessable property of the county of Westmorland, as shown by returns filed with the Provincial Secretary, is $16,583,396, while the total of assessable property of York, including Fredericton, is $13,374,622, or $3,208,774 LESS THAN WESTMORLAND, WITH MONCTON INCLUDED. In the face of these figures, the people of York are asked to pay $63,402, while Westmorland is let off with $56,723.

It is strange that York's members in the Legislature did not interest themselves in this matter sufficiently to see that justice was done the constituency which they are supposed to represent. When there are vacant offices to fill, they are wonderfully active and alert, but a question which directly affects the pockets of every taxpayer in the county, is seemingly, in their opinion, scarcely worth bothering about. If these men are good for anything, they should stop squabbling over two-cent patronage matters and ask the government to revise its order-in-council apportioning the Patriotic Fund in a manner that will be equitable and fair to the county of York. If they no longer possess sufficient influence with the powers that be to ensure fair play being given to York county, they should lose no time in resigning their seats.

THE CABINET SHUFFLE.

There has been another cabinet shuffle at Ottawa, and as usual, the Quebec Nationalists have exacted and have received their pound of flesh. The vacancy in the cabinet caused by the death of Hon. T. Chase Casgrain has been filled by the promotion of Hon. Albert Seigney, one of the most extreme of the Quebec Nationalist group, who for several years has been Speaker of the House of Commons. The important portfolio of Postmaster General goes to Hon. P. E. Blondin, another Nationalist, who has been a member of the cabinet for several years. The new Minister takes the portfolio of Minister of Inland Revenue in succession to Hon. E. L. Patenaude, who becomes Secretary of State and the custodian of the great seal of Canada. The Speakership of the House of Commons, now vacant, will go to Mr. E. N. Rhodes, M. P. for Cumberland, while Mr. J. H. Rainville, another Quebec Nationalist, will be deputy Speaker. Although it is on record that at the last election the Hon. Mr. Casgrain advised Mr. Henri Bourassa to oppose the Laurier naval policy, he was looked upon as a straight Conservative, so that the changes which his death have necessitated have given the Nationalists of Quebec additional strength and influence in the ultra loyal cabinet led by Sir Robert Borden.

The new Minister of Inland Revenue represents the constituency of Dorchester, P. Q., in Parliament, and he will be most fortunate if he is not called upon to contest a by-election. At the last election he was very active in circulating the Nationalist propaganda, and at a public gathering on one occasion he it reported to have said:

"The Laurier government is a cabinet of Imperialists who ask to sacrifice Canada's interests and plunge us into wars with which we have nothing to do. The navy bill is an attempt by Ontario and the provinces of the west to coerce Quebec and enslave our people forever. What has England ever done for you? She has no need of your help. She is strong enough to defend herself. LAURIER'S IDEAL IS TO MAKE YOU THE VASSALS of the majority of the west. You must protest against helping England in her wars. Unless you do, conscription will come next."

Holding such views, it is most surprising that the Hon. Albert Seigney Borden to serve as an adviser to His should be called upon to serve as an adviser to His Majesty the King in these strenuous times. The man who once described Toryism as "organized hypocrisy" evidently did not shoot very wide of the mark.

The death of Sir Frederick Borden removes another of the original members of the famous Laurier cabinet formed in 1896. There are now only six survivors and Sir Wilfrid Laurier is the only one who is still in active politics. The others are Judge Sir Louis Davies, of the Supreme Court of Canada, Hon. W. S. Fielding and Sir Clifford Sifton, of Ottawa; Sir William Mulock, of Toronto, and Hon. Sydney Fisher, of Montreal.

A writer in the Farmer's Advocate suggests that Sir Max Aitken, instead of calling himself Lord Brunswick, should take the title of Lord Waterstock, or Lord Cashwater, or Lord Manymergers.

IN THE DEAD OF NIGHT.

In the dead of night, when pain was severe and doctors distant, when some loved one seemed to be threatened with serious consequences, have you ever caught up, with a sob of thankfulness, a bottle of your favorite family remedy? We don't know what you consider your favorite family remedy, but if you had a confidence inspired by the knowledge that it had been successfully serving humanity for more than 100 years, then it must be Johnson's Anodyne Liniment. And you were doubly fortified, for you had, in Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, a preparation not only powerful and penetrating in cases of bad sprains, strains, muscular rheumatism, any ache, pain, or soreness, but also one you could safely and unhesitatingly administer inwardly for sore throat, coughs, colds, cramps, chills and like ailments, when necessary to have its wonderful healing and soothing qualities, go direct to the seat of an internal trouble. It is rightly termed "an angel in disguise."
