IMPORTANT RESULTS FROM ALLIES' CONFERENCE

Paris, Jan. 6.—The conference of the Entente statesmen, including Premiers Lloyd George, Briand and Boselli, was an almost continuous session today, according to a Havas despatch from Rome. Premier Boselli presided at the meeting, which was the first of a number at which the general situation will be discussed by representatives of Great Britain, France, Italy and Russia. In honor of the event the Italian government declared the day a holiday.

Three Sessions Held.

Rome, Jan. 7, via Paris.—The Giornale d'Italia publishes the following note:

"The third meeting of the Allied delegates was held this morning. Yesterday the political and military missions met first in general session, then separately. Today the order was reversed—the missions first held separate meetings, then toward noon the political and military delegates had a general meeting.

"We are able to affirm that already the results have been very important and favorable, as will be seen when executed. The conference has no fixed period. It will last until the completion of the discussions on the programme."

Complete Unity Established.

Rome, Jan. 7, via Paris.—The conference between members of the Entente Allied governments was brought to a close this afternoon, after a second meeting. It is announced that the conference established once again the complete unity of views of the Entente Allies on the various questions down for discussion, and that the statesmen present will leave Rome with a strong resolution to introduce greater co-ordination in their efforts for the successful issue of the war.

At a luncheon given by Premier Boselli in honor of the ministers present, cordial speeches were delivered in which the Italian and French Premiers expressed absolute confidence in the victory of the Entente Allied powers.

On leaving the guests were the objects of an enthusiastic ovation, M. Briand, the French Premier, and David Lloyd George, being cheered again and again.

Hovey and family; wreath, Olivet Baptist Sabbath School; flat bouquet, Sunday school class; flat bouquet, the Marysville Lodge, No. 18, Knights of Pythias; flat bouquet, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. There was a united meeting at the Main Street Baptist Church Sunday afternoon. Rev. Mr. DeWolfe, of Acadia College, preached a very able and interesting sermon. Dr. Kierstead, of Fredericton, also spoke. Rev. E. J. Barrass of the Oliver church took part in the service.

The masons have about finished the new warehouse at the cotton mill. The roof is now being put on. The building is six stories high, with a tower, lighted throughout with electric lights. Steam power elevators will be installed. The window frames and doors are of steel. The building is a great addition to the cotton mill property, and will be used as a warehouse for the manufactured goods.
