

Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of Charles H. Fletcher and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

STYLES IN SLEEVES.

One of the most interesting changes in the ever restless modes is the sleeve.

It remains long and straight only in the suit coats, and even there it often has a big, flaring turned back cuff to give it a finished look. In some extreme Paris sport models it is elbow length.

In morning frocks, afternoon frocks and evening gowns—looking over the whole gamut of new models—it is easy to see that sleeves have commenced to bulge.

In some instances this fulness is very slight—a bishop sleeve tightened into a cuff has the outside of the sleeve free of gatherings so that it falls in a loop just above the cuff, the flappy fold making a sort of angel sleeve effect.

Then there is a bell-shaped three-quarter sleeve seen on afternoon dresses, continued over a tight undersleeve that extends a bit down over the hand. The under part is generally of a different material. Even in evening dresses there is an attempt to get away from the sleeveless corsages which are no more than shoulder straps holding on a wide girdle. Shoulder draperies of tulle or latticed or puffed short sleeves, both point away from the all bare arm which has been so in vogue for evening.

Slants of Humor

SIX VILE VERBS

When I see on a poster
A programme which "features"
Flossie Footlitt and other
Delectable creatures,
I feel just as if
Someone hit me a slam
Or a strenuous buff
On the mid diaphragm.

When I read in a story,
Though void of offences,
That somebody "glimpses"
Or somebody "senses"
The chord that is struck
Fills my bosom with ire,
And I'm ready to chuck
The whole book in the fire.

When against any writer
It's urged that he "stresses"
His points, or that something
His fancy "obsesses"
In awarding his blame
Though the critic be right,
Yet I feel all the same
I could shoot him at sight.

But (worse of these horrors)
Whenever I read
That somebody "voices"
A national need,
As the Bulgars and Greeks
Are abhorred by the Serb.
So I feel toward the freaks
Who employ this vile verb.

PESSIMISTIC GARDNER

One spade
One hoe,
One rake,
I buy to garden make.

One peck
Of bulbs
And seeds
Will probably meet my needs.

One squash,
One beet,
One rose,
Will be the crop, I s'pose.

SEEMS SO.

Our hopes, through Time's attrition,
Grow less and less sublime.
The height of one's ambition
Gets lower all the time.

STRANGE FACTS.

Many mothers-in-law are all right.
You occasionally get a good cook.
Sometimes the garden seeds come up.
The last match doesn't always blow out.

IN 1920.

Waiter—We do all our cooking by electricity here.
Customer—Take this egg out and give it another shock.

A BARGAIN HUNTER.

Judge—Six months in jail with hard labor.
Hobo—Say, Judge, can't yer double de time an' cut out de labor.

COLDS OR COUGHS

SHOULD NEVER BE NEGLECTED.

If They Are, Some Serious Lung Troubles Are Sure to Follow.

A cold or cough, if neglected, will sooner or later develop into some sort of lung trouble, so we would advise that you get rid of it before it becomes settled. For this purpose we know of nothing to equal Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. This preparation has been on the market for the past twenty-five years, and has always given universal satisfaction.

Mr. Erwell Bolton, Wilton, Ont., writes: "Last winter I was caught in a storm and had to stay in a barn all night. I caught a severe cold which several medicines failed to cure. I went to some of the best doctors, but these failed to do me any good. A friend advised me to use Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I used three bottles and they gave me instant relief."

When you ask for "Dr. Wood's" see that you get the genuine, put up in a yellow wrapper, three pine trees the trade mark, and bearing the name of The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. Price 25c. and 50c.

WILL MOBILIZE
CITY MILITIA CORPS

Ottawa, March 19.—Instructions went out today from militia headquarters for the immediate mobilization of forty-eight city regiments under the newly promulgated plan of militia reorganization. District officers commanding will recommend to the department such of the rural corps as it is considered desirable to mobilize.

Included in the mobilization scheme are the Maritime battalions, the 62nd St. John, 63rd and 66th, Halifax.

MOTHER! YOUR CHILD
IS CROSS, FEVERISH,
FROM CONSTIPATION

If Tongue is Coated, Breath Bad, the Stomach Sour, Clean Liver and Bowels.

Give "California Syrup of Figs" at once—a teaspoonful today often saves a sick child tomorrow.

If your little one is out of sorts, half sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, Mother! see is tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs" and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative," because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups, printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

What has become of the old-fashioned detective in curled hair whiskers and green spectacles that the audience could spot the moment he appeared on the stage?

Passaic, N. J., reports an association to encourage young people to save one hundred dollars before marriage. That should be easy—before.
