HIGH SCHOOL CLOSED WITH IMPRESSIVE EXERCISES

Assembly Hall of School Crowded Last Night---Address by Dr. C. C. Jones---Medals and Prizes Presented---Reception Followed Public Exercises.

Last evening the closing of the Fredericton High School was held in the assembly hall and was very largely attended. Dr. G. C. VanWart, chairman of the school board, presided. A piano solo was very ably rendered by Miss Dorothy Feeney as the pupils of Grades IX and X entered. The girls were all dressed white with ties of yellow and black, the school colors, around their necks, and as they took their places on the platform they evoked much applause. When the graduating class entered the pianist played a march and Grades IX and X stood up and waved their handkerchiefs and the spectators loudly applauded.

The platform was occupied by P. J. Hughes, J. J. Weddall, R. D. Hanson, H. V. B. Bridges, J. W. Spurden, Maj. W. J. Osborne, Ald. Lemont, Dr. C. C. Jones, Rev. Mr. Marshall, A. S. McFarlane and staff of the High School.

Address by Dr. Foster. The programme opened with the chorus, O Canada, by the classes. Diplomas in the order of merit were presented by Dr. B. C. Foster, who first explained the subjects of the High School course. Joseph W. Sears, he said, had led the graduation class.

Those receiving diplomas were as follows:

FULL COURSE STUDENTS.

First Division.

Jos. W. Sears, Edith G. Dennison, Murray Kane, Annie F. Baird, Barbara Nickerson, Rita Elliott, Ronald Murray, A. Pearl Ross.

Second Division.

Edith M. Jones, Jean Lawson, C. Jean MacDonald, Helen F. Logan, Ethel F. VanWart, J. Marion Gibson.

Third Division.

Murray McFarlane, Walter Howie, Olive M. Lemon, Freda St. G. Jago, Lois Hawthorne.

Students who have omitted Latin: E. Marjorie Smith, second division. Daniel James, third division. Isabel Wiley, third division.

Special student: Kathleen Gibson.

A chorus by the students was followed by a Latin declamation, by Joseph W. Sears.

Dr. G. C. VanWart.

Dr. G. C. VanWart spoke of the work of the students during their years at High School. He also made reference to the evening schools, manual training and household science. In regard to the evening school, the Board of Education felt sure it was a great success and would take up the work earlier the following year. He made reference to the new annex being built at the Charlotte Street school. The Board had secured the services of Mr. Alonzo R. Stiles for the High School. By this appointment the burden on the staff would be lessened. In regard to greater production, he stated that about twenty-three of the High School students have registered themselves in the National Service and had been placed through different parts of the province through the efforts of Mr. A. B. Wilmet and Inspector Hanson.

A French recitation by Miss Rita Elliott followed, after which there was a vocal solo by Miss Annie M. Baird, accompanied by Professor Harrison.

An essay, "Jubilee of Confederation" was read by Miss Edith Jones after a chorus by the students. An essay, "Moonbeams of Midnight," was read by Miss Annie M. Baird. The valedictory, by Murray Kane then was read.

Presentation of Prizes. The presentation of prizes followed. The Douglas Silver Medal for classics was won by Joseph W. Sears and presented by Dr. H. V. B. Bridges who gave a short address, stating how the prize was won by honest work and congratulating the winner.

The Governor General's Bronze Medal was won by Miss Edith Dennison and was presented by Mr. P. J. Hughes who stated that he hoped to see her continue her studies in a much higher institution and meet with the same success.

The Coulthard Memorial Medal was won by Miss Barbara Nickerson and was presented by Mrs. B. C. Foster, who congratulated the winner.

The prize for mathematics, donated by the Senate of the University of New Brunswick, was won by Joseph W. Sears, and was presented by Inspector R. D. Hanson who gave a short address on the excellent work of the winner.

The French prize, awarded by the Class of 1916, was carried off by Miss Rita Elliott and was presented by Mr. A. S. McFarlane who cheerfully congratulated her upon her success.

The history prizes awarded by the Class of 1916 were tied for by the Misses Annie M. Baird and Rita Elliott and were presented by Major Osborne.

The prize of the 1916 Class for the highest general average who has won no other prize was carried off by Murray Kane and was presented by Rev. Mr. Marshall who congratulated him on his success and wished him the very best of luck through his years to come.

The prize for the highest general average in Grade X was won by Miss Prudence Sloat and was presented by Ald. Lemont.

The highest general average prize in Grade IX was a tie between Walter Lawlor and Darrell Phillips and were presented by Mrs. J. W. Spurden who congratulated both on their year's work.

The Silver Cup, donated for one year by the I. O. D. E. for the best shot in the cadet corps was won by George Giard and was presented by Mrs. Wm. C. Crockett.

Dr. Jones Address.

Dr. C. C. Jones briefly addressed the graduating class. He wished to recall to the minds of the students just for a moment the first year he came to Fredericton and how time passed so quickly. He also spoke of the brief time passed from the purchasing of a sponge, slate and pencil in Grade I. to the present year. He spoke of the founding of the Fredericton High School in 1805 and its founders and the small pay then given to teachers. He was glad to see the students offering such services to their country as they are now doing in greater production and economy, and wished the class the very best of success in their future work.

The exercises closed with the singing of the National Anthem, the High School yell and with three cheers for Dr. Foster, the principal.

Reception to Graduates.

After the closing, Grades IX and X gave a reception to the graduates when refreshments were served and a musical programme was carried out as follows:

Recitation—Marjorie Tracey
 Violin solo, accompanied by piano—Misses Mary Grannan and Nellie Estey.

Violin solo, accompanied by piano—Misses Mary Grannan and Agnes Doherty.

Piano duet—Misses Tweeddale.
 The hall was appropriately decorated and several played for an informal dance.

The reception closed with the singing of Auld Lang Syne and the National Anthem.

It Was a Wooden Leg.

The story that a man's leg had been found on a dump in Gibson gained wide circulation about the city today. Great interest was aroused. The prominent resident of Gibson who first told the story neglected to say, however, that the leg was a wooden one which had been discarded by a resident of Gibson some years ago.
