VOLUNTEERS OF THE ST. JOHN RIVER VALLEY.

'Tis the pleasant St. John River Valley With its broad swelling river and wild rushing streams, Ever fresh in my memory and child of my dreams.

A hundred years of harmony and peace The sword of battle hung upon the wall—

'Tis now a relic of the past; N. B.
Brave sons and daughters, with hearts light and free, Strove to march the busy paths of life.

But the scene has changed, the clouds of war
Darken land and sea.
And King and Empire call for aid So we are mustering for the fray.

Now to pleasant spots and tranquil scenes,
We love so dear on the St. John river.
We are forced to bid adieu and button on the coat of gray, Our King and country to defend.

A handful of brave lads, but to their God
They gave their prayers and rushed to battle.
They crossed the raging main, Where angry waves dashed mountains high,
And landed on old England's misty shores.

To help to check the tyrant's sway They left behind their sisters, mothers, wives and sweethearts To weep and mourn for them.

It is little does the mother know, When she rocks her baby to a lullaby, What vision marks his life Or what sad fate might end his days.

And now, by valiant deeds they have done on battle fields
They have made credit to their name.
They fought and they have bled, Beneath that banner Great Britain so proudly maintains,
That stands for justice and right.

And when the cruel war is over, And the sunshine beams of peace have Lulled away the angry storm of strife.
May they return to their own native land, Crowned with honor, bravery and glory And their pathways of life be strewn with flowers of peace evermore.
WILBERT LEGHR.

YES! MAGICALLY!
CORN LIFT OUT
WITH FINGERS

You simply say to the drug store man, "Give me a quarter of an ounce of freezone." This will cost very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn from one's feet.

A few drops of this new ether compound applied directly upon a tender, aching corn should relieve the sore-ness instantly, and soon the entire corn, root and all, dries up and can be lifted out with the fingers.

This new way to rid one's feet of corns was introduced by a Cincinnati man, who says that while freezone is sticky, it dries in a moment, and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin.

Don't let father die of infection or lockjaw from whitening at his corns, but clip this out and make him try it.

"SAFETY FIRST" PIONEER

N. S. Dunlop Introduced Novelties Into Canadian Railroad Life

Mr. N. S. Dunlop, tax and insurance commissioner of the C.P.R., who decided to take a prolonged rest upon the advice of his physician, had been in the service of the company for 29 years. He joined in 1888 at Toronto.
The year afterward he was appointed tax and insurance commissioner and claims adjuster. In these capacities Mr. Dunlop did excellent work.

Mr. Dunlop may be said to be the father of Safety First on the Canadian railways; and into this work he threw himself with splendid enthusiasm—doing much to popularize the movement. As far as the outside public is concerned, he is best known as the creator of the floral department of the C.P.R. He began in 1889 to save flower seeds from his own garden; and conceived the idea of spreading the cult of flowers over the system. He was a flower, nature and book lover; and the work was congenial to him. He sent out seeds and bulbs to the agents and others along the system; and soon, from ocean to ocean, the plots in front of hundreds of stations were ablaze with flowers.
He gave prizes; and labored in every way to make this feature notable.
In this he succeeded abundantly.

Mr. Dunlop is a member of the New York State Stenographic Association, one of the oldest and largest associations of shorthand in the world; but his brochure "What the Flowers Tell Us," and his work of love in adorning a big railway system with floral beauty, will be Mr. Dunlop's best recognition in connection with his long service with the C.P.R.

Bob Evans has signed to train for Fatherland Farm and will soon take a dozen of the Burke horses to Dover.

When You Can't Sleep

YOU SHOULD USE

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

Sleeplessness is caused by the nervous system becoming deranged.

Perhaps too much worry has gotten on your nerves, perhaps you have overworked yourself, or have been excessive in your use of tobacco, but whatever the cause, the nervous system must be built up again before restful sleep can be assured.

Those whose rest is broken into by frightful dreams, nightmares, sinking and smothering sensations, who wake up in the morning as tired as they went to bed, can have their old, peaceful, undisturbed, refreshing sleep back again by using Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

Mrs. John Sloan, Haley Station, Ont., writes: "Over a year ago I was very nervous. I could not sleep at night, and I would faint at the slightest fright.
I tried several doctors, but they did me practically no good. I noticed your advertisement and immediately tried Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and I am proud to say they cured me."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c. a box or three for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

ITALIAN ARTILLERY
CONTINUES ACTIVE

Rome, April 9—via London—Reporting military operations on the Austro-Italian front, the Italian official statement issued today says: "Our artillery, hampered by the bad weather almost all along the line, was active yesterday in the Giudicaria and Adige valleys, there our guns fired and damaged enemy military works. On the Carso reconnoitering parties disturbed the enemy on defensive positions."

The humorist is a philosopher who breaks the sad news gently to the world because he is sorry for it.
