OF INTEREST TO WOMEN.CANNING BEETS.Baby beets are best for canning, according to the National Emergency Food Garden Commission.Select beets of uniform size, age and color and wash thoroughly with stiff vegetable brush. Leave an inch of the tops and all of the roots while blanching, as this will aid in preventing loss of color. Blanch for six to eight minutes, plunge quickly into cold water for an instant, cut off tops and roots and rub off skin—do not peel.Pack beets into jars, either whole or cut into such pieces as desired, add a level teaspoonful of salt to a quart and fill with hot water.Partially tighten tops and sterilize for an hour and a half to two hours.
If tin cans are used they should be sealed completely before sterilization.After complete sterilization remove jars from the boiling water, tighten the tops at once and invert to cool in a place free from draughts. Wrap jars in dark paper to prevent bleaching.GENERAL CANNING ADVICE."Well begun is half done" in canning; cans clean or on the stove tempering and sterilizing, plenty of water heating, all utensils ready, means a good beginning.Wash rubbers, wipe them with a good rubbing, and then dip them in hot water just before putting on the jar. This is necessary to prevent that "rubbery" taste.Tempering glasses means putting them on the stove covered with cold water and bringing that water to a boil, then letting it boil ten minutes or at least five.Water must be boiling when vegetables or fruit are lowered into it toAS TO FOOD CONTROLLERS."Food Controllers in Canada and the States were appointed in order that the men at the front might be fed," says Hon. W. J. Hanna, Canadian Food Controller. "In order that those behind at home should not go hungry; in order that Great Britain and her Allies should not have to retreat from the enemy for want of food."School Book NoticePursuant to the provisions of an Order-in-Council, the Government

The Great Importance of Prohibition!

Hon. Nicholas IserguineInspector of State Savings Banks of Russian Empire states, in regard to effect of Prohibition:
"We have about doubled in less than three years the amount accumulated in seventy-three years previous to the outbreak of the war, for our State banks are about seventy-five years old."Former Attor.-Gen. Baxterin introducing the Prohibition Act said: "I do not think that I need discuss the question of whether Prohibition prohibits.
That depends upon you and me. If those in the community who hold the moral forces under their particular care—if they do their duty—if they let petty things go and if they stand back of the men who live under the law and persistently and insistently urge these men to respect the law—for without respect the law becomes of no value whatever—to respect this law as they would any other law, if the moral and social leaders of our country will but rise to the occasion and do their duty, there is no fear but that a prohibitory law, like any other law, can be enforced within the Province of New Brunswick."Premier Fosteras leader of the Opposition, in speaking of Prohibition said:
"That in his opinion the Temperance question is not a question of party politics. Prohibition, after all, affects everyone directly or indirectly and is therefore too big and broad a matter to be dealt with politically. The law is to-day on the Statute Books, and if we are returned to power when May 1st comes the Prohibition bill will be put into effect, and we will enforce it as far as it lies in our power to do so."*

In these critical days when governing bodies the world over are imploring everyone to increase production of food, when our armies are crying for men, munitions, ships—when every resource, however small, is a vital asset—waste is intolerable.

New Brunswick stands second to none in her loyalty to the vital cause of the Empire. Of her sacrifices of precious boys, her wealth and resources she is justly proud. With effective Prohibition laws in force throughout the province, she will tolerate no waste due to lax enforcement of Prohibition. Her resolve, however, demands a united public opinion in favor of strictest enforcement.

Help to Enforce Prohibition

The "PIONEER" (published in Toronto) is authority for the statement that in Canada the total value of foodstuffs destroyed by the liquor traffic in 1916 was approximately $4,244,090.22. Add to this the immense loss of transportation facilities, clogged and hindered by carrying the grain to destruction, and again conveying the product of the breweries and distilleries to make precious men less efficient in this solemn hour!

Russia—

Some idea of the enormous effect of Prohibition is afforded by the wonderful example of Russia. The whole country is "bone dry." The people declare they never will backslide to vodka. In spite of the fact that millions of producers have been in the army the savings of the people enormously increased. In 1912 and 1913 they were saving, per year, about $20,000,000. In the first five months under Prohibition they saved $60,000,000. In 1915 the banks took in $265,000,000. For the first half of 1916, the Russian people saved $300,000,000!

The shortage of revenue from the tax on vodka is gradually being made up by increase in other revenue, due to the savings and greater efficiency of the people. In spite of the ravages of war there is less begging and misery. "With vodka on her back, she could never have held the Germans back. Russia has helped to save Europe."

On May 1st 1917, the putting into effect of the Prohibitory Act in New Brunswick placed in our hands a powerful instrument. The success of Prohibition depends upon our use of the instrument, just the same as success in battle depends upon the general's intelligent, vigorous use of his forces.

No matter where you live, whether your district is under the Canada Temperance Act or under the new Prohibitory Act, you are urged to use every legitimate means within your power of support and aid the officers of the law in their sworn duty of enforcement.

Use your influence to build up such a weight of public opinion in favor of strictest enforcement of both the Scott Act and the Prohibitory Act that the success of Province-wide Prohibition will be permanent.
