TO PRESERVE RHUBARB.
 Recipes Authorized by the Thrift and Conservation Commission of the United States.

Rhubarb may be preserved in other ways than canning. In preparing for all purposes the skin should not be removed. Pink skinned varieties are preferable. Rhubarb juice, sweetened or unsweetened, one cupful of sugar to one quart of juice, may be brought to a boil, skimmed, poured into sterilized bottles and sealed. This makes a pleasant acid drink either alone or flavored with grape juice, mint juice, lemon or other fruit juices or iced tea.

This juice may be used in place of lemon for sherbets and gelatine desserts. To extract it nearly cover the cut rhubarb with cold water and proceed with it as in jelly making.

Dried Rhubarb.
 Dried rhubarb makes satisfactory pies. Prepare by stringing the stalks and hanging in the sun until brittle, or cut in short pieces and dry or evaporate like apples. Stalk may be cooked before drying. To use prepare as dried apples for sauce or pies. Used in combination with tasteless apples it improves the flavor of both.

Canned Rhubarb.
 Carefully select and wash rhubarb. Cut into nearly even lengths. Pack it into clean jars. Fill the jars with cold water and seal. Wrapping jars in paper helps to prevent the rhubarb from bleaching.

Rhubarb Punch.
 Cook rhubarb until soft if fresh; otherwise use canned. Mash through a sieve. To each cup of rhubarb juice add three cups of water and one-quarter cup of sugar. The juice of a lemon, a half cup of strawberry juice or other fruit may be added if desired. Serve ice cold in glasses with a bit of mint leaf or rose geranium in each glass. This is a delicious summer drink.

Rhubarb Ice.
 Two stalks rhubarb, one lemon, one and one-half cups sugar, six cups of water, one tablespoonful gelatin, soaked in one-quarter cup of cold water. Cook the rhubarb until tender and run it through a sieve. Cook sugar and water until it makes a good syrup. Add the gelatin and the cooled rhubarb. When cold add lemon juice. Strain and freeze.

Cook's Cotton Root Compound.

BIG MONEY IS BEHIND GIANTS AND WHITE SOX

Collection of Star Players Made Possible by That and Not by Good Leadership.

The Giants are being criticised all over their circuit as a team representing the strength of the National Exhibition Company's bankroll more than McGraw's constructive genius. Comiskey last season was roasted unmercifully for trying to buy a pennant-winner.

Comiskey paid close to $100,000 for his two big stars, Eddie Collins and Joe Jackson. Collins cost him $50,000, and he had to give Eddie a five-year contract at $15,000 a year. The Old Roman also bought Outfielders Eddie Murphy and Nemo Liebold from the Athletics and Indians, respectively, for neat little sums, and would have outbid the Yankees for Frank Baker had not Ban Johnson exerted enough influence to swing the player to New York.

Both Giants and White Sox are the nearest to all-star teams in their respective leagues. In fact both clubs are supposed to have too much stellar material. It is supposed to make them unwieldy and poorly balanced. But we may know more about that a few months from now.

WELLS IS DEAF, CANNOT ENLIST

New York, June 23. — Matt Wells, former lightweight champion of England, who lost his title to Freddie Welsh, has applied to British recruiting headquarters here for enlistment, but was rejected on the ground of deafness, though he was otherwise almost perfect physically. He expressed great regret at not being able to enter the service.

Another British pugilist presented himself for enlistment and was rejected—Matt Freeman, an amateur featherweight of London.

SAIER LET GO BY CHICAGO

Chicago, June 21. — Vic Saiar, first baseman with the Chicago Nationals, whose leg was broken early in the season, was unconditionally released today, according to a special dispatch from Pittsburg, where the club is playing.

THE POPE'S RECOMMENDATION.

Rome, June 23.—The Observatore Romano publishes an encyclical letter from the Pope on preaching in churches. The Pontiff traces general lines for the preachers to follow, indicates subjects and adds: "Sermons should be exclusively religious and seek to please God and not man."

BAPTISTS FAVOR CONSCRIPTION.

Edmonton, June 23.—The Baptist convention of Alberta has passed a resolution favoring "selective conscription" of manhood and its conviction that the available wealth of the country should not escape levy.

Had Awful Attacks Of Heart Trouble FOR 5 OR 6 YEARS.

Diseases and disorders of the heart and the nervous system have become frightfully prevalent of late years.

One can scarcely pick up a paper but he will find recorded instances of sudden deaths through heart failure, or of prominent men and women unable to prosecute their ordinary business or profession on account of a breaking down of the nervous system.

We do not desire to unnecessarily alarm anyone, but to sound a word of warning.

When the heart begins to beat irregularly, palpitates and throbs, has shoot-pains through it, it is time to stop and think.

To all sufferers from heart and nerve troubles Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills can give prompt and permanent relief.

Mrs. Frank Arseneau, Newcastle, N. B., writes: "I had awful attacks of heart trouble for the past five or six years, and as I had tried many kinds of medicine without getting any better I decided to give Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills a trial, and to my surprise I found ease from the second dose. I continued taking them until I had used six boxes, and now I feel as well as can be."

"At the present time my sister is using them for nervousness, and finds great comfort by their use."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c., or three boxes for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Ltd., Toronto, Ont.

FOX WON AT WOONSOCKET IN THREE STRAIGHT

Maybird Captured 2.16 Pace in 2.13½—Free-for-All in Fast time of 2.10.

Woonsocket, June 21. — The winners in the two classes sent away at the Short Ship meeting at the Woonsocket Trotting Park this afternoon had little to contend with. Judge Ormonde, with Bill Crozier up, finished last in the first mile but after that had a walkaway.

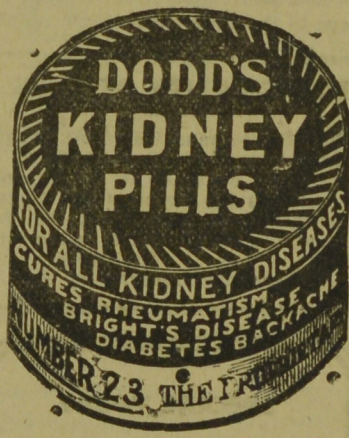

Peter Stevens, the former big ring performer, took the first heat which he fought out with Our Colonel in a pretty brush down the stretch. Peter Stevens, however, was distanced in the fourth heat.

Maybird was an easy winner in the 2.16 pace. Paul M., the Worcester horse, was a contender for a while in the first heat, but the veteran Frank Fox teamed his mare to the lead. In the remaining heats all Fox had to do was to sit still. The time in the free-for-all was the feature of the afternoon racing, the clocks showing 2.10 or a little better in the first three heats. The summary:

Free For All—Purse $300.
 Judge Ormonde bs (Crozier) . . . 4 1 1 1
 Our Colonel bs (Dore) 2 4 2 2
 B. M., bg (Small) 3 2 3 3
