directs the publication of the following for general information:Whereas, the 1st of July is the semi-centennial of the confederation of the Canadian ProvincesAnd, Whereas, a joint committee of the Senate and House of Commons was appointed to consider and report on the proper celebration of the occasion;And, Whereas, the said committee have recommended that, "As the day falls on Sunday, it seems to be particularly fitting that the churches and the Sabbath schools of all denominations should incorporate into their exercises the recognition of the facts and lessons embodied in our national birth and fifty years of progress, and have requested that all Clergymen and Sabbath School Superintendents give to the celebration their hearty and intelligent co-operation";And, Whereas, Monday the 2nd day of July, has been fixed by proclamation for the celebration of Dominion Day, and the committee have recommended that the celebration on that day be as "general as possible, without expensive and elaborate display, as befits war time, and carried out on the broadest social and democratic lines, a plain sincere people's demonstration, a tribute to the founders of our Dominion and the institutions and ideals of our common country,"We do most earnestly request that the cities and municipalities of the Province, clubs and patriotic associations, co-operate with the citizens generally in commemorating the day and the occasion, along the lines suggested in the report.In view of the terrible war in which we are engaged the occasion should be one for serious thought and full recognition of the grave dangers to which Canada and the Empire are exposed, and the obligations that rest upon us all as citizens. We especially request that the clergymen of all denominations throughout the Province, Sunday School Superintendents and Teachers, in the religious services of Sunday, the 1st of July, do honor to the memory of the noble and brave men who have made the supreme sacrifice for their country, as well as to those who are still facing danger and death upon the battlefield, and that the religious exercises of the day be characterized with a spirit of loyalty, unselfish service, and earnest prayer for the success of the sacred cause for which we are fighting.And we further request that on Monday, the 2nd of July, all municipal and city officers co-operate with the various patriotic localities, and that all citizens by a display of flags and suitable decorations at their homes and places of business, give hearty support and countenance to this movement, that this semi-centennial celebration of confederation may testify to our appreciation and grateful acknowledgment of the many blessings and great prosperity our Province has enjoyed, and the continued unity and patriotism of the Canadian people.ROBERT MURRAY,

7ins Tel 175-31THE PRICE OF HOMAGE*ONCE when King Edward VII. paid a visit to Sheffield, all the fires in factories and plants were allowed to die out. Not a wheel in Sheffield turned for twenty-four hours. The primary object of this was to lift the pall of smoke that hovers over that wonderful steel-producing city, and to ensure, as far as man was able, a bright day and a blue sky for an auspicious occasion. It was Sheffield's expression of respect.BUT the action was unique—it was unprecedented—it was unthought of that those hundreds of mighty furnaces, raging night and day, and those seething boilers, with quivering valves, should ever be allowed to cool. This extinguishing of fires cost Sheffield hundreds of thousands of dollars—the price of the effort to get back again to high-power efficiency.SOME business men in Canada pay an unwitting homage, not to a king, but to a superstition—the superstition that hot weather justifies letting the fires of business energy go out. They stop Advertising in the Summer months. By paying homage to tradition, custom, superstition, they have allowed Summer to become their "dull" season. You know how dull it can be when you don't advertise. Do you know how brisk it can be made by Advertising? Do you realize how much momentum you now lose in the Summer that must be regained in the Fall?DON'T LET YOUR ADVERTISING FIRES DIE
