WHITE SOX NOW HAVE TWO VICTORIES OVER NEW YORK IN WORLD'S CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

Saturday's Game Won by Chicago Americans, 2 to 1—Sunday the New York Giants Went to Pieces Badly, Losing by 7 to 2—Losers Forced to Use Four Pitchers During Game—Third Game of Series at New York This Afternoon.

Chicago, Oct. 9. — Comiskey's Chicago White Sox, champions of the American League, by taking the first game on Saturday and the second on Sunday from the New York Giants, have now only two games between them and the championship of the world. Chicago won Saturday 2 to 1, and yesterday they easily vanquished New York to the tune of 7 to 2.

The next game will be played in New York on Tuesday if the weather is fair.

Thirty-two thousand spectators saw Saturday's game. Cicotte and Schalk were the White Sox battery and Sallee and McCarty for McGraw's men. Seven hits were made off each pitcher, and each side had an error chalked up against it. Felsh made a home run and John Collins was good for three singles, while his namesake, Eddie, and Joe Jackson failed to bingle.

Yesterday the battery for Chicago consisted of Faber and Schalk, and for New York Schupp, Perritt, Tesreau, and McCarty and Rariden. The White Sox drove out fourteen hits, of which Eddie Collins contributed two, Jackson three and Weaver three. The Giants were good only for seven hits and were clearly outplayed in every department at Sunday's matinee.

The official figures covering the two games follow: Attendance, 64,000; total receipts, $146,304.00; players' share, $79,004.16; clubs' share, $52,669.44; National Commission's share, $14,536.40.

Saturday's Game.

Chicago, Oct. 6. — Eddie Cicotte of Detroit, pitcher extraordinary to the Chicago Americans, piloted his team to victory today over the New York Nationals by 2 to 1 in the first game of the 1917 world's series, played at Comiskey Park. At the wheel of the White Sox to shine he was the master of the Giants at every stage of the contest, which thrilled 37,000 followers of the local American League champions and sent them away from Comiskey Park convinced that, after several years of waiting, the highest titular honors of the baseball world were to fall to Chicago.

Cicotte was ably assisted by the White Sox machine, which played almost faultless baseball against the determined stand of the National League standard bearers, who would not admit defeat until the final catch of Holk's fly by John Collins ended the contest. Cicotte's team-mates played with certainty of victory, and the combination proved too much for the vaunted power of the Giants.

32,000 Spectators.

An even 32,000 spectators paid admission to the field of the club, with the result that $73,152 was divided among the players, clubs and the National Commission. Of this amount the players received $39,502.08, each of the clubs $13,167.36, and the National Commission $7,315.20.

There was not a vacant seat in the baseball amphitheatre when the players took field and hundreds of disappointed fans thronged the streets unable to penetrate the police lines. Every point of vantage which in any way overlooked the diamond was occupied by men and boys long before the game began.

A touch of color foreign to the foregoing series, was furnished by the presence in a body of more than 1,500 members of the officers reserve training corps from Fort Sheridan. Grouped in a body in the pavilion back of first base, their khaki uniforms and sunburned faces supplied a background which contrasted sharply with the remainder of the civilian gathering.

Sunday's Game.

Chicago, Oct. 7. — The Chicago American League baseball machine trundled half-way to victory in the world's series clash with the New York Nationals today, when the White Sox defeated the Giants 7 to 2 in the second game of the titular struggle. The teams are speeding eastward tonight for the Polo grounds, where on Tuesday the series will be resumed, and if the local team continues to play the type of game it has displayed here, supporters of the Comiskey clan are convinced that the Sox should at least break even with the Giants in the next two contests at New York.

Like Juggernaut.

The White Sox rolled over the Giants today like a baseball juggernaut, leaving disaster and dismay in their wake. The second victory in two days was far more impressive than the win of yesterday, and when the teams left the field, the Chicago club was surcharged with confidence, while the New York combination was badly shattered, both physically and in morale.

The Giants were obliged to use no fewer than four pitchers this afternoon and at the close of the second day of play the White Sox had sampled, with satisfactory results from their standpoint, the service of five of the seven hurlers who form the twirling corp of the Giants. Only Benton and Demaree remain unscorched, and it will be a problem for Manager McGraw to select a pitcher who can hold the Chicago batters in check, even on the home grounds.

Both at bat and in the field, the White Sox maintained the impressive advantage which they showed in the opening game. The offensive and defensive methods and play of the American League standard bearers was far superior to that shown by the New York club and in no department of the national sport did the Giants appear to have the edge on their western rivals. Some idea of this superiority is gained from a comparison of the figures of the two games to date.
