

LOVE STUFF IS FASCINATING BEHIND SCENES

(Chicago News.)

"Today," observed the professor, "I had the pleasure of observing Mary Curford, the beautiful motion picture actress, directing and acting a scene in a play. You know they have a studio just northwest of here."

"How interesting," exclaimed the landlady.

"Perfectly fascinating," observed the landlady's daughter.

"Tell us all about it," insisted the pretty teacher.

"It was a love scene," drawled the professor, making the most of his opportunity to monopolize the breathless attention of the ladies. He took a sip of tea. The ladies waited.

"It was a love scene between herself and Valentine Daye."

The ladies sighed.

"Mary said, 'Now as soon as I come on you rush up to me like this, see? with your arms outstretched. I run right into them and you hold me tight and kiss me three times quick, and then I duck my head on your bosom and hug you around the neck real hard—and then I raise my face and you kiss me real slow for a slow fade-out.'"

"Gee whiz!" exclaimed the pink-cheeked young man.

"Well, I'll be swizzled," complained Stewe.

"Darn!" ejaculated the cross boarder.

"Some people have all the luck," moaned the boarder in arrears.

"Go on, go on!" cried the ladies.

"Tell us all about it."

"Then," continued the professor, "she said, 'Try that, now,' and Valentine tried it, but didn't do it just right."

"I don't blame him," said the wistful boarder.

"So Mary Curford made him do it all over again. Valentine seemed to be an awful stupid fellow."

"Ignorance is bliss," soliloquized the dreamy boarder.

"I suppose she is in love with him," sputtered the landlady.

"Cat!" said the landlady's daughter.

"How could she help it?" inquired the pretty teacher.

"Very easily, I should think," said the wise young lady. "I'm sure I never could love a movie actor. Pass the molasses, please."

"I'm sure I'd be awfully jealous," confessed the landlady's daughter.

"The only way," thundered the landlady, glancing at the portrait of her deceased husband, "to avoid jealousy is to marry a man that no other woman would look at. Will you have another cup, Mr. Bachelor?"

Mr. Bachelor looked puzzled.

"Say, John," he inquired, "if they are Holsteins when they half black are they Halfsteins when they are all black?"

FRANK FOX TO JOIN FLEMING

The Horse Review predicts that Frank Fox and Will Flemming will join forces next spring.

COUNTRY IN A NEW CONDITION

Just at present Canada is in an unfamiliar condition. All the machinery of the law is being started into motion in order to make sure that a large section of the Canadian people respond to the call for military reinforcements. The process will be continued until the men in the first class called up have each and every one responded. They must respond, report for service or send in a claim for exemption, on or before November 10 next.

By the "first class" is meant British subjects in Canada between the ages of 20 and 34 inclusive who were unmarried on July 6, 1917, or are widowers without children. Under the Military Service Act, now in operation, all such men, not exempted for special reasons set forth in the Act as published, are regarded as soldiers absent from duty without leave. A-25.

YOU CAN'T FIND ANY DANDRUFF, AND HAIR STOPS COMING OUT

Save your hair! Make it thick, wavy, glossy and beautiful at once.

Try as you will, after an application of Danderine, you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most, will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment. A small trial bottle will double the beauty of your hair.

Report on Wood.

Ald. Lemont asked for a report from the Wood Committee.

In response Ald. Burnett gave a statement of the committee's actions. He had entered into a number of contracts for four-foot wood delivered in Fredericton at Phoenix Square or the pumping station, delivery to be made by the city to the city's residents. The price would be $9.50 or less per cord, delivered by the city. Ald. Burnett asked for suggestions relative to the distribution and surveying of the wood. Possibly Supt. Edney could handle the wood. If not Harbor Master Joseph Watson might do the work.

Street Committee Criticized.

Mrs. Jane Bradley in a communication asked that the city raise the sidewalk in front of her residence, St. John street, in order to prevent water from running into her cellar. Legal action is threatened if something is not done.

THE GLOBE ON LAURIER'S MANIFESTO

General Mewburn Explains His Recent Criticism of the Militia Department.

Toronto, Nov. 6. — Under the heading "Words instead of men," the Globe today makes its first editorial reference to Sir Wilfrid Laurier's manifesto and says: "The military service act will provide Canada's share of the men needed to win the war—and that without delay. Sir Wilfrid's policy would, if adopted, mean that practically no recruits would be embodied or trained in the Dominion for several months at least, perhaps not at all. Sensible electors will not take it. They will vote against Sir Wilfrid's 'perhaps' and in favor of the Union government's call for obedience to law. We must have men and must have them now. The referendum is a blank cartridge. Therefore it would make a direct appeal to the safety first vote."

"Sir Wilfrid's earlier declaration is more to the point than his long manifesto: 'If Germany wins, nothing else matters.'"

For a Kicker's Breakfast!

Most men are critical about coffee. They travel around among the best hotels and taste coffee prepared by expert chefs.

Now Red Rose Coffee was produced especially to meet the critic's keen, educated taste. It is a blend of the richest coffees, and is crushed—not ground.

Some men, whom we know to be real kickers, have been kind enough to say that the flavor is equal to that of any coffee they have ever tasted.

If you are a kicker, have your wife make you a cup and then tell us what you think of Red Rose Coffee.

The Military

Service Act, 1917

Notice to Employers

The attention of Employers is especially called to the following provisions of the Regulations passed under The Military Service Act, 1917, and The War Measures Act, 1914, which directly affects them.

EMPLOYER TAKING UNDUE ADVANTAGE OF EMPLOYEE.

Every employer, and every person acting on behalf of any employer, who stipulates or attempts or offers to stipulate with any employee or other person for any reduction of an employee's salary or wages, or for the alteration of any other term or condition of his employment, in consideration of the employer exercising or refraining from exercising his right to claim exemption from military service on behalf of any employee, or who alters or attempts or offers or proposes to alter, adversely to any employee, any of the conditions of employment affecting such employee by exercising or refraining from exercising or by authorizing or suggesting the exercise or abstention from exercising of his right to claim exemption from military service on behalf of any employee, shall be guilty of an offence, punishable on summary conviction, by fine or imprisonment, or both, in the discretion of the convicting magistrate: the fine to be not less than one hundred dollars and not more than one thousand dollars, and the imprisonment not to exceed six months.

EMPLOYING MEN WHO ARE IN DEFAULT.

Every person shall be guilty of an offence, and liable on summary conviction to a penalty of not less than fifty dollars, and of not more than five hundred dollars, who, after the expiry of the time within which a man is by proclamation or regulation required to report in accordance with section 4 of the Act or to apply for exemption, employs or engages in his service, or continues in his service for a period of seven days, any man who belongs to any class or sub-class which has been called out, and who has not reported as required by section 4 of the Act, or in respect of whom an application for exemption has not been made, unless such person prove that, having made due inquiry, he believed upon reasonable grounds that the man so employed, engaged or continued in his service did not belong to any class or sub-class called out, or that he had reported or had at the time a certificate, or that an application for exemption by or in respect of the man was at the time pending.

EMPLOYER TO MAKE ENQUIRIES.

(a) It shall be the duty of every person who is an employer to make inquiries forthwith after the issue of any proclamation calling out men for military service under the Act whether any, and, if any, which of his employees are within the class or sub-class called out by such proclamation; and, forthwith after the expiry of the time limited by the proclamation for reporting for service or claiming exemption, to inquire and ascertain whether there are any, and if any, which of the men in his employ so called out who have failed to report or apply for exemption from service, or in respect of whom an application for exemption from service has not been made.

EMPLOYEES TO ANSWER.

(b) It shall be the duty of every employee to answer any questions that shall be put to him by his employer, and to give any information which his employer may require of him for the purpose of enabling the employer to comply with the duty imposed upon him by this section.

REPORT TO MINISTER.

(c) Every employer shall, forthwith after the expiry of the time so limited by any such proclamation, report to the Minister (of Justice) according to the best of his knowledge, information and belief, the names and addresses and the whereabouts at the time of all employees in his service called out by any such proclamation who have failed to report or apply for exemption from service.

PENALTY.

And any person who is an employer who refuses, neglects or fails to comply with any of the requirements imposed upon him by this section shall be guilty of an offence and liable, upon summary conviction, to a penalty not exceeding, as to each employee in respect of whom he has so refused, neglected or failed to comply, one hundred dollars and not less than fifty dollars, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months, or to both fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the convicting magistrate.

EMPLOYING DESERTERS.

Every person who employs or retains in his service any man who has deserted, or who is absent without leave, from the Canadian expeditionary force, shall be guilty of an offence, punishable on summary conviction by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or by a penalty of not less than one hundred dollars, and of not more than five hundred dollars, unless such person prove that he was not aware, and had no reasonable ground to suspect, that the man so employed or retained in his service was a deserter or absent from the force without leave.

Under the proclamation issued on the 13th of October, 1917, the last day for members of Class One under the Act to report or claim exemption is
