PETE HERMAN WON MATCH ON WEDDING DAY

Given Decision Over Frankie Burns at New Orleans—Winner Bantamweight Champion.

New Orleans, Nov. 5. — Pete Herman of New Orleans, world's bantamweight champion, was awarded a decision by Referee Goldman over Frankie Burns of Jersey City here tonight at the end of a 20-round bout.

Herman, whose real name is Peter Gulotta, was married here last night to Miss Anna Leblanc of this city. It became known today. The wedding, it was said, had been set for tomorrow, but Herman desired it to take place before the contest.

Burns, who once knocked out the present champion, was sadly outclassed by his more youthful opponent.

Burns was on the point of a knock-out several times, but his wonderful gameness and ability to smother the younger man's hard drives when sorely in distress made it possible for him to answer the bell at the end of the fray. Herman fought the best bout of his career and kept up a fighting pace that sapped the strength of the Jersey veteran.

Herman was credited with thirteen rounds, Burns with four and three were even.

The betting ranged from 9 to 5 before the fight started to 7 to 5 in the early rounds, with Herman the favorite.

Tonight's fight is the last for Herman before entering the national army November 15. He received $6,000 for the bout.

What does not educe, dams up; lack of education is life imprisonment.
